CIVIL PROCEDURE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Scope of This Act

This Act governs the procedure in the Courts of the Tribe in all suits of a civil nature whether cognizable as cases at law or in equity except where a law or ordinance of the Tribe specifies a different procedure. These rules shall be construed to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action.

Section 2. Jurisdiction in Civil Actions

The Tribal Court may exercise jurisdiction over any person or subject matter on any basis consistent with the Constitution of the Tribe, the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, and any specific restrictions or prohibitions contained in federal law.

Section 3. Title of this Act

This Act shall be known as the Code of Civil Procedure.

Section 4. Force of the Tribal Traditional Law

The customs and traditions of the Tribe, to be known as the Tribal Traditional Law, as modified by the Tribe's Constitution and statutory law, judicial decisions (Common Law), and the condition and wants of the people, shall remain in full force and effect within the Tribal jurisdiction in likeforce with any statute of the Tribe insofar as the Traditional Law is not so modified, but all Tribal statutes shall be liberally construed to promote their object.

Section 5. Definitions

Unless a different meaning is clearly apparent from the context, the term:

(a) "Cherokee Reservation" shall mean all land within the exterior boundaries of an area that was set aside by treaties with the federal government for the Cherokee people, including the predecessors of those Cherokees who Congress would later recognize as a separate tribe called the "Keetoowah Indians of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma," and which would organize as the United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma, which includes all, or a portion, of fourteen counties in today's eastern Oklahoma.

(b) "Chief Executive Officer" means the Chief of the United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma, unless a different meaning is attributed to this term in an agreement with another Indian Tribe which provides for the operation of an intertribal court.

(c) "Claim" means any right of action which may be asserted in a civil action or proceeding and includes, but is not limited to, a right of action created by statute.

(d) "Incompetent Person" means and includes every natural person who has been legally declared incompetent by a court of competent jurisdiction by reason of mental incapacity, habitual or addictive abuse of alcohol or other drugs, or other cause as provided by law.

(e) “Minor Child” means and includes every natural person less than eighteen (18) years of age not declared emancipated from their parent or guardian by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) “Other Indian Tribe” means any federally recognized Indian Tribe other than this Tribe.

(g) “Real Property” or “Non-trust Interest in Real Property” means any interest in real property within the Tribal jurisdiction other than the Indian trust title held by the United States for the use of any Indian or Indian Tribe, or the fee title to any land held by any Indian or Indian Tribe which is subject to a restriction upon alienation imposed by the United States. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as affecting or attempting to affect the trust or restricted title to trust or restricted Indian land.

(h) “Cherokee Reservation” shall mean all land within the exterior boundaries of an area that was set aside by treaties with the federal government for the Cherokee people, including the predecessors of those Cherokees who Congress would later recognize as a separate tribe called the “Keetoowah Indians of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma,” and which would organize as the United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma, which includes all, or a portion, of 14 counties in today’s eastern Oklahoma.

(i) “Tribal Legislative Body” means the Council of the United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma unless a different meaning is attributed to the term by an agreement with another Indian Tribe providing for the establishment of an intertribal Court.

(j) “Tribal Jurisdiction” means all Indian Country as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1151, whether within or outside of the Reservation, which is subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribe, but excluding all lands held by the United States in trust for the Cherokee Nation, or owned in fee by the Cherokee Nation.

(k) “Attorney General” means the UKB Attorney General, as set forth in the Justice Department Act.

Section 6. No Effect Upon Sovereign Immunity

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to be a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Tribe, its officers, employees, agents, or political subdivisions or to be a consent to any suit beyond the limits now or hereafter specifically stated by a Tribal law.

Section 7. Declaratory Judgment

The Court, in any actual controversy before it, shall have the authority to declare the rights of the parties in that suit in order to resolve disputes even though a money judgment or equitable relief is not requested or not due. In particular, the Court may issue its declaratory judgment recognizing Tribal Traditional Law and Common Law marriages and divorces, and provide for the custody of children and division of property in such divorces.

Section 8. Court Costs Not Charged to Tribe

The Tribe, its officers, employees, agents, or political subdivisions acting in their official capacity shall not be charged or ordered to pay any Court costs or attorney fees under this Act, but if these entities prevail in the action, the cost which such entities would have been required to pay may be charged as costs to the losing party as in other cases.

Section 9. Effect of Previous Court Decisions

All previous decisions of the Courts of the Tribe, insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act, shall continue to have precedential value in the Tribal Court.

Section 10. Court of Indian Offenses (C.F.R. Court) Not Applicable

Any and all provisions in the Code of Federal Regulations pertaining to the Bureau of Indian Affairs' Court of Indian Offenses (C.F.R. Court) as presently or hereafter constituted are declared to be not applicable to the Tribe.

Section 11. Laws Applicable to Civil Actions

(a) In all civil cases, the Tribal District Court shall apply:

- (1) The Constitution, Statutes, Traditional Law, and Common Law of the Tribe not prohibited by applicable federal law, and, if none, then
- (2) The federal law, including Federal common law, and, if none, then
- (3) The laws of Oklahoma, or of any other State, Tribal or other jurisdiction which the Court finds to be compatible with the public policy and needs of the Tribe.

(b) No Federal, State, or other Tribal law shall be applied to a civil action pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) of Subsection (a) of this section if such law is inconsistent with the laws of the Tribe or the public policy of the Tribe.

(c) Where any doubt arises as to the customs and usages of the Tribe, the Court, either on its own motion or the motion of any party, may request the advice of elders and councilors familiar with those customs and usages.

CHAPTER ONE

COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION: PLEADINGS, MOTIONS AND ORDERS

Section 101. Commencement of Action

A civil action is commenced by filing a Complaint with the Clerk of the District Court.

Section 102. Notice of Pendency of Action

Upon the filing of a Complaint in the District Court, the action is pending so as to charge third persons with notice of its pendency. While an action is pending, no third person shall acquire an interest in the subject matter of the suit as against the plaintiff's title, except as provided in Section 105 and 106 of this Act.

Section 103. Notice of Pendency Contingent Upon Service

Notice of the pendency of an action shall have no effect unless service of process is made upon the defendant within one hundred twenty (120) days after the filing of the Complaint.

Section 104. Special Notice for Actions Pending in Other Courts

No action pending in either State or Federal Court, or the Court of any other Indian Tribe, shall constitute notice with respect to any real property or personal property located within Tribal Jurisdiction until a notice of pendency of the action, identifying the case and the Court in which it is pending and giving the legal description of the land affected, or the description of the personal property and its location (if known) affected by the action, is filed of record in the office of the Clerk of the Tribal District Court.

Section 105. Pleadings Allowed; Form of Motions

(a) Pleadings. There shall be a Complaint and an Answer; an Answer to a counterclaim an Answer to a crossclaim; a third-party Complaint, if a person who was not an original party is summoned under the provisions of Section 115; and a third-party Answer, if a third-party Complaint is served. No other pleading shall be allowed.

(b) Motions and Other Papers.

- (1) An application to the Court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall:
 - (i) be made in writing;
 - (ii) state with particularity the grounds; and
 - (iii) set forth the relief or order sought.

The requirement of a writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

- (2) The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these rules.
- (3) All motions shall be signed in accordance with Section 109 of this Act.

Section 106. General Rules of Pleading

(a) Claims for Relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief to which they deem themselves entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

(b) Defenses; Forms of Denials. A party shall state in short and plain terms their defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. They may make their denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs, or they may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as they expressly admit. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, they shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. When they intend to controvert all averments in a pleading, including averments of the grounds upon which the Court's jurisdiction depends, if any, they may do so by general denial subject to the obligation set forth in Section 110. If they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, they shall so state and this has the effect of a denial.

(c) Affirmative Defenses. In responding to a pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively each of the following defenses relied upon:

- (1) Accord and satisfaction;
- (2) Arbitration and award;
- (3) Assumption of risk;
- (4) Contributory negligence;
- (5) Discharge in bankruptcy;
- (6) Duress;
- (7) Estoppel;
- (8) Failure of consideration;

- (9) Fraud;
- (10) Illegality;
- (11) Injury by fellow servant;
- (12) Laches;
- (13) License;
- (14) Payment;
- (15) Release;
- (16) Res judicata;
- (17) Statute of frauds;
- (18) Statute of limitations;
- (19) Waiver;
- (20) Any other matter constituting an affirmative defense.

When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the Court, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

(d) Effect of Failure to Deny. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damages, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied.

(e) Pleading to be Concise and Direct; Consistency.

- (1) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required.
- (2) A party may set forth two or more claims or defenses alternatively, either in one count or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more claims or defenses are made in the alternative and one of them, if made independently, would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as they have regardless of consistency and whether based on legal, equitable, or other grounds. All statements shall be made subject to the obligation set forth in Section 109 of this Act.

(f) Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings shall be liberally construed so as to do substantial justice.

Section 107. Pleading Special Matters

(a) Capacity. It is not necessary to assert the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party, except to the extent required to show the jurisdiction of the Court, if necessary. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, they shall do so by specific negative averment, which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge, and that party shall have the burden of proof on that issue.

(b) Fraud, Mistake, Conditions of the Mind. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

(c) Conditions Precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence of conditions precedent shall be made specifically and with particularity.

(d) Official Document or Act. In pleading an official document or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law.

(e) Judgment. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign Court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

(f) Time and Place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

(g) Special Damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated, but specific amounts need not be alleged in order to obtain judgment in the amount to which the party is entitled.

Section 108. Form of Pleadings, Motions and Briefs

(a) Caption; Names of Parties. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the names of the Court, the title of the action, the file number, and a designation of the type of pleading in the terms expressed in Section 105(a). In the Complaint, the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings, it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties. In the initial third party complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, motion and petition in intervention or a pleading by a party suing or being sued in a representative capacity, appropriate designations of all affected parties shall be made and their names stated. Thereafter, papers relating to such matters may contain only the name of the first party in each category with an appropriate indication of other parties.

(b) Paragraphs; Separate Statements. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

(c) Adoption by reference; Exhibits. Statements in a pleading, or motion, or brief may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion or brief. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading, motion, or brief is a part thereof for all purposes.

Section 109. Signing of Pleadings

Every pleading of a party represented by a licensed attorney or advocate shall be signed by at least one attorney or advocate of record in their individual name, whose address and telephone number shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney or advocate shall sign their pleading and state their address and telephone number. Except when otherwise specifically provided by Rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of an attorney or advocate constitutes a certificate by them that they have read the pleading; that to the best of their knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this Section it may be stricken and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a willful violation of this Section an attorney or advocate may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted.

Section 110. Defenses and Objections; When and How Presented; By Pleadings or Motions; Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

(a) When Presented.

- (1) A defendant shall serve their answer within twenty (20) days after the service of the summons and complaint upon them, except when service is made under any one of Sections 216, 218, or 221 of this Act and a different time is prescribed in the order of the Court, or under the statute of the Tribe.

A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against them shall serve an answer within twenty (20) days after the service upon them. The plaintiff shall serve their answer to a counterclaim within twenty (20) days after service of the answer and counterclaim.

The Tribe or an officer or agency thereof shall serve an answer to a complaint, cross-claim or counterclaim within sixty (60) days after the service upon the Attorney General (or the Chief of the Tribe if there is no Attorney General) of the pleading in which the claim is asserted, provided that no default judgment shall be entered against the Tribe.

The service of a motion permitted under this Section alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the Court: (1) if the Court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within ten (10) days after notice of the Court's action; (2) if the Court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after the service of the more definite statement.

- (2) Within the time in which an answer may be served, a defendant may file an entry of appearance and reserve twenty (20) additional days to answer or otherwise defend. Any entry of appearance shall extend the time to respond twenty (20) days from the last date for answering and is a waiver of all defenses numbered 2, 3, 4, 5, and 9 of paragraph (b) of this Section, provided, that a waiver of sovereign immunity shall not be implied.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, crossclaim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion:

- (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter,
- (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person,
- (3) improper venue or forum non conveniens,
- (4) insufficiency of process,
- (5) insufficiency of service of process,
- (6) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted,
- (7) failure to join a party under Section 303,
- (8) another action pending between the same parties for the same claim,
- (9) lack of capacity of a party to be sued, and
- (10) lack of capacity of a party to sue.

A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, they may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (6) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to, and not excluded by, the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Section 905, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all materials made pertinent to such a motion by Section 905. Every motion to dismiss shall be accompanied by a concise brief in support of that motion unless waived by order of the Court.

(c) Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to, and not excluded by, the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Section 905, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Section 905. Every motion for judgment on the pleadings shall be accompanied by a concise brief in support of that motion unless waived by order of the Court.

(d) Preliminary Hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (1)-(10) in Subdivisions (b) of this Section, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in Subdivisions (c) of this Section shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the Court orders that the hearing and determination be deferred until the trial.

(e) Motion for More Definite Statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, they may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the Court is not obeyed within ten (10) days after notice of the order or within such other time as the Court may fix, the Court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just. Such motions are not favored.

(f) Motion to Strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by this Act, upon motion made by a party, within twenty (20) days after the service of the pleading upon them or upon the Court's own initiative at any time, the Court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter. If, on a motion to strike an insufficient defense, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for partial summary judgment and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by the rules relating to summary judgment.

(g) Consolidation of Defenses in Motion. A party who makes a motion under this Section may join with it any other motions herein provided. If a party makes a motion under this section but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to them which this Section permits to be raised by motion, they shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in Subdivision (h)(2) on any of the grounds there stated. The Court may, in its discretion, permit a party to amend their motion by stating additional defenses or objections at any time prior to a decision on the motion

(h) Waiver or Preservation of Certain Defenses.

- (1) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, improper venue or forum non conveniens, insufficiency of process, insufficiency of service of process or lack of capacity of a party to sue is waived (1) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in Subdivision (g), or (2) if it is neither made by motion under this Section nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment permitted by Section 118(a) to be made as a matter of course or (e) if a permissive counterclaim is filed pursuant to Section 112(b).
- (2) A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under Section 303, an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim, and a defense of another action pending may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under Section 105(a), or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.
- (3) Whenever it is determined, upon suggestion of the parties or otherwise, that the Court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the Court shall dismiss the action.

Section 111. Final Dismissal on Failure to Amend

On granting a motion to dismiss, the Court shall grant leave to amend if the defect can be remedied and shall specify the time within which an amended pleading shall be filed, which should be normally be ten (10) days absent good cause for a shorter or longer time. If the amended pleading is not filed within the time allowed, final judgment of dismissal, with prejudice, shall be entered on motion, except in cases of excusable neglect. In such cases, amendment shall be made by the party in default within a time specified by the Court for filing an amended pleading. Within the time allowed by the Court for filing an amended pleading, a plaintiff may voluntarily dismiss the action without prejudice.

Section 112. Counterclaim and Cross-Claim

(a) Compulsory Counterclaims. A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the Court cannot acquire jurisdiction. But the pleader need not state the claim if (1) at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action or (2) the opposing party brought suit upon their claim by attachment or other process by which the Court did not acquire jurisdiction to render a personal judgment on that claim, and the pleader is not stating any other counterclaim under this Section. A party pleading a compulsory counterclaim does not thereby waive any defenses the pleader may otherwise have which are otherwise properly raised.

(b) Permissive Counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subjectmatter of the opposing party's claim.

(c) Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(d) Counterclaim Against the Tribe. This Act shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert claims or counterclaims againstthe Tribe or an officer or agency thereof. A compulsory counterclaim does not waive the defense of sovereign immunity when made by the Tribe or an officer or an agency thereof. A permissive counterclaim waives the defense of sovereign immunity for the purpose of determining the permissive counterclaim stated by the Tribe, its officer, or agency, but does not waive such defense for any other purpose.

(e) Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by a defendant after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the Court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

(f) Omitted Counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, they may by leave of Court set up the counterclaim by amendment, except that when such amendment is served within the time otherwise allowed for amendment without leave of the Court by Section 118(a) of this Act, they may set up such counterclaim by amendment without leave of the Court.

(g) Cross-claim Against Co-party. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

(h) Joinder of Additional parties. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with the provisions of Sections 303 and 304.

(i) Separate Trials, Separate Judgments. If the Court orders separate trials as provided in Section 706(b), judgment on a counterclaim, cross-claim, or third party claim maybe rendered in accordance with the terms of Section 910(b), even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

Section 113. Counterclaim: Effect of the Statutes of Limitation

(a) Where a counterclaim and the claim of the opposing party arise out of the same transaction or occurrence the counterclaim shall not be barred by a statute of limitation notwithstanding that it was barred at the time the complaint was filed, and the counterclaimant shall not be precluded from recovering an affirmative judgment.

(b) Where a counterclaim and the claim of the opposing party:

- (1) Do not arise out of the same transaction or occurrence; and
- (2) Both claims are for money judgments; and
- (3) Both claims had occurred before either was barred by a statute of limitation; and
- (4) The counterclaim is barred by a statute of limitation at the time that it is asserted, whether in an answer or an amended answer, the counterclaim may be asserted only to reduce the opposing party's claim.

(c) Where a counterclaim was barred by a statute of limitation before the claim of the opposing party arose, the barred counterclaim cannot be used for any purpose.

Section 114. Counterclaims Against Assigned Claims

A party, other than a holder in due course, who acquired a claim by assignment or otherwise, takes the claim subject to any defenses or counterclaims that could have been asserted against the person from whom they acquired the claim, but the recovery on a counterclaim may be asserted against the assignee only to reduce the recovery of the opposing party.

Section 115. Third-Party Practice

(a) When Defendant May Bring in Third Party. At any time after commencement of the action, a defending party, as a third party plaintiff, may cause a summons and complaint to be served upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to them for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against them or who is or may be liable to them on a claim arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the claim(s) being asserted against them. The third-party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make the service if they file the third-party complaint not later than ten (10) days after they serve their original answer. Otherwise, they must obtain leave on motion. The person served with the summons and third-party complaint, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make their defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claims as provided in Section 110 and their counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in Section 112. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claims against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff and the third-party defendant shall assert their defenses as provided in Section 110 and their counterclaims and cross-claims as provided in Section 112. A third-party defendant may proceed under this Section against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to them for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant. Any party may move to strike the third-party claim, or for its severance or separate trial.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, they may cause a third party to be brought into the litigation under circumstances which, under this Act, would entitle a defendant to do so.

(c) Party Defendants in Real Property Actions. In an action involving real property, any person appearing in any manner in the title thereto, or claiming or appearing to claim some interest in the real property involved, may be included as a party defendant by naming such person as a party defendant in the caption of the complaint; and when such person is made a defendant in the body of the complaint, using substantially the following words: "said defendant here named claims some right, title, lien, estate, encumbrance, claim, assessment, or interest in and to the real property involved, adverse to plaintiff which constitutes a cloud upon the title of plaintiff and defendant has no right, title, lien, estate, encumbrance, claim, assessment, or interest, either in law or in equity, in and to the real property involved," that same is sufficient to include any and all claims known or unknown, that such defendant may have in and to the real property involved in such case, it not being necessary to set out the reason for such claim or claims in the complaint or other pleading.

Section 118. Amended and Supplemental Pleadings

(a) Amendments. A party may amend their pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, they may so amend it at any time within twenty (20) days after it is served, including amendments to add omitted counterclaims or cross-claims or to add or drop parties. Otherwise, a party may amend their pleading only by leave of the Court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within ten (10) days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the Court otherwise orders.

(b) Amendments to Conform to the Evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they have been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleading, the Court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be served thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the Court that the admission, of such evidence would prejudice them in maintaining their action or defense upon the merits. The Court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence. Where the pretrial conference order has superseded the pleadings, the pre-trial order is controlling, and it is sufficient to amend the order and the pleadings need not be amended.

(c) Relation Back of Amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against them, the party to be brought in by amendment (1) has received such notice of the institution of the action that they will not be prejudiced in maintaining their defense on the merits, and (2) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against them.

The delivery or mailing of process to the Attorney General, or their designee, satisfies the requirement of clauses (1) and (2) thereof with respect to the Tribe or any agency or officer thereof to be brought into the action as a defendant.

(d) Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party, the Court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit them to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions, occurrences, or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. Permission may be granted even though the original pleading is defective in its statement of a claim for relief or defense. If the Court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead to the supplemental pleading, it shall so order, specifying the time the party has to supplement. A supplemental pleading will relate back to the original pleading if it arises out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth in the original pleading.

Section 119. Pre-Trial Procedure: Formulating Issues

(a) In any action, the Court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:

- (1) The simplification of the issues,
- (2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings,
- (3) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof,
- (4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses,
- (5) The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a master for findings to be used as evidence when the trial is to be by jury,
- (6) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

(b) The Court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel: and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. The Court in its discretion may establish by Rule a pre-trial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided and may either confine the calendar to jury actions or to non-injury actions or extend it to all actions.

Section 121. Tenders of Money or Property

When a tender of money or property is alleged in any pleading, it shall not be necessary to deposit the money or property in Court when the pleading is filed, but it shall be sufficient if the money or property is deposited in Court at trial, or when ordered by the Court.

Section 122. Dismissal of Actions

(a) Voluntary Dismissal: Effect Thereof.

(1) By Plaintiff: By stipulation. Subject to the provisions of Section 307 or Section 802 or any statute of the Tribe, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of Court:

(i) by filing a notice of dismissal at any time before service by the adverse party of an answer or of a motion for summary judgment, whichever first occurs; or

(ii) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal without the consent of the defendants operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once voluntarily dismissed, without the consent of the defendant, in any Court of any Indian Tribe, the United States, or any State an action based on or including the same claim, unless such previous dismissal was entered due to inability to obtain personal jurisdiction over an indispensable party or lack of subject matter jurisdiction in the Court in which the case was previously filed. If the plaintiff claims either or both of these exceptions, it shall so state in its notice of dismissal and shall apply to the District Court, upon notice to all adverse parties for an order determining that the previous dismissal was within one or both of the two Stated exceptions and that the plaintiff is entitled to dismiss the current action without prejudice. The Court may grant such application in its discretion and allow the plaintiff to dismiss without prejudice on such terms as are just, due regard being had for costs, attorney fees, and inconvenience of the defendants, and any apparent motive to harass, embarrass, or delay the defendants.

- (2) By Order of the Court. Except as provided in paragraph (1) of this subdivision of this Section, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the Court and upon such terms and conditions as the Court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon them of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection. Unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the Court. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.

(b) Involuntary Dismissal: Effect Thereof. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with this Act, any Court rule, or any order of the Court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against them. After the plaintiff, in an action tried by the Court without a jury, has completed the presentation of their evidence, the defendant, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The Court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the Court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the Court shall make findings as provided in Section 751(a). Unless the Court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subdivision and any dismissal not provided for in this Section, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction, or for failure to join a party under Section 303, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

(c) Dismissal of Counterclaim, Cross-Claim, or Third-Party Claim. The provisions of this Section apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of this Section shall be made before a responsive pleading is served or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing

PROCESS, SUMMONS, FILING OF PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS

Section 201. Issuance of Summons

Upon the filing of the complaint the Court Clerk shall forthwith issue a summons and deliver it for service with a copy of the complaint to the plaintiff's attorney, Chief of Tribal Police or to a person specially appointed by the Court to serve it. Upon request of the plaintiff separate or additional summons shall issue against any defendants.

Section 202. Form of Summons

The summons shall be signed by the Court Clerk, be under the seal of the Court, contain the name of the parties, be directed to the defendant, state the name and address of the plaintiff's attorney, if any, specify the plaintiff's address, and the time within which this Act requires the defendant to appear and defend, and shall notify them that in case of their failure to do so, judgment by default will be rendered against them for the relief demanded in the complaint. When, under Section 218, service is made pursuant to a statute or rule of the Court, the summons, or notice, or order in lieu of summons shall correspond as nearly as may be to that required by the ordinance or rule of the Court.

Section 203. Who May Serve Process Personally

(a) Process, including a subpoena, may be served by any person over eighteen years of age who is not a party to the action, except as provided in Subsection (c) below.

(b) When process has been served and return thereof is filed in the office of the Court Clerk, a copy of the return shall be sent by the Court Clerk to the serving party's attorney within three (3) days after the return is filed.

(c) Process, other than a subpoena, shall not be served by a party's attorney except as provided in Section 204 of this Chapter. A party shall not make service of process unless appearing without an attorney, in which case, the party may make service of process in the same manner and to the same extent that an attorney for the party could have served that process under this Chapter.

Section 204. Service of Process by Mail

(a) A summons and complaint, and a subpoena, may be served by mail by the plaintiff's attorney, or any person authorized to serve process pursuant to Section 203 of this Chapter.

(b) Service by mail may be accomplished by mailing the subpoena, or a copy of the summons and petition, by certified mail, return receipt requested and delivery restricted to the addressee.

(c) Service pursuant to this paragraph shall not be the basis for the entry of a default or a judgment by default unless the record contains a return receipt showing acceptance by the defendant or the defendant's agent, or a returned envelope showing refusal of the process by the defendant. If delivery of the process is refused, upon the receipt of notice of such refusal and at least ten (10) days before applying for entry of default or judgment by default, the person serving the process shall mail to the defendant by first-class mail postage prepaid a copy of the summons and petition and a notice that despite such refusal the case will proceed and that judgment by default will be rendered against them unless they appear to defend the suit. A copy of said notice and proof of mailing thereof shall be filed of record in the case prior to the entry of a judgment by default. Any such default or judgment by default shall be set aside upon motion of the defendant if the defendant demonstrates to the Court that the return receipt was signed or delivery was refused by an unauthorized person. Such motion shall be filed within one (1) year after the defendant has notice of the default or judgment by default but in no event more than two (2) years after the judgment.

(d) In the case of an entity described in Subsection (c) of Section 217 of this Chapter, acceptance or refusal by any officer or by any employee of the registered office or principal place of business who is authorized to or who regularly receives certified mail shall constitute acceptance or refusal by the party addressed.

(e) In the case of a governmental organization subject to suit, acceptance or refusal by an employee of the office of the officials specified in the appropriate Subsection of Section 217 of this Chapter who is authorized to or who regularly receives certified mail shall constitute acceptance or refusal by the party addressed.

Section 205. Service by Publication

Service of summons upon a named defendant may be made by publication when it is stated in a separate affidavit by the plaintiff or their attorney filed with the Court that with due diligence service cannot be made upon the defendant by any other method.

Section 206. Publication Service Upon Parties and the Unknown Successors of Named Parties

(a) Service of summons upon named parties, the unknown successors of a named party, a named decedent, or a dissolved partnership, corporation, or other association may be made by publication when it is stated in the complaint, verified by the plaintiff or their attorney, or in a separate affidavit by the plaintiff or their attorney filed with the Court, that the person who verified the complaint or the affiant does not know, and with due diligence cannot ascertain, the following:

- (1) Whether a person named as a party is living or dead, and, if dead, the names or whereabouts of their successors, if any,
- (2) The names or whereabouts of a party and the unknown successors, if any, of the named decedent or other parties,
- (3) Whether a partnership, corporation, or other association named as a party continues to have legal existence or not; or the name or whereabouts of its officers or successors,

- (4) Whether any person designated in a record as a trustee continues to be the trustee; or the names or whereabouts of the successors of the trustee, or
- (5) The names or whereabouts of the owners or holder of special assessment or improvement bonds, or any other bonds, sewer warrants or tax bills of similar instruments.

(b) Service pursuant to this Section shall be made by publication of a notice, signed by the Court Clerk, on the Tribal Court's website, in the Tribe's newspaper, and in a newspaper authorized by law to publish legal notices which is published within the Cherokee Reservation.

(c) All named parties, their unknown successors, and other persons who may be served by publication may be included in one notice. The notice shall state:

- (1) The name of the Court in which the complaint is filed,
- (2) The names of the parties,
- (3) The parties whose unknown successors are being served, if any;
- (4) That the named parties and their unknown successors have been sued and must answer the complaint or other pleading on or before a time to be stated (which shall not be less than thirty-one (31) days from the date of the publication), or judgment, the nature of which shall be stated, will be rendered accordingly.
- (5) It is not necessary for the publication notice to state that the judgment will include recovery of costs in order for a judgment following the publication notice to include costs of suit.

(d) If jurisdiction of the Court is based on property, any real property subject to the jurisdiction of the Court and any property or debts to be attached or garnished must be described in the notice.

(e) Service is complete upon publication.

Section 207. Publication Notice for Recovery of Money

When the recovery of money is sought, it is not necessary for the publication notice to state the separate items involved, but the total amount that is claimed must be stated. When interest is claimed, it is not necessary to state the rate of interest, the date from which interest is claimed, or that interest is claimed until the obligation is paid.

Section 208. Publication Notice in Quiet Title Actions

In an action to quiet title to real property, it is not necessary for the publication notice to state the nature of the claim or interest of either party, and, in describing the nature of the judgment that will be rendered should the defendant fail to answer, it is sufficient to state the decree quieting plaintiff's title to the described property will be entered. It is not necessary to state that a decree forever barring the defendant from asserting any interest in or to the property is sought or will be entered if the defendant does not answer. In quiet title actions notice shall be published twice. The second publication shall be not less than seven (7) nor more than forty five (45) days after the first publication. The answer shall be due thirty one (31) days after the second publication, and service is complete upon the second publication.

Section 209. Completion of Publication Service

Service of publication is complete when made in the manner and for the time prescribed in this Chapter. Service by publication shall be proved by the affidavit of any person having knowledge of the publication with a copy of the published notice attached. No default judgment may be entered on such service until proof of service by publication is filed with and approved by the Court.

Section 210. Entry of Default on Party Served by Publication

Before entry of a default judgment or order against a party who has been served solely by publication under this Chapter, the Court shall conduct an inquiry to determine whether the plaintiff, or someone acting in their behalf, made a distinct and meaningful search of all reasonably available sources to ascertain the whereabouts of any named parties who have been served solely by publication under this Subsection. Before entry of a default judgment or order against the unknown successors of a named defendant, a named decedent, or a dissolved partnership, corporation, or association, the Court shall conduct an inquiry to ascertain whether the requirements described in Subsection (a) of Section 206 of this Chapter have been satisfied.

Section 211. Vacating Default Judgments Where Service is by Publication

(a) A party against whom a default judgment or order has been rendered, without other service than by publication in a newspaper, may, at anytime within three (3) years after the date of the judgment or order, have the judgment or order opened and be let in to defend.

(b) Before the judgment or order is opened, the applicant shall notify the adverse party of their intention to make such challenge, and shall

- (1) File a full answer to that petition;
- (2) Pay all costs if the Court requires them to be paid; and
- (3) Satisfy the Court by affidavit or other evidence that during the pendency of the action they had no actual notice thereof in time to appear in Court and make their defense.

(c) The title to any property which is the subject of a default judgment after service by publication, and which passed to a purchaser in good faith by or in consequence of the judgment or order to be opened shall not be affected by any proceedings under the Section. Nor shall proceedings under this Section affect the title of any property sold before judgment under an attachment.

(d) The adverse party, on the hearing of any application to open a judgment or order as provided by this Section, shall be allowed to present evidence to show that during the pendency of the action the applicant had notice thereof in time appear in Court and make their defense.

Section 212. Certain Technical Errors Not Grounds for Vacating Judgment

(a) No judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered in any action against unknown heirs or devisees of a deceased person shall ever be construed, or held to be, either void or voidable upon the ground that an affidavit of the plaintiff to the effect that the name of such heirs or devisees, or any of them, and their residences, are unknown to the plaintiff, was not annexed to their complaint so long as said affidavit is on file in the action, and all such judgment, if not otherwise void, are hereby declared to be valid and binding from the date of rendition.

(b) No judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered in any action against any person or party served by publication shall be construed or held to be void or voidable because the affidavit for such service by publication on file in the action was made by the attorney for the plaintiff or because the complaint or other pleading was verified, if verification is necessary, by the attorney for the plaintiff or party seeking such service by publication. In all such cases it shall be conclusively presumed, if otherwise sufficient, that the allegation and statement made by such attorney were and are in legal effect and for all purposes made by plaintiff and shall have the same force and effect as if actually made by the plaintiff.

(c) All such judgment, if not otherwise defective or void, are hereby declared valid and legally effective and conclusive as of the date thereof as if such affidavit was made or the complaint or pleading was verified by the plaintiff or other party obtaining such service by publication.

Section 213. Meaning of "Successors" for Publication Purposes

The term "successors" includes all heirs, executors, administrators, devisees, trustees, and assigns, immediate and remote, of a named individual, partnership, corporation, or association.

Section 214. Minimum Contacts Required for Effective Long Arm Service

Service outside of the Tribe's territorial jurisdiction does not give the Court in personam jurisdiction over a defendant who is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts of this Tribe, or who has not, either in person or through an agent, submitted themselves to the jurisdiction of the Court or this Tribe either by appearance, written consent, or having voluntarily entered into sufficient contacts with the Tribe, its citizens, or its territory to justify tribal jurisdiction over them in accordance with the principals of due process of law and federal Indian law.

Section 215. Consent is Effective Substitute for Service

A written agreement to accept substitute service, an acknowledgment on or attached to the summons, or the voluntary appearance of a defendant is equivalent to service.

Section 216. Service Pursuant to Court Order

If service cannot be made by personal delivery or by mail, a defendant of any class referred to in Subsection (a) or (c) of Section 217 of this Chapter may be served as provided by Court order in any manner which is reasonably calculated to give them actual notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard. The Court may enter an order requiring such service whenever service has been by publication only prior to entering a default judgment.

Section 217. Manner of Making Personal Service

The summons and complaint shall be served together. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service with such certified copies as are necessary. If the complaint is not served with the summons, the case shall not be dismissed but the time to answer should be extended by the Court upon motion. The person serving the summons shall state on the copy that is left with the party served the date that service is made. Where service is to be made by mail, the person mailing the summons shall state on the copy that is mailed to the party to be served the date of mailing. These provisions are not jurisdictional, but if the failure to comply with them prejudices the party served, the Court may extend the time to answer. Service of the summons and complaint and service of subpoenas shall be made as follows:

(a) Upon an individual other than a Minor Child or an Incompetent Person, by delivering a copy of the summons and a copy of the complaint to them personally or by leaving copies thereof at their dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person fifteen (15) years of age or older then residing therein or by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process.

(b) Upon a minor child who is younger than fourteen (14) years of age, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to either parent, the legal guardian, or the child's attorney, but for abuse or neglect cases, to the child's guardian ad litem only. If a parent, legal guardian, or other legal representative of the child cannot be located, delivery of the summons and complaint may be made to an adult with whom the child resides, along with such explanatory letter as the Clerk of the Court may prescribe. Upon a minor child who is fourteen (14) years of age or older, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to either parent, the legal guardian, or the child's attorney, but for abuse or neglect cases, to the child's attorney only. If a parent or legal guardian cannot be located, and the child is not represented by an attorney, by delivery to the child personally, along with such explanatory letter as the Clerk of the Court may prescribe.

(c) Upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association which is subject to suit under a common name, by delivering copy of the summons and of the complaint to an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by statute to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy to the defendant. Service may also be had upon such entities by delivering the summons and complaint to a place of business of such entity and leaving a copy with the person in charge of that place of business at the time service is made.

(d) Upon the United States, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the United States Attorney for the Western District of Oklahoma or to an assistant United States Attorney or clerical employee designated by the United States Attorney in a writing filed with the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma and by sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail to the Attorney General of the United States at Washington, District of Columbia, and in any action attacking the validity of an order of an officer or agency of the United States not made a party, by also sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered or certified mail to such officer or agency.

(e) Upon any office or agency of the United States, by serving the United States and by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to such officer or agency. If the agency is a corporation the copy shall be delivered as provided in Subsection (c) of this Section.

(f) Upon a State, a State municipal corporation, any other Indian Tribe, or other governmental organization thereof subject to suit, by delivering copy of the summons and of the complaint to the Chief Executive Officer thereof or by serving the summons and complaint in the manner prescribed by the law of that State or Tribe for the service of summons or other like process upon any such defendant.

(g) Upon this Tribe by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to the Chief of the Tribe, or to such Tribal officer or employee as may be designated by the Chief of the Tribe in a writing filed with the Clerk of the Tribal District Court, and by sending a copy of the summons and complaint registered or Certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Attorney General and in any action attacking the validity of an order of an officer or agency of the Tribe not made a party, by also sending a copy of the summons and complaint by registered or certified mail, return receipt request, to such officer or agency. The name and address of the Attorney General may always be obtained from the Clerk of the Tribal Court.

(h) Upon any officer or agency of this Tribe by serving the Tribe, and by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to such officer or agency. If the agency is a corporation, the copy shall be delivered as provided in Subsection (c) of this Section.

Section 217.1 Effect of Service of Some of Several Defendants

(a) Where the action is against two or more defendants, and one or more have been served, but not all of them, the plaintiff may proceed as follows:

- (1) If the action be against defendants jointly indebted upon contract, tort, or any other cause of action; they may proceed against the defendants served, unless the Court otherwise orders; and if they recover judgment, it may be entered against: (a) all the defendants thus jointly indebted only insofar as the judgment may be enforced against the joint property of all, and (b) against the defendants served insofar as the judgment may be enforced against the separate property of the defendants served, and if they are subject to arrest, against the person of the defendants served.

- (2) If the action be against defendants severally liable, they may, without prejudice to their rights against those not served, proceed against the defendants served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants.

(b) A judgment against one or more defendants served, whether jointly or severally liable, shall not be construed to make such judgment a bar to another action against those not served.

Section 218. Service Upon Party Not Within the Tribe's Jurisdiction

(a) Whenever an ordinance of the Tribe or an order of the Court provides for service of summons, or of a notice, or of an order in lieu of summons upon a party not an inhabitant of, nor found within the geographical boundaries of the Tribe's territorial jurisdiction, service may be made under the circumstances and in the manner prescribed by the ordinance or order, or, if there is no provision therein prescribing the manner of service, in a manner stated in this Act.

(b) In any action against a foreign corporation or association where service is authorized by Tribal law upon a Tribal Officer, and the party seeking service elects to serve the Tribal Officer, service shall be made as follows:

- (1) The Tribal District Court Clerk shall issue a summons and shall forthwith mailor personally triplicate copies of said summons, together with a copy of the complaint, to the Tribal officer. The Court Clerk shall make due return, indicating that the summons and complaint copies have been delivered to the Tribal Officer and the date of such delivery. Receipt of the summons and complaint by the Tribal Officer shall constitute service upon them. Within three (3) working days after service upon them, the Tribal Officer shall send copies of the summons and complaint to such foreign corporation or association, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at its office as shown by the articles of incorporation, or charter, or by the latest information officially filed in the office of the Tribal Officer. The summons shall set forth the last known address of the office of the corporation or association as ascertained by the parties by use of due diligence, and the Tribal Officer shall mail copies of the summons and complaint to the corporation or association at this address. The Tribal Officer shall maintainone copy of the summons and complaint with the records of the corporation orassociation.
- (2) The original summons that is served on the Tribal Officer shall be in form andsubstance the same as provided in suits against residents of the Tribal jurisdiction. The summons shall state an answer date which shall be not less than forty-five (45) days nor more than sixty (60) days from the date that such summons was issued.

Section 219. Territorial Limits of Effective Service

(a) All process, other than subpoena or process involving the detention, seizure, or arrest of person or property, may be served anywhere within the Reservation boundaries, or any Indian Country, as defined by 18 U.S.C. §1151, which is subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribe and, when authorized by an ordinance of the Tribe or by this Act, beyond these territorial limits.

(b) In addition, persons who are brought in as parties pursuant to Section 115 of this Act, or as additional parties to a pending action or a counterclaim or cross-claim pursuant to Section 302, may be served in the manner stated in subsections (a)-(f) of Section 217 of this Act at all places outside the Reservation of the Tribe but within the United States, and persons required to respond to an order of commitment for civil contempt may be served, but not arrested, at the same places.

(c) A subpoena or process involving the detention, seizure, or arrest of persons or property may be served and compulsorily enforced only within the Indian Country, as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 1151, which is subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribe. A subpoena or other process involving the detention, seizure or arrest of a person or property may be served anywhere within the United States, but no compulsory enforcement thereof may be maintained in this Court unless such person or property is located within the Indian Country of the Tribe when service is made.

(d) When the exercise of jurisdiction is authorized by Tribal or Federal law, service of the summons and complaint may be made outside this reservation:

- (1) By personal delivery in the manner prescribed for service within this Reservation,
- (2) In the manner prescribed by the law of the place in which the service is made for service in an action in any of its courts of general jurisdiction,
- (3) By publication in appropriate circumstances,
- (4) As directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter rogatory, or
- (5) As directed by the Court.

Section 220. Return of Service of Process

(a) The person serving the process shall make proof of service thereof to the Court promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the process. If service is made by a person other than the Chief of the Tribal Police or their deputy, the Bureau of Indian Affairs Police or their deputy, or an attorney by mail, they shall make affidavit thereof. Return of receipt for certified or registered mail shall be attached to the proof of service if service was made by mail. A copy of each publication of notice shall be attached to the return of service by publication. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

(b) The person serving the summons shall state on the copy that is left with the party served, as well as on the return, the date that service is made. Where service is to be made by mail, the person mailing the summons shall state on the copy that is mailed to the party to be served the date of mailing. These provisions are not jurisdictional, but if the failure to comply with them prejudices the party served, the Court may extend the time to answer.

Section 221. Alternative Provisions for Service in a Foreign Country

(a) Manner. When the law of the Tribe referred to in Section 218 of this Chapter authorizes service upon a party not an inhabitant of or found within the territorial limits of effective service of the Tribal Court, and when service is to be effected upon the party in a foreign country, it is also sufficient if service of the summons and complaint is made: (1) in the manner prescribed by the law of the Tribe, State, or foreign country for service in that Tribe, State, or country in an action in any of its Courts of general jurisdiction; or (2) as directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter rogatory when service in either case is reasonably calculated to give actual notice; or (3) upon an individual, by delivery to them personally, and upon a corporation or partnership or association, by delivery to an officer, a managing or general agent; or (4) by any form of mail, requiring a signed receipt, to be addressed and dispatched by the Clerk of the Court to the party to be served; or (5) as directed by the order of the Court. Service under (3) or (5) above may be made by any person who is not a party and is not less than eighteen (18) years of age or who is designated by order of the District Court or by the foreign Court. On request, the Clerk shall deliver the summons to the plaintiff for transmission to the person or the foreign Court or officer who will make the service.

(b) Return. Proof of service may be made as prescribed by Section 220 of this Chapter, or by the law of the Tribe, State, or foreign country, or by order of the Court. When service is made by mail pursuant to Subsection (a) of this Section, proof of service shall include a receipt signed by the addressee or other evidence of the delivery to the address satisfactory to the Court.

Section 222. Subpoena

(a) For Attendance of Witnesses; Form; Issuance. Every subpoena shall be issued by the Clerk under the seal of the Court, shall state the name of the Court and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified. The Clerk shall issue a subpoena, or a subpoena for the production of documentary or other physical evidence signed and sealed, but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.

(b) For Production of Documentary Evidence. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein; but the Court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

(c) Service. A subpoena may be served by any police officer of the Tribal Police, any police officer employed by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, or by any other person authorized by the Court rule or order who is not a party and is not less than 18 years of age. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the Tribe or an officer or agency thereof, fees and mileage need not be tendered, but fees paid shall be charged to such Tribal Officer or agency budget. A subpoena may be served as provided in Section 204 if accepted by the addressee. All subpoena service expenses may be recovered as other costs.

(d) Subpoena for Taking Depositions; Place of Examination.

- (1) Proof of service of a notice to take a deposition as provided in Sections 405(b) and 406(a) presentation of prepared notices to be attached to the subpoena constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance by the clerk of the District Court of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things which constitute or contain matter within the scope of the examination permitted by Section 401(b), but in that event the subpoena will be subject to the provisions of Section 401(c) and Subsection (b) of this Section.

The person to whom the subpoena is directed may, within ten (10) days after the service thereof or on or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance, if such time is less than ten (10) days after service, serve upon the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspect or copying of any or all of the designated materials. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials except pursuant to an order of the Court from which the subpoena was issued. The party serving the subpoena may, if objection has been made, move upon notice to the deponent for an order at any time before or during the taking of the deposition.

- (2) A resident of the Tribal jurisdiction may be required to attend an examination at any place within the Tribal jurisdiction not more than fifty (50) miles from their residence, except that they may be required to attend any place within the District wherein they resides, is employed, or transacts their business in person, or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of the Court. A nonresident of the Tribal jurisdiction may be required to attend only in the District wherein they is served with a subpoena or resides or within fifty (50) miles from the place of service, or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of the Court.

(e) Subpoena for Hearing on Trial.

- (1) At the request of any party, subpoenas for attendance at a hearing or trial shall be issued by the Clerk of the District Court. A subpoena requiring the attendance of a witness at a hearing or trial may be served at any place within the tribal jurisdiction, or any place outside of the Tribal jurisdiction that is within one hundred (100) miles of the place of the hearing or trial specified in the subpoena; and, when a statute of the Tribe provides therefore, the Court upon proper application and cause shown may authorize the service of a subpoena at any other place.

- (2) A subpoena directed to a witness in a foreign country shall issue under the circumstances and in the manner and be served as may be provided by any Tribal statute.

(f) Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon them within the Tribal jurisdiction may be deemed a contempt of the District Court.

Section 230. Summons, Time Limit for Service

(a) If service of process is not made upon a defendant within one hundred twenty (120) days after the filing of the complaint and the plaintiff cannot show good cause why such service was not made within that period, the action shall be dismissed as to that defendant without prejudice upon the Court's own initiative with notice to the plaintiff or upon motion.

(b) If service of process is not made upon a defendant within one hundred eighty (180) days after the filing of the complaint, the action shall be deemed to have been dismissed without prejudice as to that defendant. This Section shall not apply to service in a foreign country.

Section 231. Service and Filing of Pleadings and Other Papers

(a) Service: When Required. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the Court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every paper relating to discovery required to be served upon a party unless the Court otherwise orders, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except the pleading asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons.

In an action begun by seizure of property, in which no person need be or is named as defendant, any service required to be made prior to the filing of an answer, claim, or appearance shall be made upon the person having custody or possession of the property at the time of its seizure, and upon any person then known to claim an ownership interest in the property.

(b) Service: How Made. Whenever service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney (including any person licensed to practice law before the Tribal Court) the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party themselves is ordered by the Court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to them, by mailing it to them at their last known address, by emailing it to them at their last known email address, or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the Clerk of the Court who shall mail a copy thereof to the party's last address of record. Delivery of a copy within this Section means: handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at their office with their Clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place; or if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at their dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person fifteen (15) years of age or older then residing within the home. Service by mail or email is complete upon mailing or emailing.

(c) Service: Numerous Defendants. In any action in which there are unusually large numbers of defendants, the Court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross-claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the Court directs.

(d) Filing. All papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the Court either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter. Discovery materials need not be filed except by order of the Court, for use in the proceedings, or to enforce or resist such discovery.

(e) Filing with the Court defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the Court as required by this Chapter shall be made by filing them with the Clerk of the Court, which may include filing by email or other electronic means as may be allowed by Court rule, except that the Judge may permit the papers to be filed with them, in which event they shall note thereon the filing date and forthwith transmit them to the office of the Clerk.

Section 240. Computation and Enlargement of Time

(a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Act, by order of the Court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, a legal holiday or any other day when the office of the Clerk of the Court does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m. in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday or any other day when the office of the Clerk of the Court does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than or equal to 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays or any other day when the office of the clerk of the Court does not remain open for public business until 4:00 p.m. shall be excluded in the computation. As used in this Section and in the provisions relating to the Court, "legal holiday" includes New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Juneteenth, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and any other day appointed as a holiday by the President, the Congress of the United States, or by the Tribe.

(b) Enlargement. When by this Act or by a notice given or by order of the Court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the Court for cause shown any at any time in its discretion may (1) with or without motion or notice, order the period enlarged, or (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period, permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Sections 751(b), 757(b), and 911 (a), except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

(c) For Motions-Affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing shall be served not later than five (5) days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by this Act or by order of the Court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in Section 908(c), opposing affidavits may be served not later than one (1) day before the hearing, unless the Court permits them to be served at some other time.

(d) Additional Time After Service by Mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon them and the notice or paper is served upon them by U.S. mail, three (3) days shall be added to the prescribed period.

Section 241. General Cases in Which Extraterritorial Service Authorized

Service of summons and complaint, third party complaints, and other process by which an action is initiated may be made outside the territorial jurisdiction of the Tribe in the following cases, in addition to any circumstances specifically or otherwise provided for:

- (a) In all actions arising under the Tribal juvenile statutes or the Indian Child Welfare Act;
- (b) In all divorce actions when one of the parties is a resident of the Tribal jurisdiction or a citizen of the Tribe;
- (c) In all actions arising in contract where the contract was entered into, or some material portion thereof was to be performed, within the Tribal jurisdiction; or
- (d) In all actions arising out of the operation of an automobile within the Tribal jurisdiction by a non-resident when an injury to person or property resulted within the Tribal jurisdiction from the operation of the motor vehicle.

Section 242. Legal Newspaper

All newspapers regularly published at least once each week for a period of two years prior to the date of publication of a notice within the Reservation or in any county adjacent thereto, and the Tribal newspaper shall be legal newspapers for the publication of any notice required to be published by Tribal law.

CHAPTER THREE

PARTIES

Section 301. Parties Plaintiff and Defendant: Capacity

(a) Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, except that an executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in their own name without joining with them the party for whose benefit the action is brought; and when a statute of the Tribe so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the Tribe.

No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

(b) Capacity to Sue or Be Sued. Except as otherwise provided by law, every person, corporation, partnership, or incorporated association shall have the capacity to sue or be sued in its own name, in the Courts of the Tribe, and service may be had upon incorporated associations and partnerships as provided in Section 217(c) of this Act, upon a managing or general partner, or upon an officer of an unincorporated association.

(c) Minor Children and Incompetent Persons. Whenever a Minor Child or Incompetent Person has a representative, such as a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other like fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the Minor Child or Incompetent Person. If a Minor Child or Incompetent Person does not have a duly appointed representative, they may sue by their next friend or by a guardian ad litem. The Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for a Minor Child or Incompetent Person not otherwise represented in an action or shall make such other order as it deems proper for the protection of the Minor Child or Incompetent Person.

(d) Assignment of Tort Claims. Claims arising in tort may not be assigned and must be brought by the injured party, provided, that this Subsection shall not preclude subrogation of the proceeds of such tort claims for the benefit of any person, including insurance companies, who have compensated the injured party for their injuries, including property damage, to the extent of the payment made by the third party.

Section 302. Joinder of Claims, Remedies and Actions

(a) Joinder of Claims. A party asserting a claim to relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims, legal or equitable, as they may have against an opposing party.

(b) Joinder of Remedies; Fraudulent Conveyances. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action, but the Court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a claim for money and a claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to them, without first having obtained a judgment establishing the claim for money.

(c) Joinder of Actions By the Court. Whenever it appears to the Court that separate actions are pending between the same parties, or involving the same facts or law, the Court may, if the parties will not be prejudiced thereby, order said actions joined for all, or a portion of the further proceedings.

Section 303. Joinder of Persons Needed for Just Adjudication

(a) Persons to be Joined if Feasible. A person who is subject to service of process and whose joinder will not deprive the Court of jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action shall be joined as a party in the action if:

- (1) In their absence, complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties; or
- (2) They claim an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in their absence may:
 - (i) as a practical matter, impair or impede their ability to protect that interest, or
 - (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of their claimed interest.

If they have not been so joined, the Court shall order that they be made a party. If they should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, they may be made a defendant, or in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff.

(b) Determination by Court Whenever Joinder Not Feasible.

If a person as described in subdivision (a)(1)-(2) hereof cannot be made a party, the Court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the Court in making such determination include:

- (1) The extent to which a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to them or those already parties;
- (2) The extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or by other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided;

- (3) Whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; and
- (4) Whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for non-joinder.

(c) Pleading Reasons for Non-Joinder. A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any person as described in subdivision (a)(1)-(2) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

(d) Exception of Class Actions. This Section is subject to the provisions of Section 307.

Section 304. Permissive Joinder of Parties

(a) Permissive Joinder.

- (1) All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, or if any question or fact common to all these persons will arise in the action, or if the claims are connected with the subject matter of the action.
- (2) All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, or if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action, or if the claims are connected with the subject matter of the action.
- (3) A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

(b) In actions to quiet title or actions to enforce mortgages or other liens upon property, persons who assert an interest in the property that is the subject of the action may be joined although their interest does not arise from the same transaction or occurrence.

(c) Separate Trials. The Court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom they assert no claim, or who asserts no claim against them, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

Section 305. Misjoinder and Non-Joinder of Parties

Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the Court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Leave of the Court shall not be required when the pleader amends their pleadings within the time-period for amendment of pleadings without leave of the Court specified in Section 115(a). Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately upon order of the Court.

Section 306. Interpleader

(a) Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the title on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that they are not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this Section supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted in Section 304.

(b) The provisions of this Section shall be applicable to actions brought against a Tribal Policeman or other officer for the recovery of personal property taken by them under execution or for the proceeds of such property so taken and sold by them and the defendant in any such action shall be entitled to the benefit of this Section against the party in whose favor the execution issued.

(c) The Court may make an order for the safekeeping of the subject of the action or for its payment or delivery into the Court or to such person as the Court may direct, and the Court may order the person who is seeking relief by way of interpleader to give a bond, payable to the Clerk of the Court, in such amount and with such surety as the Court may deem proper, conditioned upon the compliance with the future order of judgment of the Court with respect to the subject matter of the controversy. Where the party seeking relief by way of interpleader claims no interest in the subject of the action and the subject of the action has been deposited with the Court or with a person designated by the Court, the Court should discharge them from the action and from liability as to the claims of the other parties to the action with costs and, in the discretion of the Court, a reasonable attorney fee.

(d) In cases of interpleader, costs may be adjudged for or against any party, except as provided in Subsection (c) of this Section.

Section 307. Class Actions

(a) Prerequisites to a Class Action. One or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if:

- (1) The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable,

- (2) There are questions of law or fact common to the class,
- (3) The claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class, and
- (4) The representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

(b) Class Actions Maintainable. An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of Subsection (a) are satisfied, and in addition:

- (1) The prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - (i) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class that would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class,
 - (ii) adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the individual adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.
- (2) The party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole, or
- (3) The Court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include: (A) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class; (C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and (D) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(c) Determination by Order Whether Class Action to Be Maintained; Notice; Judgment; Actions Conducted Partially as Class Actions.

- (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the Court shall determine by order whether it is to be maintained. An order under this subdivision may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.

- (2) In any class action maintained under subdivision (b) (3), the Court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that:
 - (i) the Court will exclude them from the class if they so requests, by a specified date,
 - (ii) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion, and
 - (iii) any member who does not request exclusion may, if they desires, enter an appearance through counsel.
- (3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (b) (1) or (b) (2), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the Court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (b) (3), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subdivision (e) (2) was directed, and who have not requested exclusion, and whom the Court finds to be members of the class.
- (4) When appropriate:
 - (i) an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or
 - (ii) a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this Section shall then be construed and applied accordingly.
- (5) Where the class contains more than five hundred (500) members who can be identified through reasonable effort, it shall not be necessary to direct individual notice to more than five hundred (500) members, but the members to whom individual notice is not directed shall be given notice in such manner as the Court shall direct, which may include publishing notice in newspapers, magazines, trade journals or other publications, posting it in appropriate places, and taking other steps that are reasonably calculated to bring the notice to the attention of such members, provided that the cost of giving such notice shall be reasonable in view of the amounts that may be recovered by the class members who are being notified. Members to whom individual notice was not directed may request exclusion from the class at any time before the issue of liability is determined, and commencing an individual action before the issue of liability is determined shall be the equivalent of requesting exclusion from the class.

(d) Orders in Conduct of Actions. In the conduct of actions to which this Section applies, the Court may make appropriate orders:

- (1) Determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument,
- (2) Requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the Court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action,
- (3) Imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors,
- (4) Requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly, or
- (5) Dealing with similar procedural matters.

The orders may be combined with an order under Section 119, and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.

(e) Dismissal or compromise. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the Court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the Court directs.

Section 308. Derivative Actions by Shareholders and Members

(a) In a derivative action brought by one or more shareholders or members to enforce a right of a corporation or of an unincorporated association, the corporation or association having failed to enforce a right which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall be verified and shall allege:

- (1) That the plaintiff was a shareholder or member at the time of the transaction of which they complain or that their share or membership thereafter devolved on them by operation of law, and
- (2) That the action is not a collusive one to confer jurisdiction on a Court of the Tribe which it would not otherwise have. The complaint shall also allege with particularity the efforts, if any, made by the plaintiff to obtain the action they desire from the directors or comparable authority and, if necessary, from the shareholders or members, and the reasons for their failure to obtain the action or for not making the effort.

(b) The derivative action may not be maintained if it appears that the plaintiff does not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders or members similarly situated in enforcing the right of the corporation or association. The action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the Court and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to shareholders or members in such manner as the Court directs. The Court shall not take jurisdiction over such actions concerning the internal affairs of corporations or other entities formally organized under the law of some other jurisdiction absent the consent of all parties to the controversy or some compelling reason to assume such jurisdiction.

(c) An action brought by or against the members of an unincorporated association as a class by naming certain members as representative parties may be maintained only if it appears that the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the association and its members. In the conduct of the action the Court may make appropriate orders corresponding with those described in Section 307(d) and the procedure for dismissal or compromise of the action shall correspond with that provided in Section 307.

Section 309. Intervention

(a) Intervention of Right. Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute of the Tribe confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (2) when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and they are so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede their ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.

(b) Permissive Intervention. Upon timely application anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a tribal, federal, or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirement, or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion, the Court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

(c) Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon the parties as provided in Section 231. The motion shall state the grounds therefore and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought. If the motion to intervene is granted, all other parties may serve a responsive pleading upon leave of the Court.

(d) Intervention by the Tribe. In any action, suit, or proceeding to which the Tribe or any agency, officer, or employee thereof is not a party in their official capacity, wherein the constitutionality or enforceability of any statute of the Tribe affecting the public interest is drawn in question, the parties, and upon their failure to do so, the Court, shall certify such fact to the Chief of the Tribe, the Attorney General, and Council and the Court shall permit the Tribe to intervene for presentation of evidence, if the evidence is otherwise admissible in the case, and for argument on the question of constitutionality or enforceability. The Tribe shall, subject to the applicable provisions of law, have all the rights of a party, and be subject to the liability of a party--as to Court costs only--to the extent necessary for a proper presentation of the facts and law relating to the question of constitutionality or enforceability of the Tribal laws at issue. It shall be the duty of the party raising such issue to promptly give notice thereof the Court either orally upon the record in open Court or by a separate written notice filed with the Court and served upon all parties, and to State in said notice when and how notice of the pending question will be or has been certified to the Tribe as provided above.

Section 310. Substitution of Parties

(a) Death.

- (1) If a party dies, the Court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by any party or by the successors or representatives of the deceased party and, together with the notice of the hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided in Section 231 and upon persons not parties in the manner provided for the service of a summons, and may be served within or outside of the Tribal jurisdiction. Unless it would result in prejudice to any party, the action shall be dismissed as to the deceased party.
- (2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives to the surviving plaintiffs or against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.
- (3) Actions for liable, slander, and malicious prosecution shall abate at the death of the defendant.
- (4) Other actions, including actions for wrongful death, shall survive the death of a party.

(b) Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the Court upon motion served as provided in Subsection (a) of this Section may allow the action to be continued by or against their representative.

(c) Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the Court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in Subsection (a) of this Section.

(d) Public Officers; Death or Separation From Office.

- (1) When a public officer is a party to an action in their official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and their successor is automatically substituted as a party. Following the substitution, the proceedings shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.
- (2) When a public officer sues or is sued in their official capacity, they may be described as a party by their official title rather than by name, but the Court may require their name to be added.

CHAPTER FOUR

DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

Section 401. General Provisions Governing Discovery

(a) Discovery Methods. Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission. Unless the Court orders otherwise under Subsection (c) of this Section, the frequency of use of these methods is not limited. Discovery may be obtained as provided herein in aid of execution upon a judgment.

(b) Scope of Discovery. Unless otherwise limited by order of the Court in accordance with this Chapter, the scope of discovery is as follows:

- (1) In general. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
- (2) Insurance agreements. A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any insurance agreements under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this paragraph, an application for insurance shall not be treated as part of an insurance agreement.
- (3) Trial preparation: materials. Subject to the provisions of subdivision (b) (4) of this Section, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under Subsection (b) (1) of this Section and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative (including their attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of their case and that they are unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the Court shall protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation.

A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a Court order. The provisions of Section 412(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this paragraph, a statement previously made is (1) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or (2) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

(4) Trial preparation: Experts. Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of Subsection (b)(1) of this Section and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:

(i) A party may through interrogatories require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion.

(ii) Upon motion, the Court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to subdivision (b) (4) (iii) of this Section, concerning fees and expenses as the Court may deem appropriate.

(iii) A party may discover the facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial and who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial, only as provided in Section 410(b) or upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.

(iv) Unless manifest injustice would result, (1) the Court shall require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under Subsections (b)(4)(i)(A) and (b)(4)(ii) of this Section; and (2) with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision (b)(4)(i)(B) of this Section, the Court may require, and shall require with respect to discovery obtained under Subsection (b)(4)(ii) of this Section, the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.

(b) Protective Orders. Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought and for good cause shown, the Court, or alternatively, on matters relating to deposition, the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is to be taken, may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following: (1) that the discovery not be had; (2) that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place; (3) that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery; (4) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters; (5) that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the Court; (6) that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the Court; (7) that a trade secret or other confidential research and development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way; (8) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the Court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the Court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of Section 412(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(c) Sequence and Timing of Discovery. Unless the Court orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence, and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party's discovery.

(d) Supplementation of Responses. A party who has responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement his response to include information thereafter acquired, except as follows:

- (1) A party is under a duty to supplement their response in a timely manner with respect to any question directly addressed to (A) the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, and (B) the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on which they are expected to testify, and the substance of their testimony.
- (2) A party is under a duty to amend a prior response in a timely manner if they obtain information upon the basis of which (1) they know that the response was incorrect when made or (2) they know that the response though correct when made is no longer true.
- (3) A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the Court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial through new requests for supplementation of prior responses.

Section 402. Depositions Before Action or Pending Appeal

(a) Before Action.

- (1) Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate their own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter that may be cognizable in Court may file a verified petition in the District Court if the tribal jurisdiction is the residence of any expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show: (1) that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action cognizable in the Tribal Court but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought; (2) the subject matter of the expected action and their interest therein; (3) the facts which they desire to establish by the proposed testimony and their reasons for desiring to perpetuate it; (4) the names or descriptions of the persons they expect will be adverse parties and their addresses, so far as known; and (5) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which they expect to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the depositions of the person to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.
- (2) Notice and Service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the Court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least twenty (20) days before the date of hearing, the notice shall be served either within or outside of the Tribal jurisdiction in the manner provided in Section 217(d) for service of summons. If personal service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the Court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint, for persons not served in the manner provided in Section 217(d), an attorney or advocate who shall represent them, and, in case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a Minor Child or Incompetent Person, the provisions of Section 301(c) apply. Any attorney appointed pursuant to this Section shall be compensated as provided by the Court from the Court funds, such compensation to be taxed as costs against the person perpetuating the testimony.
- (3) Order and examination. If the Court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The depositions may then be taken in accordance with this Chapter; and the Court may make orders of the character provided for by Sections 409 and 410.

- (4) Use of deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under this chapter or if, although not so taken, it would be admissible in evidence in the Courts of the jurisdiction in which it is taken, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in the District Court, in accordance with the provisions of Section 407(a).

(b) Pending Appeal. If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of the District Court or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the Court may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the District Court. In such case the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the District Court for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the Court. The motion shall show:

- (1) the names and addresses of persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which they expect to elicit from each, and
- (2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the Court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to void a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by Sections 409, and 410, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these Sections for depositions taken in actions pending in the District Court.

(c) Perpetuation by Action. This Section does not limit the power of a Court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony.

Section 403. Persons Before Whom Depositions May Be Taken

(a) Within the Tribal Jurisdiction. Within the jurisdiction of the Tribe, depositions shall be taken before an Officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the Tribe, or before a person appointed by the Court in which the action is pending. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony. All parties shall be subject to these provisions anywhere within the Reservation as defined in this Act.

(b) Outside the Tribal Jurisdiction. Outside the Tribe jurisdiction, depositions may be taken (1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States, or (2) before a person commissioned by the Court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of their commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony, or (3) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or a letter rogatory shall be issued on application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter rogatory may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in (Here Name of Tribe, State, or Country)." Evidence obtained in response to a rogatory letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the tribal jurisdiction under these Sections.

(c) Disqualification for Interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

Section 404. Stipulations Regarding Discovery Procedure

Unless the Court orders otherwise, the parties may by written stipulation (1) provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions, and (2) modify the procedures provided by this Chapter for other methods of discovery, except that stipulations extending the time provided in Sections 408, 409, and 411 for responses to discovery may be made only with the approval of the Court.

Section 405. Depositions Upon Oral Examinations

(a) When Depositions May Be Taken. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of Court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition prior to the expiration of thirty (30) days after service of the summons and complaint upon any defendant or service made by publication, except that leave is not required (1) if a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition or otherwise sought discovery, or (2) if special notice is given as provided in Subsection (b)(2) of this Section. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena as provided in Section 222. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by Leave of Court on such terms as the Court prescribes.

(b) Notice of Examination: General Requirements; Special Notice; Non- Stenographic Recording; Production of Documents and Things; Deposition of Organization.

- (1) A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall State the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify them or the particular class or group to which they belong. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to or included in the notice.
- (2) Leave of Court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff if the notice (1) states that the person to be examined is about to go out of the tribal jurisdiction and outside the Reservation, or is about to go out of the United States, or is bound on a voyage to sea, and will be unavailable for examination unless their deposition is taken before expiration of the thirty (30) day period, and (2) sets forth facts to support the statement. The plaintiff's attorney shall sign the notice, and their signature constitutes a certification by them that to the best of their knowledge, information, and belief the statement and supporting facts are true. The sanctions provided by Section 111 are applicable to the certification. If a party shows that when they were served with notice under this Subsection (2) they were unable through the exercise of due diligence to obtain counsel to represent them at the taking of the deposition, the deposition may not be used against them.

- (3) The Court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time for taking the deposition.
- (4) The Court may at the motion order that the testimony at a deposition be recorded by other than stenographic means, in which event the order shall designate the manner of recording, preserving, and filing the deposition, and may include other provisions to assure that the recorded testimony will be accurate and trustworthy. If the order is made, a party may nevertheless arrange to have a stenographic transcription made at their own expense.
- (5) The notice to a party deponent may be accompanied by a request made in compliance with Section 409 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedure of Section 409 shall apply to the request.
- (6) A party may in their notice and in a subpoena name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors, directors or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated the matters on which they will testify. A subpoena shall advise a non-party organization of its duty to make such a designation. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This Subsection (b)(6) does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these Sections.

(b) Examination and Cross-Examination; Record of Examination; Oath; Objections. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of the Tribal Rules of Evidence. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under their direction and in their presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered in accordance with Subsection (b)(4) of this Section. If requested by one of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed.

All objections made at time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and they shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

(c) Motion to Terminate or Limit Examination. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in an unreasonable manner to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the District Court or the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in Section 401(c). If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the District Court. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of Section 412(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(d) Submission to witness; Changes; Signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by them, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a Statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within 30 days of its submission to them, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully signed unless on a motion to suppress under Section 407(d)(4) the Court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(e) Certification and Filing by Officer; Exhibits; Copies; Notice of Filing.

- (1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by them and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. They shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of [insert name of witness]" and shall promptly file it with the District Court or send it by email, registered, or certified mail to the Clerk for filing.

Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to and returned with the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party except that (1) the person producing the materials may substitute copies to be marked for identification, if they afford to all parties fair opportunity to verify the copies by comparison with the originals, and (2) if the person producing the materials requests their return, the officer shall mark them, give each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, and return them to the person producing them, and the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to and returned with the deposition. Any party may move for an order that the original be annexed to and returned with the deposition to the Court, pending final disposition of the case.

- (2) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent. The Court may, by section, establish the maximum charges which are reasonable for such services.
- (3) The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.

(f) Failure to Attend or to Serve Subpoena; Expenses.

- (1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by them and their attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.
- (2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon them and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because they expect the deposition of that witness to be taken, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by them and their attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 406. Depositions Upon Written Questions

(a) Serving Questions; Notice. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon written questions. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in Section 222. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by Leave of Court on such terms as the Court prescribes.

A party desiring to take a deposition upon written question shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating: (1) the name and address of the person who is to answer them, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify them or the particular class or group to which they belong; and (2) the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. A deposition upon written questions may be taken of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency in accordance with the provisions of Section 405(b)(6).

Within thirty (30) days after the notice and written questions are served, a party may serve cross questions upon all other parties. Within ten (10) days after being served with cross questions, a party may serve redirect question upon all other parties. Within ten (10) days after being served with redirect question, a party may serve re-cross questions upon all other parties. The Court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

(b) Officer to Take Responses and Prepare Record. A copy of the notice and copies of all questions served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly in the manner provided by Section 405(c), (e), and (f), to take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the questions received by them.

(c) Notice of Filing. When the deposition is filed the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

Section 407. Use of Depositions in Court Proceedings

(a) Use of Depositions. At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice, thereof, in accordance with any of the following provisions:

- (1) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.
- (2) The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, or managing agent, or a person designated under Section 405(b)(6) or Section 406(a) to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.
- (3) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the Court finds: (1) that the witness is dead; or (2) that the witness is outside the jurisdiction of the Tribe, and cannot be served with a subpoena to testify at trial while within the Tribal jurisdiction unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (3) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (4) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or (5) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witness orally in open Court to allow the deposition to be used.

- (4) If only part of the deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require them to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts, subject to the Rules of Evidence.

Substitution of parties pursuant to Section 310 does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and, when an action in any Court of any Indian Tribe, the United States, or of any State has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties, or their representative or successors in interest, in the Tribal District Court, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefore.

(b) Objections to Admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Section 403(b) and Subsection (c)(3) of this Section, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reasons which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

(c) Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions.

- (1) As to notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.
- (2) As to disqualification of officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made, before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.
- (3) As to taking of deposition.
 - (i) objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.
 - (ii) errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless timely objection is made at the taking of the deposition.

(iii) objections to the form of written questions submitted under Section 406 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other questions and within five (5) days after service of the last questions authorized.

(4) As to Completion and Return of Deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Sections 405 and 406 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been ascertained.

Section 408. Interrogatories to Parties

(a) Availability. Procedures for Use. Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may, without leave of Court be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. In the answers, the full text of the interrogatory shall immediately precede the answer to that interrogatory. The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them. The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers and objections, if any, within thirty (30) days after the service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within forty five (45) days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The Court may allow a shorter or longer time. The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under Section 412(a) with respect to an objection or other failure to answer an interrogatory.

(b) Scope. Use at Trial. Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Section 401(b), and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the Rules of Evidence.

An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the Court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pre-trial conference or other later time.

(c) Option to Produce Business Records. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, or from a compilation, abstract or summary based thereon, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit, or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts, or summaries.

Section 409. Production of Documents and Things and Entry Upon Land for Inspection and other Purposes

(a) Scope. Any party may serve on any other party a request (1) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on their behalf, to inspect and copy any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phone records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonably usable form), or to inspect, copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Section 401(b) and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or (2) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Section (b).

(b) Procedure. The request may, without leave of Court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts.

The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within thirty (30) days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within forty five (45) days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The Court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. The party submitting the request may move for an order under Section 412(a) with respect to any objection or other failure to respond to the request or any party thereof, or any other failure to permit inspection as requested.

(c) Persons Not Parties. This Section does not preclude an independent action against a person not a party for production of documents and things and permission to enter upon land.

Section 410. Physical and Mental Examination of Persons

(a) Order for Examination. When the mental or physical condition (including the blood type) of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of party, is in controversy, the Court may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician or to produce for examination the person in their custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the item, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

(b) Reporting of Examining Physician.

- (1) If requested by the party against whom an order is made under Section 410(a) or the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to them a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out their findings, including results of all tests made, diagnoses and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After delivery the party causing the examination shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party against whom the order is made a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same condition, unless, in the case of a report or examination of a person not a party, the party shows that they are unable to obtain it. The Court on motion may make an order against a party requiring delivery of a report on such terms as are just, and if a physician fails or refuses to make a report the Court may exclude their testimony if offered at the trial.
- (2) By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege they may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine them in respect of the same mental or physical condition.
- (3) This subdivision applies to examinations made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise. This subdivision does not preclude discovery of a report of an examining physician or the taking of a deposition of the physician in accordance with the provisions of any other Section of this Act.

Section 411. Requests for Admission

(a) Requests for Admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of Section 401(b) set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of Court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within thirty (30) days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the Court may allow, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by their attorney, but, unless the Court shortens the time, a defendant shall not be required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of forty five (45) days after service of the summons and complaint upon them. If objection is made, the reasons therefor shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify their answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, they shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless they state that they have made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by them is insufficient to enable them to admit or deny. A party who considers that matter on which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; they may subject to the provisions of Section 412(c), deny the matter or set forth reasons why they cannot admit or deny it.

The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objection. Unless the Court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the Court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this Section, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The Court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pre-trial conference or at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of Section 412(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(b) Effect of Admission. Any matter admitted under this Section is conclusively established unless the Court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provisions of Section 119 governing amendment of a pre-trial order, the Court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the Court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice them in maintaining their action or defense on the merits. An admission made by a party under this Section is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission by them for any other purpose nor may it be used against them in any other proceeding.

Section 412. Failure to Make Discovery: Sanctions

(a) Motion for Order Compelling Discovery. A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:

- (1) Appropriate Court. An application for an order to a party may be made to the District Court, or, on matter relating to a deposition, to the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken if necessary. An application for an order to a deponent who is not a party may be made to the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken.
- (2) Motion. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Sections 405 or 406, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under Section 405(b)(6) or Section 406(a), or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Section 408, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under Section 409 fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before they apply for an order.

If the Court denies the motion in whole or in part, it may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion made pursuant to Section 401(c).

- (3) Evasive or Incomplete Answer. For purposes of this subdivision an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.
- (4) Award of Expenses of Motion. If the motion is granted, the Court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is denied, the Court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances made an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the Court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in just manner.

(b) Failure to Comply with Order.

- (1) Sanctions by Court in Jurisdiction Where Deposition is Taken. If a deponent fails to be sworn, or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the Court in the jurisdiction in which the deposition is being taken, the failure may be considered a contempt of that Court. Sanctions imposed in such matters by any foreign Court shall be given full faith and credit and promptly enforced by the Tribal Court, subject to the Tribal Court's authority to modify the sanctions imposed as justice may require.

(2) Sanction by Court in Which Action is Pending. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Section 405(b)(6) or Section 406(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under subdivision (a) of this Section or Section 410, the Court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others, the following:

- (i) An order that the matters regarding which the order was made, or any other designated facts, shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order,
- (ii) An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting them from introducing designated matters in evidence,
- (iii) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceedings or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party, or
- (iv) In lieu of any of the foregoing orders, or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of Court the failure to obey any order except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination; and
- (v) Where a party has failed to comply with an order under Section 410(a) requiring them to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in paragraphs (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subdivision, unless the party failing to comply shows that they are unable to produce such person for examination.

In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to obey the Order or the attorney advising them or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

(c) Expenses on Failure to Admit. If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under Section 411, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, they may apply to the Court for an order requiring the other party to pay them the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The Court shall make the order unless it finds that (1) the request was held objectionable pursuant to Section 411(a), or (2) the admission sought was of no substantial importance, or (3) the party failing to admit has reasonable grounds to believe that they might prevail on the matter, or (4) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

(d) Failure of party to attend at Own Deposition or Serve Answers to Interrogatories or Respond to Request for Inspection. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Section 405(b)(6) or Section 406(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails (1) to appear before the officer who is take their deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or (2) to serve answers or objections to interrogatoriessubmitted under Section 408, after proper service of the interrogatories, or (3) to serve a written response to a request for inspection submitted under Section 409, after proper service of the request, the District Court on motion may make such order in regard to the failure as is just, andamong others, it may take any action authorized under paragraphs (i), (ii), and (iii) of subdivision (2) of this Section. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising them or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

(e) The failure to act described in this Subsection may not be excused on the grounds that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by Section 401(c).

CHAPTER FIVE

WITNESSES

Section 501. Issue and Service of Subpoena for Witnesses

The Clerk of the Court shall, on application of any party having a cause or any matter pending in the Court, issue a subpoena for a witness, under the seal of the Court. The Clerk may issue separate subpoenas for each person, issue one subpoena carrying the names of all persons subpoenaed, or may at the request of any party, issue subpoenas in blank. A subpoena may be served by the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Police, or by the party, or any other person in the manner provided in Section 217. When a subpoena is not served by the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Police, proof of service shall be shown by affidavit; but no costs of service of the same shall be allowed, except when served by the Tribal Police; a licensed process server, Bureau of Indian Affairs police, or a person serving by special appointment.

Section 502. Subpoenas - Contents

The subpoena shall be directed to the person therein named, requiring them to attend at a particular time and place to testify as a witness; and it may contain a clause directing the witness to bring with them any book, writing or other thing, under their control, which they are bound by law to produce as evidence.

Section 503. Subpoena for Deposition

When the attendance of the witness before any officer authorized to take depositions is required, the subpoena may be issued by such office.

Section 504. Subpoena for Agency Hearings

When the attendance of the witness is required before any Tribal Agency authorized to issue a subpoena, the subpoena may be issued by any officer of the agency or by such person as maybe authorized to issue subpoenas by agency rule.

Section 505. Witness May Demand Fees - Exception

A witness may demand their traveling fees and fee for one (1) day's attendance as shall be set by Court rule, when the subpoena is served upon them; and if the same be not paid, the witness shall not be obliged to obey the subpoena. The fact of such demand and nonpayment shall be stated in the return, provided, however, that witnesses subpoenaed by any Tribal department, board, commission or legislative committee authorized to issue subpoenas, shall be paid their attendance and necessary travel, as provided by law for witnesses in other cases, at the time their testimony is concluded out of funds appropriated to such department, board, commission or legislative committee. In the case of subpoena issued by such Tribal agencies, the witness may not refuse to attend because fees and travel expenses were not paid in advance.

Section 506. Disobedience of Subpoena

Disobedience of a subpoena, or refusal to be sworn or to answer as a witness, when lawfully ordered, may be punished as a contempt of Court.

Section 507. Attachment of Witness

When a witness fails to attend in obedience to a subpoena (except in case of a demand and failure to pay their fees), the Court or officer before whom their attendance is required may issue an attachment to the Chief of the Tribal Police or the Bureau of Indian Affairs Police or their deputy, commanding them to arrest and bring the person therein named before the Court or officer, at a time and place to be fixed in the attachment, to give their testimony and answer for the contempt. If the attachment be not for immediately bringing the witness before the Court or officer, a sum may be fixed not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) in which the witness may give an undertaking, with surety, for their appearance; such sum shall be endorsed on the back of the attachment; and if no sum is so fixed and endorsed, it shall be one hundred dollars ($100.00). If the witness be not personally served, the Court, may, by a rule, order them to show cause why an attachment should not issue against them.

Section 508. Punishment for Contempt

- (1) The punishment for the contempt provided in Section 507 of this Title shall be as follows: When the witness fails to attend, in disobedience to the subpoena; except in case of a demand and failure to pay their fees, the Court or officer may fine the witness in a sum not exceeding Fifty Dollars ($50.00). In cases where the witness attends, but refuses to be sworn or to testify, the Court or officer may fine the witness in a sum not exceeding Fifty Dollars ($50.00), or may imprison them in the Tribal jail, there to remain until they shall submit to be sworn, testify, or give their deposition. The fine imposed by the Court or Tribal Agency shall be paid into the Tribal treasury, and that imposed by the officer at a deposition shall be for the use of the party for whom the witness was subpoenaed. The witness shall, also, be liable to the party injured for any damages occasioned by their failure to attend, or their refusal to be sworn, testify, or give their deposition.
- (2) The punishment provided in this Section shall not apply where the witness refuses to subscribe a deposition. The punishment provided in this Section is civil in nature, and shall not be interpreted in any way as a criminal punishment, nor shall the punished person be deemed convicted of any criminal offense.
- (3) When the witness purges their contempt, the Court, Officer, or agency may suspend any punishment imposed.

Section 509. Discharge When Imprisonment Illegal

A witness so imprisoned by an officer before whom their deposition is being taken, or by a Tribal Agency Officer, may apply to a Judge of the Tribal Court, who shall have power to release them, if it appears that their imprisonment is illegal.

Section 510. Requisites of Attachment - Order of Commitment

Every attachment for the arrest, or order of commitment to jail of a witness by the Court or an officer, pursuant to this Chapter, must be under the seal of the Court or officer, if they have an official seal, and must specify, particularly the cause of arrest or commitment; and if the commitment be for refusing to answer a question, such question must be stated in the order. Such order of commitment may be directed to the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Police, and shall be executed by committing them to the Tribal jail, and delivering a copy of the order to the jailor.

Section 511. Examination of Prisoner

A person confined in the Tribal jail may by order of the Tribal Court, be required to be produced for oral examination at a hearing, but in all other cases their examination must be by deposition.

Section 512. Prisoner's Custody During Examination

While a prisoner's deposition is being taken, they shall remain in the custody of the officer having them in charge who shall afford reasonable facilities for the taking of the deposition.

Section 513. Witness Privileged

A witness who does not reside within the tribal jurisdiction shall not be liable to be sued in the Tribal Court by being served with a summons while going, returning, or attending in obedience of a subpoena.

Section 514. Witness May Demand Fees Each Day--Exception

At the commencement of each day after the first day, a witness may demand their fees for that day's attendance in obedience to a subpoena; and if the same be not paid, they shall not be required to remain, except witnesses subpoenaed by any Tribal department, board, commission, or legislative committee or body authorized by law to issue subpoenas shall be paid for their attendance and necessary travel from that agency's approved budget as provided by law in other cases at the time their testimony is completed.

Section 515. Special Provisions for Tribal Agencies

(a) No Tribal agent or employee may be required to attend and testify in their official capacity for any private party absent the consent of their Department head or higher-ranking superior.

(b) No Tribal agent or employee may be paid a witness fee in addition to their regular salary or other compensation, if they are on duty at the time they are required to attend and testify, and shall be deemed to have elected to receive their regular salary or other compensation unless they request leave without pay prior to the time they appear in response to the subpoena, provided that such agents or employees appear and testify while being paid the regular salary or other compensation. The normal witness fee shall be charged as costs in the case for the benefit of the Tribe, and the agent or employee's supervisor may require prepayment of said fees as a condition precedent of their approval for their appearance. Such witnesses shall be entitled to receive their travel costs, if any, from the party in advance as in other cases.

SUBCHAPTER A - TESTIMONY UNDER PRIVILEGE AGAINST PROSECUTION

Section 550. Privilege for Committee Testimony

No testimony given by a witness before the Council, or any agency established by Tribal law having power to issue a subpoena, shall be used as evidence in any criminal proceeding against them in any Court, except in a prosecution for perjury committed in giving such testimony if such person is granted immunity as provided in Section 551. An official paper or record produced by them is not within the privilege.

Section 551. Procedure for Claiming Privilege

In the case of proceedings before a committee or agency, when two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the full committee or agency shall by affirmative vote have authorized such witness to be granted immunity under this Chapter with respect to the transactions, matters, or thing concerning which they are compelled, after having claimed their privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence by direction of the presiding officer, and when an Order of the Tribal District Court has been entered into the record requiring said person to testify or produce evidence, such person shall be exempt from prosecution as stated in Section 550 of this Chapter. Such an Order may be issued by a Tribal District Court Judge upon application by a duly authorized representative of the committee or agency concerned, accompanied by the written approval of the Council. The Court shall not grant immunity to any witness without first having notified the Attorney General of such action. The Attorney General shall be notified of the time of each proposed application to the District Court and shall be given an opportunity to be heard with respect thereto prior to the entrance into the record of the Order of the District Court. No witness shall be exempt from prosecution for perjury or contempt committed while giving testimony or producing evidence under compulsion as provided in this Section.

Section 552. Oaths

The members of the Council, a Chairman, or equivalent officer of any committee or agency authorized to issue subpoenas, and any officer or employee of the commission or agency authorized by agency or commission rule, is empowered to administer oaths to witnesses in any case under their examination.

Section 553. Penalties

(a) Every person who, having been properly summoned as a witness by authority of the Council or tribal agency, to give testimony or produce papers under a grant of immunity as provided by Section 551, willfully makes default, or who, having appeared, refuses to answer any question pertinent to the question under inquiry, shall be punishable by a civil fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) to be imposed by that body, and to an attachment and commitment to be imposed by that body to the Tribal jail until such testimony be given.

(b) In addition to, or in the alternative to, civil punishment, the agency may proceed in the Tribal Court for an Order requiring such witness to testify, and if such Order is issued and disobeyed by the witness, the witness shall be guilty of an offense, and may be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or imprisoned in the Tribal jail for a term not exceeding six months, or both.

Section 554. Disgrace as Ground for Refusal to Testify

No witness is privileged to refuse to testify to any fact, or produce any paper, respecting which they shall be examined by the Council, or by any subordinate committee or agency thereof authorized to issue subpoenas, upon the ground that their testimony to such fact or their production of such paper may tend to disgrace or otherwise render them infamous, provided that such fact or paper is reasonably related to the purpose of the hearing and the purpose of the hearing is reasonably related to the exercise by the body, agency, or committee of authority delegated to it by law.

Section 555. Prosecution

Whenever a body before whom a witness granted immunity pursuant to this Subchapter believes that criminal prosecution pursuant to Section 553(b) should be instituted, it shall certify such fact to the Attorney General, whose duty it shall be to bring the matter in the Court by information or complaint for prosecution if the person has not purged their contempt within forty eight (48) hours.

Section 556. Fees and Mileage

(a) Witnesses before legislative and administrative bodies compelled to attend by subpoena shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid in civil cases in the Tribal District Court from the approved budget of said body.

(b) Witness fees and allowances for mileage shall be set by rule of the Court. Witness fees shall not exceed the amount set for witness fees by Part 11 of Title 25 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Mileage fees shall not exceed the Federal mileage rate.

CHAPTER SIX

JURORS

Section 601. Meeting for Selection of Jurors

(a) On the first Monday in November, or as soon thereafter as possible, and at anytime upon the order of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Jury Selection Board, composed of the Tribal Secretary or one of their deputies, the Comptroller or one of their deputies, the Chief of the Tribal Police or one of their deputies, the Director of the Tribal Housing Authority or their designee, the Court Administrator or one of their deputies, and one of the Judges of the Court, shall meet at the office of the Court Administrator and select from a list to be compiled of all enrolled adult UKB citizens, as prescribed in this Chapter, all qualified jurors for service in the Tribal District Court for the ensuing calendar year in the manner hereinafter provided.

(b) For the purpose of ascertaining the names of all persons qualified for jury service, it shall be the duty of the following officer to provide the following lists of qualified prospective jurors to the Court Clerk.

- (1) The Tribal Secretary shall supply a list of all enrolled Tribal citizens over eighteen (18) years of age who are resident of the tribal jurisdiction.
- (2) The Comptroller shall supply a list of all individual taxpayers irrespective of Tribal membership over eighteen (18) years of age who are residents of the tribal jurisdiction.
- (3) The Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the Tribal Housing Authority shall supply a list of all known tenants of the Housing Authority and members of their households irrespective of tribal membership over eighteen (18) years of age who are residents of the tribal jurisdiction.

(c) Each such list shall contain, insofar as is known, the date of birth or age, name, and actual place of residence of each person within the category on the list.

(d) Whenever possible, these lists shall be prepared at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting to allow time for the typing of the names contained therein on cards as hereafter provided, or shall be presented typed upon the cards as hereafter provided.

(e) Whenever such is, or may become reasonably available and efficient, the lists may be printed from computer memory on cards in the manner hereafter provided.

Section 602. Court Clerk's Jury Selection Roll

It shall be the duty of the Court Clerk to maintain at all times a jury selection roll upon which any person who is or may be eligible for jury service may enter their name, date of birth, and place of residence. Such roll shall be provided to the jury selection board in order that all qualified persons who may not be identified in paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) of Subsection (b) of Section 601 of this Chapter shall have the opportunity for jury service.

Section 603. Jury Selection

Section 604. Drawing General Jury Panel

(a) The Judges of the Court shall, more than twenty (20) days prior to each jury docket of Court, determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the Court during the jury docket, and shall order the drawing of such number of jurors by the procedure determined in Section 603. This jury will be known as the general panel of jurors for service for the respective jury docket for which they are designated to serve. A majority of Judges, or the Chief Judge, are authorized to act in carrying out the provisions of this Section. Once the panel is selected the names of people who may serve as a juror shall not be divulged to any person.

(b) Additional and other selections of as many names as the Court may order may be had at any such time as the Court or Judge may order for the completion of a jury panel, or for the impaneling of a new jury if, in the judgment of the Court, the same shall be necessary, if, for any cause, the Court, in its discretion, shall deem other jurors necessary. The Court may excuse or discharge any person drawn and summoned as a juror, whenever, in its discretion, such action shall be deemed expedient.

(c) No person may be required, over their objection, to render service as a juror for more than a total of twenty (20) working days in any one calendar year unless, when this time limit is reached, they are sitting upon a panel engaged in the consideration of a case, in which event they may be excused when such case is terminated; provided, that if the Judge decides that the business of a jury docket fixed by the Court may be concluded within six (6) days, they may require a jury, or a juror, to remain until the termination of service. Persons summoned for jury service need not be required to serve during previously fixed days or weeks or a docket fixed by the Court for jury trials, but they may be recalled from time to time as the trial needs of the District Court may require, without regard to the docket term fixed by the Court for jury trials for which they were originally summoned.

Section 605. Use of Jury Panel

The general panel of jurors shall be used to draw juries in all actions tried, during the jury docket for which they were summoned. In the event of a deficiency of said general panel at any given time to meet the requirements of the Court, the presiding Judge having control of said general panel, shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet such emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are not further needed. Resort to the wheel shall be had in all cases to fill out the general panel, except when only a single jury is needed or when the Court determines that undue delay will be caused thereby to the prejudice of a party, in which case the Court may issue an open venire to the Chief of the Tribal Police or other suitable person for such, number of jurors as may be necessary to be selected from the body of the tribal jurisdiction without resort to the jury wheel, provided, that no person shall be called to service or required to serve under an open venire more often than once each year.

Section 606. Certifying and Sealing Lists

The list of names drawn for the general panel shall be certified by the Court Clerk or the deputy doing the drawing and the Judge in whose presence the names were selected to be the list drawn by the Clerk for the jury docket, and shall be sealed in envelopes endorsed “jurors for the jury docket of the Tribal District Court scheduled to commence on (filling in the blank with the appropriate date),” and the Clerk doing the drawing shall write their name across the seals of the envelopes.

Section 607. Oath and Delivery of Envelopes

The Judge attending the drawing shall deliver the envelopes to the Court Clerk, or one of their deputies, and the Judge shall, at the same time, administer to the Court Clerk and to each of their deputies an oath in substance as follows: “Each of you do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened, until the time prescribed by law, nor communicate to anyone the name or names of persons appearing on the jury lists until the time a list is opened as prescribed by law, at which time it shall be published, and that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with any one selected as a juror concerning any case pending for trial in the Court at the next jury docket, So help you God.”

Section 608. Sealing and Returning Juror Name Cards

When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing such names shall be sealed in separate envelopes, endorsed cards containing the name of jurors for the jury docket of the Tribal District Court commencing on (filling in the blank for the date properly); and said envelopes shall be retained securely by the Clerk, unopened, until after the jury has been impaneled for such docket, and, after such jurors so impaneled have served one jury docket, the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors for that docket shall then be opened by the Court Clerk, or their deputy, and those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served on a jury shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the Court Clerk or their deputy; and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving on a jury shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officer who shall next select jurors for the wheel, provided, that no person shall serve as a juror more often than once a year, except upon order of the Court for lack of sufficient jurors or as herein provided.

Section 610. Summoning Jurors

The summons of a person for service on the juries in the District Court shall be served by the Court Clerk by mailing a copy of such summons containing the time, place, and the name of the Court upon which said jurors are required to attend, by registered or certified mail, or as directed by the Judge, to the person selected for service not less than ten (10) days before the days said person is to appear as a juror in the Court. The Court Clerk shall make a return of such service by filing an affidavit stating the date of mailing and type of mail used in sending the summons; provided, that this shall not prevent service of a special jury summons by the Chief of the Tribal Police, as may be ordered by the Clerk or Judge of the District Court.

Section 611. On-Call System Jurors

(a) When an on-call system is implemented by order of the Chief Judge of the District Court, each juror retained for service subject to call shall be required to contact a center for information as to the time and place of their next assignment.

(b) For purposes of this Section, “on-call system” means a method whereby the Chief Judge of the District Court estimates the number of jurors required for a jury docket of Court, and those jurors not needed during any particular period are released to return to their home or employment subject to call when needed.

(c) Pursuant to summons for service on petit juries in the District Court, each qualified, nonexempt juror is retained for service subject to call and is assigned to a Judge or a case.

Section 612. Drawing Trial Jurors from Panel

Prospective jurors for the trial of an action shall be drawn by the Court Clerk, in open Court in the presence of a Judge, by lot either by wheel, by numbering the prospective jurors cards and then drawing numbers from a pool containing a number marked for each prospective juror available to be called, or by some similar form of random drawing approved by the Court. The initial six jurors shall be drawn as shortly before the trial of the action as is reasonably practical in the discretion of the Court. As prospective jurors are removed or dismissed by challenge, whether preemptory or for cause, the Clerk shall draw another name from the general pool who shall take the place of the challenged prospective juror and be subject to voir dire to the same extent as the prospective jurors originally chosen.

Section 613. Qualifications and Exemptions of Jurors

(a) All citizens of the Tribe and other citizens of the United States who are over eighteen years of age and have resided within the Tribal jurisdiction for a period of at least thirty (30) days, who are of sound mind and discretion and of good moral character are competent to act as jurors, except as herein provided.

(b) The following persons are not qualified to serve as jurors:

- (1) Justices of the Supreme Court of the Tribe, or the employees in their office.
- (2) Judges of the District Court, or the employees in their office.
- (3) The Chief of the Tribal Police, their deputies, and the employees in the Police Department.
- (4) Jailors having custody of prisoners, or other tribal, State, or Federal law enforcement officers.
- (5) Persons who have been convicted of any felony or crime involving moral turpitude, provided that when such conviction has been vacated, overturned upon appeal or pardoned or when any such person has been fully restored to their civil rights by the jurisdiction wherein such conviction occurred, the person shall be eligible to serve as a juror.

(6) Elected Tribal Officials.

(c) Persons over seventy (70) years of age, ministers, practicing physicians, optometrists, dentists, public school teachers, Federal employees, full time fire department employees, and parents or guardians with otherwise unattended minor children not in school may be excused from jury service by the Court, in its discretion, upon request.

(d) Any tribal citizen who is not a resident of the Tribal jurisdiction, but who otherwise meets all of the applicable criteria, may serve as a juror if they volunteer to do so by signing the Jury Selection Roll maintained by the Court Clerk.

Section 614. Substantial Compliance

A substantial compliance with the provisions of this Chapter shall be sufficient to prevent the setting aside of any verdict rendered by a jury chosen hereunder, unless the irregularity in drawing, summoning, or impaneling the same resulted in depriving a party litigant of some substantial right; provided, however, that such irregularity must be specifically presented to the Court at or before the time the jury is sworn to try the cause.

Section 615. Oath to Jury

After selection of the jury, and prior to the opening statements of the parties, the Court or Clerk shall place the jury under oath or affirmation to well and truly try and determine the action before them exclusively upon the evidence presented in the Court and the law as given by the Court, and to return their true verdict thereon without partiality for any unlawful cause or reason.

Section 621. Discharge of Employee for Jury Service--Penalty

Every person, firm, or corporation who discharges an employee or causes an employee to be discharged because of said employee's absence from their employment by reason of said employee's having been required to serve as a juror on the jury of the Tribal District Court, or any other Court, shall be liable for a civil infraction and may be fined up to Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00).

Every person, firm, or corporation who discharges or causes to be discharged an employee because of said employee's absence from their employment by reason of the employee having been required to serve as a juror in the Tribal District Court, or any other Court, shall be liable to the person so discharged in a civil action at law for both actual and punitive damages. Damages shall include all pecuniary losses suffered including, but not limited to, lost earnings, both past and future, mental anguish, and all reasonable damages incurred in obtaining other suitable employment, including the cost of relocation and retraining, if any, and a reasonable attorney fee to be determined by the Court.

CHAPTER SEVEN

TRIALS

Section 701. Trial Defined

A trial is a judicial examination of the issues, whether of law or fact, in an action.

Section 702. Trial of Issues

Issues of law must be tried by the Court. Issues of fact arising in actions for which a jury trial is provided by law may be tried by a jury, if a jury trial is demanded, unless a reference be ordered, as hereinafter provided. All other issues of fact shall be tried to the Court.

Section 703. Jury Trial of Right

(a) Rights Preserved. The right of trial by jury as declared by the Tribal constitution or a statute of the Tribe, or the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 shall be preserved inviolate. In all actions, except forcible entry and detainer, arising in contract or tort where the amount in controversy, or the value of the property to be recovered, as stated in the prayer for relief or an affidavit of a party, or as found by the Court where the amount in controversy is questioned by the affidavit of the adverse party, exceeds Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), except as otherwise specifically provided by law and in tax cases, and in all actions for the involuntary removal of children from the custody of their parents or guardian, and the involuntary termination of parental rights, the action may be tried to a jury upon demand of any party. All other actions and issues of fact shall be tried to the Court.

(b) Demand. Any party entitled to a jury trial may demand a trial by jury of any issuable of right by a jury pursuant to any law of the Tribe by serving upon the other parties a demand therefore in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than ten (10) days after the service of the party's first pleading directed to such issue. Such demand may be endorsed upon a pleading of the party. Such demand shall not be effective unless, at the time of filing or at such later time as the Court shall by rule allow, the party making such demand deposits with the Court Clerk a reasonable jury fee in such amount as the Court shall by rule determine. The amount of such deposit shall be set by the Court in such amount as may be reasonably necessary to offset the costs of juror fees for the impaneling and trying of the action, without being in an amount which may preclude or prevent a party from exercising their right to a jury trial. Such rules shall contain a provision for waiver of the deposit requirement for person proceeding in forma pauperis.

(c) Same; Specification of Issues. In their demand a party may specify the issues which they wish so tried; otherwise they shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If they have demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within ten (10) days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the Court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.

(d) Waiver. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this Section and to file it as required by Section 231(d) constitutes a waiver by them of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties. Even though previously demanded, the trial by jury may be waived by the parties, in actions arising on contract, and with the consent of the Court in other actions, in the following manner: By the consent of the party appearing, when the other party fails to appear at the trial by themselves or attorney; By written consent, in person or by attorney, filed with the clerk; By oral consent, in open Court, entered on the journal.

Section 704. Trial by Jury or by the Court

(a) By Jury. When Trial by jury has been demanded as provided in Section 703, the action shall be designated upon the docket as a jury action. The trial of all issues so demanded shall be by jury, unless:

- (1) the parties or their attorneys of record, by written stipulation filed with the Court or by an oral stipulation made in open Court and entered in the record, consent to trial by the Court sitting without a jury;
- (2) the Court upon motion or of its own initiative finds that a right of trial by jury of some or all of those issues does not exist under the Constitution and laws of the Tribe, or under the Indian Civil Rights Act.

(b) By the Court. Issues not demanded for trial by jury as provided in Section 703 shall be tried by the Court: but, notwithstanding the failure of a party to demand a jury in an action in which such a demand might have been made of right, the Court in its discretion or upon motion of a party may order a trial by a jury of any or all issues properly triable to a jury.

(c) Advisory Jury and Trial by Consent. In all actions not triable of right by a jury, the Court upon motion or its own initiative may try any issue with an advisory jury or, except in actions against the Tribe when a statute of the Tribe provides for trial without a jury, the Court, with the consent of both parties, may order a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right.

Section 705. Assignment of Cases for Trial

The District Court shall provide by rule for the placing of actions upon the trial calendar

- (1) without request of the parties;
- (2) upon request of a party and notice to the other parties; or
- (3) in such other manner as the Court deems expedient, precedence shall be given to actions entitled thereto by any statute of the Tribe.

Section 706. Consolidation; Separate Trials

(a) Consolidation. When different actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the Court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions: it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delays.

(b) Separate Trials. The Court, in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice, or when separate trials will be conducive to expedition and economy, may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third-party claim, or any separate issue or any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, or third-party claims, or issues, always preserving inviolate the right to trial by jury as declared by the Indian Civil Rights Act, the Tribal constitution or as given by a statute of the Tribe.

SUBCHAPTER A - IMPANELING JURY

Section 721. Summoning Jury

The general mode of summoning and impaneling the jury, in cases in which a jury trial may be had, is such as is or may be provided by Chapter 6 of this Title.

Section 722. Causes for Challenging Jurors

If there shall be impaneled, for the trial of any action, any juror, who shall have been convicted of any crime which by law renders them disqualified to serve on a jury; or who has been arbitrator on either side, relating to the same controversy; or who has an interest in the action; or who has an action pending between them and either party; or who has formerly been a juror on the same claim; or who is the employer, employee, counselor, agent, steward or attorney of either party; or who is subpoenaed as a witness; or who is of kin to either party within the second degree of blood or marriage, they may be challenged for such-causes: in either of which cases the same shall be considered as a principal challenge, and the validity thereof be tried by the Court; and any juror who shall be returned upon the trial of any of the causes hereinbefore specified, against whom no principal cause of challenge can be alleged, may, nevertheless, be challenged on suspicion of prejudice against, or partiality for either party, or any other cause that may render them, at the time, an unsuitable juror: but a resident or taxpayer of the tribal jurisdiction, or a member of the Tribe or any municipality therein shall not be thereby disqualified in actions in which the Tribe or such municipality is a party. The validity of all principal challenges and challenges for cause shall be determined by the Court.

Section 723. Examination of Jurors

The Court may permit the parties or their attorneys to conduct the examination of prospective jurors or may itself conduct the examination. In the latter event, the Court shall permit the parties or their attorneys to supplement the examination by such further inquiry as it deems proper or shall itself submit to the prospective jurors such additional questions of the parties or their attorneys as it deems proper.

Section 724. Alternate Jurors

The Court may direct that not more than three jurors in addition to the regular jury be called and impaneled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors in the order in which they are called shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become or are found to be unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the regular jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a regular juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. Each side is entitled to one (1) peremptory challenge of the alternate jurors, in addition to those otherwise allowed by law, if alternate jurors are to be impaneled. The additional peremptory challenges may be used against an alternate juror only, and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against an alternate juror.

Section 725. Order of Challenges

The plaintiff first, and afterward the defendant, shall complete their challenges for cause. They may, in turn, in the same order, have the right to challenge one juror each, until each shall have peremptorily challenged three (3) jurors, but no more.

Section 726. Challenges to Jurors - Filling Vacancies

After each challenge, the vacancy shall be filled before further challenges are made; and any new juror thus introduced may be challenged for cause as well as peremptorily.

Section 727. Alternate Method of Selecting Jury

Notwithstanding other methods authorized by law, the trial Judge may direct in their discretion that a jury in an action be selected by calling and seating twelve (12) prospective jurors in the jury box and then examining them on voir dire; when twelve (12) such prospective jurors have been passed for cause, each side of the lawsuit shall exercise its peremptory challenges out of the hearing of the jury by alternately striking three (3) names each from the list of those so passed for cause, and the remaining six (6) persons shall be sworn to try the case.

If there be more than one defendant in the case, and the trial Judge determines on motion that there is a serious conflict of interest between them, they may, in their discretion, allow each defendant to strike three names from the list of jurors seated and passed for cause. In such case they shall appropriately increase the number of jurors initially called and seated in the jury box for voir dire examination.

Section 728. Oath of Jury

The jury shall be sworn to well and truly try the matters submitted to them in the case before them, and to give a true verdict, according to the law and the evidence.

Section 729. Juries of Less Than Six - Majority Verdict

All juries shall be composed of six (6) persons, and a unanimous verdict shall be required, except that the parties may stipulate that the jury shall consist of any number less than six (6), but greater than two (2), or that the verdict or finding of a stated majority of the jurors shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury.

SUBCHAPTER B - TRIAL PROCEDURE

Section 731. Order of Trial

When the jury has been sworn in an action before a jury, and in trials to the Court, when the Court is ready to proceed, the trial shall proceed in the following order, unless the Court for special reasons otherwise directs:

(a) The party on whom rests the burden of proving the issues may briefly state their case, and the evidence by which they expect to sustain it.

(b) The adverse party may then briefly state their defense and the evidence they expect to offer in support of it, or the adverse party may reserve their opening statement until the beginning of the presentation of their evidence.

(c) The party on whom rests the burden of proving the issues must first produce their evidence; after they have closed their evidence the adverse party may interpose a motion for a directed verdict thereto upon the ground that no claim for relief or defense is proved. If the Court shall sustain the motion, no formal verdict of the jury shall be required, but judgment shall be rendered for the party whose motion for a directed verdict is sustained as the state of the pleading or the proof shall demand.

(d) If the motion for a directed verdict is overruled, the adverse party may then briefly state their case if they did not do so prior to the beginning of the presentation of the evidence, and shall then produce their evidence.

(e) The parties will then be confined to rebutting evidence unless the Court, for good reasons in furtherance of justice, shall permit them to offer evidence in the original case.

(f) After the close of the evidence, and when the jury instructions have been finalized by the Court, the parties may then make their closing arguments as to the evidence proved and reasonable inferences to be drawn therefrom. The party having the burden of proving the issue shall first present their argument. Thereafter, the other party shall present their argument, and then, the party having the burden of proof shall have the opportunity for rebuttal argument. The Court may place reasonable limitations upon the time allowed for closing argument, provided, that each side to the action should have the same total for argument, if time restrictions are placed thereon.

(g) After the closing arguments of the parties have been completed, the Court shall instruct the jury as to the law of the case, and shall give a copy of the written instructions to the jury for their use during their deliberations.

(h) The Court shall then place the bailiff or some other responsible person under oath to secure the jury against interference, and the jury shall retire to determine its verdict.

Section 732. Taking of Testimony

(a) Form. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, unless otherwise provided by a law of the Tribe or by this Title, the Tribal Rules of Evidence, or other rules adopted by the Supreme Court of the Tribe.

(b) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under this Title an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(c) Evidence on Motions. When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record the Court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the Court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.

(d) Interpreters. The Court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix their reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the Court may direct, and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the Court.

Section 733. Exceptions Unnecessary

Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the Court are unnecessary; but it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the Court is made or sought, makes known to the Court the action which they desire the Court to take or their objection to the action of the Court and their grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice them.

Section 734. Instruction to Jury - Objection

(a) At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the Court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the Court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. The Court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury, but the Court shall instruct the jury, after the arguments are completed. No party may assign as error the giving or the failure to give an instruction unless they object thereto or proposes the requested instruction before the jury retire to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which they object and the grounds of their objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury.

(b) All instructions requested, and modifications thereof, shall be reduced to writing, numbered, and signed by the party or their attorney asking the same and filed in the record of the case.

(c) When either party asks special instructions to be given to the jury, the Court shall either give such instructions as requested, or positively refuse to do so; or give the instructions with modification in such manner that shall distinctly appear what instructions were given in whole or in part, and in like manner, those refused, so that either party may except to the instructions.

(d) All instructions given by the Court must be numbered, signed by the Judge; and filed together with those asked for by the parties as a part of the record.

Section 735. Uniform Jury Instructions

The Supreme Court, in its discretion, is authorized to promulgate, by rule, uniform instructions to be given in jury trials of civil or criminal actions, which, if applicable in a civil or criminal action, due regard being given to the facts and prevailing law, shall be used unless the Court determines that the instruction does not accurately state the law.

Section 736. Objections to Instructions - Copies to Parties

A party objecting to the giving of instructions, or the refusal thereof, shall not be required to file a formal bill of exceptions; but it shall be sufficient to make objection thereto by dictating into the record in open Court, out of the hearing of the jury, before the reading of all instructions, the number of the particular instruction that was requested, refused, and objected to, or the number of the particular instruction given by the Court that is excepted to. Provided further that the Court shall furnish copies of the instructions as are given by the Court.

Section 737. View by Jury

Whenever, in the opinion of the Court, it is proper for the jury to have a view of the property which is the subject of litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, the Court may order the jury to be conducted, in a body, under the charge of an officer, to the place which shall be shown to them by some person appointed by the Court for that purpose. While the jury are thus absent, no person, other than the person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial.

Section 738. Deliberations of the Jury

When the case is finally submitted to the jury, they shall retire for deliberation. When they retire, they must be kept together, in some convenient place, under charge of a Court-appointed official, until they agree upon a verdict or be discharged by the Court, subject to the discretion of the Court, to permit them to separate temporarily at night, and at their meals. The official having them under their charge shall not allow any communication to be made to them, or make any themselves, except to ask them if they have agreed upon their verdict, and to communicate a request by the jury to the Court in open Court, unless by order of the Court: and they shall not, before their verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations, or the verdict agreed upon.

Section 739. Admonition of Jury on Separation

If the jury are permitted to separate, either during the trial or after the case is submitted to them, they shall be admonished by the Court that it is their duty not to converse with, or allow themselves to be addressed by, any other person, on any subject of the trial, and that it is their duty not to form or express an opinion thereon until the case is finally submitted to them.

Section 740. Information After Retirement

After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed as to any part of the law arising in the case, they may request the official to conduct them to the Court, where the information on the point of law shall be given in writing, and the Court may give its recollections as to the testimony on the point in dispute, or cause the same to be read by the stenographer or played back on an electronic recording device by the reporter in the presence of, or after notice to, the parties or their counsel. Upon motion in appropriate circumstances, the Court may order that other portions of the record relating to the same issue also be read or played back to the jury upon the questioned point.

Section 741. When the Jury may be Discharged

The jury may be discharged by the Court on account of the sickness of a juror, or other accident or calamity requiring their discharge, or by consent of both parties, or after they have been kept together until it satisfactorily appears to the Court that there is no probability of their agreeing.

Section 742. Re-trial

In all cases where the jury are discharged during the trial or after the cause is submitted to them, the case may be tried again immediately, or at a future time, as the Court may direct.

Section 743. Proof of Official Record

(a) Authentication.

- (1) Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, including within any Indian Tribal jurisdiction, State, district, commonwealth, territory, or insularpossession thereof, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by their deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a Judge of a Court of record of the tribe, state, district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the Court, or may be made by any public office having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office.
- (2) Foreign. A foreign official record, or any entry, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication; or a copy, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position related to the attestation is in a chain of certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul, general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the Court may, for good cause shown, (i) admit an attested copy without final certification or (ii) permit the foreign official record to be evidence by an attested summary with or without a final certification.

(b) Lack of Record. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in Subsection (a)(1) of this Section in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of Subsection (a)(2) of this Section for summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other Proof. This Section does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

Section 744. Determination of Foreign Law

A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign jurisdiction shall give notice in their pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The Court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under the Tribal Rules of Evidence. The Court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law. The District Court shall take judicial notice of the law of any foreign jurisdiction within the United States published in an official publication, or on an official website, of that jurisdiction upon reasonable notice of the law in question. The term "foreign jurisdiction within the United States" includes every federally recognized Indian tribe, every state, territory, or possession of the United States, the United States, and their political subdivisions and agencies.

Section 745. Appointment and Duties of Masters

(a) Appointment and Compensation. The District Court with the concurrence of a majority of all the Judges thereof may appoint one or more standing masters, and the trial Judge, in an appropriate case, may appoint a special master to act in a particular case. The word "master" includes a referee, an auditor, and an examiner, a commissioner, and an assessor. The compensation to be allowed to a master shall be fixed by the Court, and shall be charged upon such of the parties or paid out of any fund or subject matter of the action, which is in the custody and control of the Court as the Court may direct. The master shall not retain their report as security for their compensation; but when the party ordered to pay the compensation allowed by the Court does not pay it after notice and within the time prescribed by the Court, the master is entitled to writ of execution against the delinquent party.

(b) Reference. A reference to a master shall be the exception and not the rule. In action to be tried by a jury, a reference shall be made only when the issues are complicated; in actions to be tried without a jury, save in matter of account and of difficult computation of damages, a reference shall be made only upon a showing that some exceptional condition requires it.

(c) Powers. The order of reference to the master may specify or limit their powers and may direct them to report only upon particular issues or to do or perform particular acts or to receive and report evidence only and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing the hearings and for the filing of the master's report. Subject to the specifications and limitations Stated in the order, the master has and shall exercise the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before them and to do all acts and take all measures necessary or proper for the efficient performance of their duties under the order. They may require the production before them of evidence upon all matters embraced in the reference, including the production of all books, papers, vouchers, documents, and writing applicable thereto. They may rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the order or reference and has the authority to put witnesses on oath and may themselves examine them, and may call the parties to the action and examine them upon oath. When a party so requests, the master shall make a record of the evidence offered and excluded in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in Section 732(c) for a Court sitting without a jury.

(d) Proceedings.

- (1) Meetings. When a reference is made, the Clerk shall forthwith furnish the master with a copy of the order of reference. Upon receipt thereof, unless the order of reference otherwise provides, the master shall forthwith set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys to be held within twenty (20) days after the date of the order of reference and shall notify the parties or their attorneys. It is the duty of the master to proceed with all reasonable diligence. Either party, on notice to the parties and master, may apply to the Court for an order requiring the master to speed the proceedings and to make their report. If a party fails to appear at the time and place appointed, the master may proceed ex parte, or, in their discretion, adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of the adjournment.
- (2) Witnesses. The parties may procure the attendance of witnesses before the master by the issuance and service of subpoenas as provided in Section 222. If without adequate excuse a witness fails to appear or give evidence, they may be punished as for contempt and be subjected to the consequences, penalties, and remedies provided in Sections 222(f) and 412(b).
- (3) Statement of Accounts. When matters of accounting are in issue before the master, they may prescribe the form in which the accounts shall be submitted and in any proper case may require or receive in evidence a statement by a certified public accountant who is called as a witness. Upon objection of a party to any of the items thus submitted or upon a showing that the form of Statement is insufficient, the master may require a different form of statement to be furnished, or the accounts or specific items thereof to be proved by oral examination of the accounting parties or upon written interrogatories or in such other manner as they direct.

(e) Report.

- (1) Content and Filing. The master shall prepare a report upon the matters submitted to them by the order of reference, and, if required to make findings of fact and conclusions of law, they shall set them forth in the report. They shall file the report with the Clerk of the Court and in an action to be tried without a jury, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference, shall file with it a transcript of the proceedings and of the evidence and the original exhibits. The Clerk shall forthwith send all parties copies of the filing.
- (2) In Non-Jury Actions. In an action to be tried without a jury, the Court shall accept the master's findings of fact unless clearly erroneous within ten (10) days after being served with notice of the filing of the report. Any party may serve written objections thereto upon the other parties. Application to the Court for action upon the report and upon objections shall be by motion and upon notice as prescribed in Section 240 (d). The Court, after hearing, may adopt the report or may modify it or may reject it in whole or in part or may receive further evidence or may recommit it with instructions.
- (3) In Jury Actions. In an action to be tried by a jury, the master shall not be directed to report the evidence. Their findings upon the issues submitted to them are admissible as evidence of the matters found and may be read to the jury, subject to the ruling of the Court upon any objections in point of law which may be made to the report.
- (4) Stipulation as to Findings. The effect of master's report is the same whether or not the parties have consented to the reference; but, when the parties stipulate that master's findings of fact shall be final, only questions of law arising upon the report shall thereafter be considered.
- (5) Draft Report. Before filing their report, a master may submit a draft thereof to counsel for all parties for the purpose of receiving their suggestions.

SUBCHAPTER C - VERDICT

Section 751. Findings by the Court

(a) Effect. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the Court shall find the fact specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and judgment shall be entered pursuant to Section 907; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions the Court shall similarly set for the findings of fact and conclusions of law which shall constitute the grounds of its action. Requests for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the Trial Court to judge the credibility of the witnesses. The findings of a master, to the extent that the Court adopts them, shall be considered as the findings of the Court. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed; it will be sufficient if the findings of fact and conclusions of law appear therein. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary on decisions of motions under Section 112(b) or Section 122(b).

(b) Amendment. Upon motion of a party made not later than ten (10) days after entry of judgment, the Court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for new trial pursuant to Section 908. When findings of fact are made in action tried by the Court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made in the District Court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment.

Section 752. Delivery of Verdict

When the jury have agreed upon their verdict they must be conducted into Court, and their verdict rendered by their foreman. When the verdict is announced, either party may require the jury to be polled, which is done by the Clerk or the Court asking each juror if it is their verdict. If anyone answers in the negative, the jury must again be sent out, for further deliberation.

Section 753. Requisites of Verdicts

The verdict shall be written, signed by the foreman and read by the clerk to the jury, and the inquiry made whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagrees, the jury must be sent out again; but if no disagreement be expressed, and neither party requires the jury to be polled, the verdict is complete and the jury discharged from the case. If, however, the verdict be defective in form only, the same may, with the assent of the jury, before they are discharged, be corrected by the Court.

Section 754. General and Special Verdict

The verdict of a jury is either general or special. A general verdict is that by which they pronounce generally upon all or any of the issues, either in favor of the plaintiff or defendant. A special verdict is that by which the jury finds facts only. It must present the facts as established by the evidence and not the evidence to prove them; and they must be so presented as that nothing remains to the Court but to draw from them conclusions of law.

Section 755. Special Verdict and Interrogatories

(a) Special Verdicts. The Court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event the Court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use other methods of submitting the issues and requiring the written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The Court shall give to the jury such explanation and instruction concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in doing so, the Court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waives their right to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless, before the jury retires, they demand its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand, the Court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict.

(b) General Verdict. Accompanied by Answer to Interrogatories. The Court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decisions of which are necessary to a verdict. The Court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict and the Court shall direct the jury both to make written answers and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are consistent with each other, judgment shall be entered thereon, but, when the answers to one or more interrogatories is inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment may be entered pursuant to Section 907 in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict, or the Court may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment shall not be entered, but the Court shall return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or shall order a new trial.

Section 756. Jury Must Assess Amount of Recovery

When, by the verdict, either party is entitled to recover money of the adverse party, the jury, in their verdict, must assess the amount of recovery.

Section 757. Motions for a Directed Verdict and for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict

(a) Motion for Directed Verdict: When Made; Effect. A party who moves for a directed verdict made at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for direct verdict shall state the specific grounds therefor. The order of the Court granting a motion for a directed verdict is effective without any agreement of the jury.

(b) Motion for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict. Whenever a motion for a directed verdict made at the close of all the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the Court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Not later than ten (10) days after entry of judgment, a party who has moved for a directed verdict may move to have the verdict and any judgment entered thereon set aside and to have judgment entered in accordance with their motion for a directed verdict; or if a verdict was not returned, such party, within ten (10) days after the jury has been discharged, may move for judgment in accordance with their motion for a directed verdict. A motion for a new trial may be joined with this motion, or a new trial may be prayed for in the alternative. If a verdict was returned, the Court may allow the judgment to stand or may reopen the judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of the judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed. If no verdict was returned, the Court may direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed or may order a new trial.

(c) Conditional Rulings on Grant of Motion.

- (1) If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, provided for in Subsection (b) of this Section, is granted, the Court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial.

If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted, the order thereon does not affect the finality of the judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless the Supreme Court has otherwise ordered. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally denied, the appellee on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the Supreme Court.

- (2) The party whose verdict has been set aside on motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may serve a motion for a new trial pursuant to Section 908 not later than ten (10) days after entry of the judgment notwithstanding the verdict.

(d) Denial of Motion. If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is denied, the party who prevailed on that motion may, on appeal, assert grounds entitling them to a new trial in the event the Supreme Court concludes that the Trial Court erred in denying the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. If the Supreme Court reverses the judgment, nothing in this section precludes it from determining that the appellee is entitled to a new trial.

SUBCHAPTER D - MISCELLANEOUS TRIAL PROVISIONS

Section 771. Provisions Applicable to Trials by Court

The provisions of this Chapter respecting trials by jury apply, so far as they are in their nature applicable, to trials by the Court.

Section 772. Trial Docket

A trial docket shall be made out by the Clerk of the Court, at least fifteen days before the first day of each jury or nonjury docket of the Court, and the actions shall be set for particular days in the order prescribed by the Judge of the Court, and so arranged that the cases set for each day shall be considered as nearly as may be on that day. The trial docket shall be promptly mailed by the Clerk to each party or their attorney of record whose action is placed on the trial docket.

Section 773. Trial Docket for Bar

The Clerk shall make out a copy of the trial docket for the use of the bar, before the first day of the docket of the Court and cause the same to be available to the public.

Section 774. Order of Trial of Cases Docketed

The trial of an issue of fact, and the assessment of damages in any case, shall be in the order in which they are placed on the trial docket, unless by the request of the parties with the approval of the Court, or the order of the Court, they are continued or placed at the end of the docket, unless the Court, in its discretion, shall otherwise direct. The Court may, in its discretion, hear at any time a motion, and may by rule prescribe the time for hearing motions.

Section 775. Time of Trial

Actions shall be triable at the first trial docket of the Court, after or during which the issues therein shall have been identified and discovery completed. When the issues are made up and discovery completed, or when the defendant has failed to plead within the time fixed, the cause shall be placed on the trial docket, and shall stand for trial at such term twenty (20) days after the issues are made up and discovery completed, and shall, in case of default, stand for trial forthwith.

Section 776. Continuance

Section 777. Bifurcated Jury Trials

(a) The Supreme Court may provide by rule for the bifurcation of any jury trial in a civil action sounding in tort so that the jury shall first hear evidence on, and render its verdict upon the issue of liability, and thereafter hear evidence on and render its verdict upon the issue of the amount of damages if liability has been found.

(b) In such bifurcated trials, evidence of insurance coverage or similar agreements by third parties to pay any part or a judgment, and the nature and extent of such coverage or agreement shall be admissible and relevant to the issue of damages.

(c) In any such cases not provided for by Court rule, the case may be determined in bifurcated proceedings as stated in Subsections (a) and (b) of this Section by stipulation of the parties.

CHAPTER EIGHT

PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

Section 801. Seizure of Person or Property

At the commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by the law of the Tribe, existing at the time the remedy is sought. The Seizure and Forfeiture code may be found in the Courts Act.

Section 802. Receivers Appointed by Tribal Courts

An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the Court. The practice in the administration of estates by receivers or by other similar officers appointed by the Court shall be in accordance with Tribal probate law, or, if none, then the practice heretofore followed in the Courts of the United States or as provided in rules promulgated by the District Court. In all other respects the action in which the appointment of a receiver is sought or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by this Title.

Section 803. Deposit in Court

In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of Court, may deposit with the Court all or any part of such sum or thing. Money paid into Court under this Section shall be deposited and withdrawn in accordance with tribal law detailing accounting procedures for the Court Clerk's Office, and if there be none, then in accordance with the Tribal procedure for the administration and accounting of Federal grant monies, upon order of the Court.

Section 804. Process on Behalf of and Against Persons not Parties

When an order is made in favor of a person who is not a party to the action, they may enforce obedience to the order by the same process as if they were a party; and, when obedience to an order may be lawfully enforced against a person who is not a party, they are liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to the order as if they were a party.

Section 805. Security - proceedings Against sureties

Whenever this Title or other Tribal law requires or permits the giving of security by a party, and security is given in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits themselves to the jurisdiction of the Court and irrevocably appoints the Clerk of the Court as their agent upon whom any paper affecting their liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. Their liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the Court prescribes may be served on the Clerk of the Court, who shall forthwith mail copies to the sureties if their addresses are known.

Any surety authorized to give a bond or stipulation or other undertaking in either the Federal Courts or the State Courts within the State within which any portion of the tribal jurisdiction lies, and any individual approved by the Court who reside within the jurisdiction of Tribe (except officers of the Court or elected Tribal officials) shall be eligible to give such bond or stipulation, or undertaking in the District Court under this Title of other Tribal law unless otherwise prohibited by tribal law.

Section 806. Execution

(a) In General. Process to enforce a judgment for the payment of money shall be a writ of execution, unless the Court directs otherwise. In aid of the judgment or execution, the judgment creditor or their successor in interest when that interest appears of record, may obtain discovery from any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in this Title.

(b) Against Certain Public Officers. When a judgment otherwise authorized has been entered against a collector or other officer of revenue of the Tribe or against an officer, or employee, or agency of the Tribe in their official capacity, or if judgment is entered against an individual in their person capacity who purported to act as an officer or employee of the Tribe, and the Court has given certificate of probable cause for their act wherein the Court determines that the individual had probable cause to believe that their action was authorized by the Tribe in their official capacity, execution shall not issue against the officer or their property but the final judgment shall be satisfied as may be provided by appropriation of such judgment (or such part thereof as the Council of the Tribe deems permissible considering the extent of available tribal resources) from available tribal funds.

This Section is not intended, nor shall it be construed, as a waiver of sovereign immunity.

SUBCHAPTER A - INJUNCTIONS

Section 811. Injunction Defined

The injunction provided for by this Chapter is a command to refrain from or to do a particular act for the benefit of another. It may be the final judgment in an action, or may be allowed as a provisional remedy, and when so allowed, it shall be by order.

Section 812. Cause for Injunction - Temporary Restraining Order

When it appears, by the verified complaint or an affidavit that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded, and such relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining the commission or continuance of some act, the commission or continuance of which, during the litigation, it appears that the defendant is doing, or threatens, or is about to do or is procuring or suffering to be done, some act in violation of the plaintiff's rights respecting the subject of the action, and tending to render the judgment ineffectual, a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction may be granted to restrain such act. And when, during the pendency of an action, it shall appear, by affidavit or proof, that the defendant threatens or is about to remove or dispose of their property with intent to defraud their creditors, or to render the judgment ineffectual, a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction may be granted to restrain such removal or disposition. It may, also, be granted in any case where it is specially authorized by statute.

Section 813. Temporary Restraining Order; Notice; Hearing; Duration

A temporary restraining order may be granted after commencement of the action without written or oral notice to the adverse party or their attorney only if:

(a) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or their attorney can be heard in opposition, and

(b) the applicant's attorney certifies to the Court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give the notice and the reasons supporting his claim that notice should not be required.

(c) Temporary restraining orders should not be granted except in cases of extreme urgency. Every temporary restraining order granted without notice shall be endorsed with the date and hour of issuance; shall be filed forthwith in the Clerk's office and entered of record; shall define the injury and state why it is irreparable and why the order was granted without notice; and shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed ten (10) days, as the Court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. The reasons for the extension shall be entered of record. In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the motion for a preliminary injunction shall be set down for hearing at the earliest possible time and take precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the motion comes on for hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction and, if they do not do so, the Court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On two (2) days' notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the Court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification and in that event the Court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

Section 814. Temporary Restraining Order - Service

Temporary restraining orders shall be served in the same manner as provided for service of the summons and complaint.

Section 815. Preliminary Injunction

(a) Notice. No preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the adverse party. Notice may be in the form of an order to appear at a designated time and place and show cause why a proposed preliminary injunction should not be issued, or in such form as the Court shall direct. The burden of showing the criteria for issuance of a preliminary injunction remains with the moving party.

(b) Consolidation of Hearing with Trial on Merits. Before or after the commencement of the hearing of an application for a preliminary injunction, the Court may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing of the application. Even when this consolidation is not ordered, any evidence received upon an application for a preliminary injunction which would be admissible upon the trial on the merits becomes part of the record on the trial and need not be repeated upon the trial. This Subsection shall be so construed and applied as to save to the parties any rights they may have to trial by jury.

Section 816. Preliminary Injunction - Criteria

Unless a statute of the Tribe provides specifically for preliminary injunctive relief upon a showing of particular circumstances, no preliminary injunction shall be granted unless upon hearing the evidence presented by the parties the Court determines that:

(a) There is a substantial likelihood that the moving party will eventually prevail on the merits of their claim for a permanent injunction or other relief,

(b) the moving party will suffer irreparable injury unless the preliminary injunction issues. Irreparable injury means an injury which cannot be adequately remedied by a judgment for money damages,

(c) the threatened injury to the moving party outweighs whatever damage or injury the proposed preliminary injunction may cause the opposing party; and

(d) the preliminary injunction, if it issues, would not be adverse to the public interest, and would not violate the public policy of the Tribe or the United States.

Section 817. Form and Scope of Injunction or Restraining Order

Every order granting an injunction and every restraining order shall set forth the reasons for its issuance; shall be specific in terms; shall describe in reasonable detail, and not by reference to the complaint or other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained; and is binding only upon the parties to the action, their officers, agents, servants, and employees, and upon those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

Section 818. Employer and Employee; Interpleader; Constitutional Cases

This Subchapter does not modify any statute of the Tribe relating to temporary restraining orders and preliminary injunctions in actions affecting employer and employees or relating to preliminary injunctions in actions of interpleader or in the nature of interpleader; or any other case where temporary restraining orders or preliminary injunctions are expressly authorized or prohibited upon certain express terms or conditions.

Section 819. Security

(a) No restraining order or preliminary injunction shall be issued except upon the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum as the Court deems proper, for the payment of such costs, damages, and reasonable attorney fees as may be incurred or suffered by any party who, is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. No such security shall be required of the Tribe or of an officer or agency thereof.

(b) The provisions of Section 805 apply to a surety upon a bond or undertaking under this Section.

(c) A party enjoined by a preliminary injunction may, at any time before final judgment, upon reasonable notice to the party who has obtained the preliminary injunction, move the Court for additional security, and if it appears that the surety in the undertaking has been removed from the Tribal jurisdiction, or is insufficient, the Court may vacate the preliminary injunction unless sufficient surety be given in a reasonable time upon such terms as may be just and equitable.

Section 820. Use of Affidavits

On the hearing for a restraining order or preliminary injunction, each party may submit affidavits which shall be filed as a part of the record.

Section 821. Injunction by Defendant

A defendant may obtain a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction upon filing their answer containing an appropriate counterclaim. They shall proceed in the manner hereinbefore prescribed.

Section 822. Injunction is Equitable

Relief by way of a restraining order, preliminary, or permanent injunction is of equitable cognizance and shall be issued or refused in the sound discretion of the Court. Relief by way of injunction shall be denied where the moving party may be adequately compensated for their injuries in money damages. The District Court shall not enjoin the enforcement of the Tribal tax laws or the collection of tribal taxes except to the extent that such relief is specifically provided for in those tax laws. No injunction shall issue to control the discretion or action of a Governmental officer or employee when such officer or employee has been delegated the authority to exercise their discretion in determining how to act upon the subject matter, and is acting or refusing to act in a manner not prohibited by tribal law or the Indian Civil Rights Act.

Section 823. Modification of Preliminary Injunction

If the preliminary injunction be granted, the defendant, at any time before the trial, may apply, upon notice, to the Court to vacate or modify the same. The application may be made upon the complaint and affidavits upon which the injunction is granted, or upon affidavits on the part of the party enjoined, with or without answer. The order of the Judge allowing, dissolving or modifying an injunction shall be returned to the office of the Clerk of the Court and recorded.

Section 824. Modification of Permanent Injunction

A final judgment containing a permanent injunction may be modified or dissolved by separate action upon a showing that the facts and circumstances have changed to the extent that the injunction is no longer just and equitable, or that the injunction is no longer needed to protect the rights of the parties.

Section 825. Injunctions Tried to the Court

All injunctions shall be tried to the Court and not to a jury unless the Court orders an advisory jury pursuant to Section 704 (c) of this Title.

Section 826. Enforcement of Restraining Orders and Injunctions

A restraining order or injunction granted by a Judge may be enforced as the act of the Court. Disobedience of any injunction may be punished as a contempt by the Court or any Judge who might have granted it. An attachment may be issued by the Court or Judge, upon being satisfied, by affidavit or testimony, of the breach of the injunction, against the party guilty of the same, who may be required to make immediate restitution to the party injured, and give further security to obey the injunction; or, in default thereof, they may be committed to close custody, until they shall fully comply with such requirements, or be otherwise legally discharged, or be punished by fine not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for each day of, or separate act of, contempt, to be paid into the Court fund, or by confinement in the Tribal jail for not longer than sixty (60) days.

SUBCHAPTER B - REPLEVIN

Section 831. Order of Delivery - Procedure

(a) The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of specific personal property may claim the delivery of the property at the commencement of suit, as provided here.

- (1) The complaint must allege facts which show:
 - (i) a description of the property claimed;
 - (ii) that the plaintiff is the owner of the property or has a special ownership or interest therein, stating the facts in relation thereto, and that they are entitled to the immediate possession of the property;
 - (iii) that the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant;
 - (iv) the actual value of the property provided that when several articles are reclaimed, the value of each shall be stated as nearly as practicable;
 - (v) that the property was not taken in execution on any order or judgment against said plaintiff, or for the payment of any tax, fine or amercement assessed against them, or by virtue of an order of delivery issued under this Title, or any other mesne or final process issued against said plaintiff; or, if taken in execution or on any order or judgment against the plaintiff, that it is exempt by law from being so taken; and

(vi) the prayer for relief requests that the Court issue an order for the immediate delivery of the property.

- (2) The above allegations are verified by the party or, when the facts are within the personal knowledge of their agent or attorney and this is shown in the verification, by said agent or attorney.
- (3) A notice shall be issued by the Clerk and served on the defendant with the summons which shall notify the defendant that an order of delivery of the property described in the complaint is sought and that the defendant may object to the issuance of such an order by a written objection which is filed with the Clerk and delivered or mailed to the plaintiff's attorney within five (5) days of the service of the summons. In the event that no written objection is filed within the five-day period, no hearing is necessary and the Court Clerk shall issue the order of delivery. Should a written objection be filed within the five-day period specified, the Court shall, at the request of either party, set the matter for prompt hearing. At such hearing the Court shall proceed to determine whether the order for prejudgment delivery of the property should issue according to the probable merit of the plaintiff's complaint. Provided, however, that no order of delivery may be issued until an undertaking has been executed pursuant to Section 833 of this Title.
- (4) Nothing in this Title shall prohibit a party from waiving their right to a hearing or from voluntarily delivering the goods to the party seeking them before the commencement of the proceedings or at any time after institution thereof.

(b) Where the notice that is required by Subsection (a) of this Section cannot be served on the defendant but the Judge finds that reasonable effort to serve them was made and at the hearing the plaintiff has shown the probable truth of the allegations in their complaint, the Court may issue an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property. If an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property is issued without actual notice being given to the defendant, the defendant may move to have said order dissolved and if they do not have possession of the property, for a return of the property. Notice of the right to move for return of said property shall be contained in the order for seizure and delivery of such property which shall be served upon the defendant or left in a conspicuous place where the property was seized, and the Chief of the Tribal Police shall hold said property in such cases for three (3) working days prior to delivery to the plaintiff in order to give the defendant a reasonable opportunity to move for the return of such property. Notice of said motion with the date of the hearing shall be served upon the attorney for the plaintiff in the action. The motion shall be heard promptly, and in any case within ten (10) days after the date it is filed. The Court must grant the motion unless, at the hearing on defendant's motion, the plaintiff proves the probable truth of the allegations contained in their complaint. If said motion and notice is filed before the Chief of the Tribal Police turns the property over to the plaintiff, the Chief of the Tribal Police shall retain control of the property pending the hearing on the motion.

(c) The Court may, on request of the plaintiff, order the defendant not to conceal, damage or destroy the property or a part thereof and not to remove the property or a part of the property from the tribal jurisdiction pending the hearing on plaintiff's request for an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property, and the order may be served with the summons.

Section 832. Penalty for Damage of Property Subject to Order of Delivery

Any person who willfully and knowingly damages property in which there exists a valid right to issuance of an order of delivery, or on which such order has been sought under the provisions of this Title, or who conceals it, with the intent to interfere with enforcement of the order, or who removes it from the jurisdiction of the Court with the intention of defeating enforcement of an order of delivery, or who willfully refuses to disclose its location to an officer charged with executing an order for its delivery, or, if such property is in their possession, willfully interferes with the office charged with executing such writ, may be held in civil contempt of Court, and shall be guilty of an offense, and if convicted of such offense, shall be subject to a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) and imprisonment for a term of not more than six (6) months, or both; and, in addition to such civil and criminal penalties, shall be liable to the plaintiff for double the amount of damage done to the property together with reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the Court, which damages and fees shall be deemed based on tortious conduct and enforced accordingly.

Section 833. Undertaking in Replevin

The order shall not be issued until there has been executed by one or more sufficient sureties of the plaintiff, to be approved by the Court, an undertaking in not less than double the value of the property as stated in the complaint to the effect that the plaintiff shall duly prosecute the action and pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against them, including attorney's fees and, if the property be delivered to them that they will return the same to the defendant if a return be adjudged; provided, that where the Tribe or its agents or subdivisions is party plaintiff, an undertaking in replevin shall not be required of the plaintiff, but a writ shall issue upon complaint duly filed as provided by law. The undertaking shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court, and shall be subject to the provisions of Section 805 of this Title.

Section 834. Replevin Bond - Value

On application of either party which is made at the time of executing the replevin bond or the redelivery bond, or at a later date, with notice to the adverse party, the Court may hold a hearing to determine the value of the property which the plaintiff seeks to replevy. If the value as determined by the Court is different from that stated in the complaint, the value as determined by the Court shall control for the purpose of Sections 833 and 838 of this Title.

Section 835. Order of Delivery

The order for the delivery of the property to the plaintiffs shall be addressed and delivered to the Chief of the Tribal Police. It shall State the names of the parties, the Court in which the action is brought, and command the Chief of the Tribal Police to take the property, describing it, and deliver it to the plaintiff as prescribed in this Title, and to make return of the order on a day to be named therein.

Section 836. Order Returnable

The return day of the order of delivery, when issued at the commencement of the suit, shall be the same as that of the summons; when issued afterwards, it shall be ten (10) days after it is issued.

Section 837. Execution of Order

The Chief of the Tribal Police shall execute the order by taking the property therein mentioned. They shall also deliver a copy of the order to the person charged with the unlawful detainer of the property or leave such copy at their usual place of residence, or at the place such property was seized.

Section 838. Re-delivery on Bond

If, within three (3) working days after service of the copy of the order, there is executed by one or more sufficient sureties of the defendant, to be approved by the Court or the Chief of the Tribal Police, an undertaking to the plaintiff, in not less than double the amount of the value of the property as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, to the effect that the defendant will deliver the property to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and will pay all costs and damages that may be awarded against them, the Chief of the Tribal Police shall return the property to the defendant. If such undertaking be not given within three (3) working days after service of the order, the Chief of the Tribal Police shall deliver the property to the plaintiff.

Section 839. Exception to Sureties

Any party for whose benefit an undertaking is made may except at any time to the sufficiency of the sureties on such undertaking such exception shall be made in writing and filed with the Clerk. Upon hearing, the Court shall make such order as is just to safeguard the rights of the parties.

Section 840. Proceedings on Failure to Prosecute Action

If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and judgment rendered against them, or their action be dismissed, or if they otherwise fail to prosecute their action to final judgment, the Court shall, on application of the defendant or their attorney, proceed to inquire into the right of property and right of possession of the defendant to the property taken.

Section 841. Judgment – Damages--Attorney Fees

In an action to recover the possession of personal property, judgment for the plaintiff may be for the possession, or for the recovery of possession, or the value thereof in case a delivery cannot be had, and of damages for the detention. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and the defendant claim a return thereof, judgment for the defendant may be for a return of the property, or the value thereof in case a return cannot be had, and damages for taking and withholding the same. The judgment rendered in favor of the prevailing party in such action may include a reasonable attorney fee to be set by the Court, to be taxed and collected as costs.

Section 842. Officer May Break into Buildings

The Chief of the Tribal Police or other law enforcement officer, in the execution of the order of delivery issued by the Tribal Court, may break open any building or enclosure in which the property claimed, or any part thereof, is concealed upon probable cause to believe that the property is concealed therein, but not until they have been refused entrance into said building or enclosure and the delivery of the property, after having demanded the same, or if no person having charge thereof is present.

Section 843. Compelling Delivery by Attachment

In an action to recover the possession of specific personal property, the Court may for good cause shown, before or after judgment, compel the delivery of the property to the officer or party entitled thereto by attachment, and may examine either party as to the possession or control of the property. Such authority shall only be exercised in aid of the foregoing provisions of this Subchapter.

Section 844. Improper Issue of Order of Delivery

Any order for the delivery of property issued under this Subchapter without the affidavit and undertaking required, shall be set aside and the plaintiff shall be liable in damages to the party injured.

Section 845. Joinder of Cause of Action for Debt-- Stay of Judgment

In any action for replevin in the Tribal Court, it shall be permissible for the plaintiff to join with the claim in replevin a claim founded on debt claimed to be owing to the plaintiff if the debt shall be secured by a lien upon the property sought to be recovered in the claim in replevin. In such cases, the execution of the judgment for debt shall be stayed pending the sale of the property and the determination of the amount of debt remaining unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale thereto.

SUBCHAPTER C - ATTACHMENT

Section 851. Grounds for Attachment

The plaintiff in a civil action for the recovery of money may, at or after the commencement thereof, have an attachment against the property of the defendant, upon proof of any of the following grounds:

(a) When the defendant, or one of several defendants, is a foreign corporation, or a nonresident of the tribal jurisdiction (but no order of attachment shall be issued on this clause for any claim other than a debt or demand arising upon contract, judgment or decree, unless the claim arose wholly within the tribal jurisdiction),

(b) When the defendant, or one of several defendants, has absconded with intention to defraud their creditors,

(c) When the defendant has left the Tribal jurisdiction to avoid the service of summons,

(d) When the defendant so conceals themselves that summons cannot be served upon them,

(e) When the defendant is about to remove their property, or a part thereof, out of the jurisdiction of the Court with the intent to defraud their creditors,

(f) When the defendant is about to convert their property, or a part, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of their creditors,

(g) When the defendant has property or rights in action, which they conceal,

(h) When the defendant has assigned, removed, disposed of, or is about to dispose of, their property, or a part, with the intent to defraud, hinder, or delay their creditors,

(i) When the defendant fraudulently contracted the debt, or fraudulently incurred the liability or obligations for which the suit has been brought,

(j) Where the damages for which the action is brought are for injuries arising from the commission of a criminal offense,

(k) When the debtor has failed to pay the price or value of any article or thing delivered, which by contract they were bound to pay upon delivery, or

(l) When the action is brought by the Tribe, or its officers, agents, or political agencies or subdivisions for the purpose of collection of any Tribal tax, levy, charge, fee, assessment, rental, or debt arising in contract or by statute and owed to the Tribe.

Section 852. Attachment Affidavit

An order of attachment may be issued by the Court when:

(a) There is filed in the office of the Court Clerk a civil complaint stating a claim for relief and an application that the Court issue an order of attachment which States facts which show:

- (1) The nature of the plaintiff's claim,
- (2) That it is just,
- (3) The amount which the affiant believes the plaintiff ought to recover, and
- (4) The existence of at least one of the grounds for an attachment enumerated in Section 851 of this Subchapter.

(b) The application must be verified by the plaintiff, or, where their agent or attorney has personal knowledge of the facts, by said agent or attorney.

(c) The defendant has been served with a notice, issued by the Clerk, which shall notify the defendant that an order of attachment of property is requested and that they may object to the issuance of such an order by a written objection which is filed with the Court Clerk and mailed or delivered to the plaintiff's attorney within five (5) days of the receipt of the notice. A copy of plaintiff's application shall be attached to and served with the notice, and the notice and application may be served with the summons in the action.

(d) If no written objection is filed within the five (5) day period, no hearing is necessary, and the Clerk may issue the order of attachment. If a written objection is filed within the five-day period, the Court shall, at the request of either party, set the matter for a prompt hearing with notice to the adverse party. If the plaintiff proves the probable merit of their cause and the truth of the matters asserted in their application for an order of attachment, the Court may issue the order of attachment. Provided, however, before an order of attachment is issued by either the Court or the Clerk, the plaintiff has executed an undertaking pursuant to Section 853 of this Title. The Tribe and its agents shall not be required to execute an understanding.

(e) If the Court finds that the defendant cannot be given notice as provided, although a reasonable effort was made to notify them, but at the hearing the plaintiff proves the probable merit of their claim and the truth of the matters asserted in their application, the Court may issue the order of attachment. The defendant may subsequently move to have the attachment vacated as provided in Section 892.8 of this Title.

Section 853. Attachment Bonds

The attachment bond for the benefit of the party whose property is attached shall be in such form and in such amount, not less than double the amount of the plaintiff's claim, as the Court shall direct, and shall guarantee payment of all damages, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees incurred as a result of a wrongful attachment. No bond shall be required of the Tribe.

Section 854. Order of Attachment

The order of attachment shall be directed and delivered to the Chief of the Tribal Police. It shall require them to attach the lands, tenements, goods, chattels, stocks, rights, credits, moneys and effects of the defendant within the tribal jurisdiction not exempt by law from being applied to the payment of the plaintiff's claims, or so much thereof as will satisfy the plaintiff's claim, to be stated in the order as in the affidavit, and the probable cost of the action.

Section 855. When Returnable

The return day of the order of attachment, when issued at the commencement of the action, shall be the same as that of the summons, and otherwise within twenty (20) days of the date of issuance.

Section 856. Order of Execution

Where there are several orders of attachment against the defendant, they shall be executed in the order in which they are received by the Chief of the Tribal Police.

Section 857. Execution of Attachment Order

The order of attachment shall be executed by the Chief of the Tribal Police without delay. They shall go to the place within the tribal jurisdiction where the defendant's property may be found, and declare that, by virtue of said order, they attach said property at the suit of the plaintiff; and the officer shall make a true inventory and appraisal of all the property attached, which shall be signed by the officer and returned with the order, leaving a copy of said inventory with the person or in the place from which the property was seized.

Section 858. Service of Order

When the property attached is real property, the officer shall leave a copy of the order with the occupant, or, if there be no occupant, then a copy of the order shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the real property. Where it is personal property, and they can get possession, they shall take such into their custody, and hold it subject to the order of the Court.

Section 859. Re-delivery on Bond

The chief of the Tribal Police shall re-deliver the property to the person in whose possession it was found, upon the execution by such person, in the presence of the Chief of the Tribal Police, an undertaking to the plaintiff, with one or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that the parties to the same are bound in double the appraised value thereof, that the property, or its appraised value in money, shall be forthcoming to answer the judgment of the Court in the action.

SUBCHAPTER D - GARNISHMENT

Section 870. Common Law Garnishment Authorized

The Court is authorized to issue common law writs of garnishment pending further legislation upon the subject.

SUBCHAPTER E - PROVISIONS RELATING TO ATTACHMENT

Section 880. Common Law Attachment Authorized

The Court is authorized to issue common law writs of attachment, assistance, and the like pending further legislation upon the subject.

SUBCHAPTER F - RECEIVERS

Section 892.1. Appointment of Receiver

A receiver may be appointed by the Supreme Court, the District Court, or any Judge or

Justice of either:

(a) In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property, or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to their claim, or between partners or other jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff, or of any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund, or the proceed thereof, is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured.

(b) In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of their mortgage and sale for the mortgaged property, where it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured, or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed, and that the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.

(c) After judgment, to carry the judgment in effect.

(d) After judgment, to dispose of the property according to the judgment, or to preserve it during the pendency of an appeal, or in proceeding in aid of execution, when an execution has been returned unsatisfied, or when the judgment debtor refuses to apply their property in satisfaction of the judgment.

(e) In the cases provided in this Title, and by special statutes, when a corporation has been dissolved, or is insolvent, or in imminent danger of insolvency, or has forfeited its corporate rights.

(f) In all other cases where receivers should be appointed to protect the property and rights of the parties thereto in dispute by the usages of the Court in equity.

Section 892.2 Persons Ineligible

No party, or attorney, or person so interested in an action, shall be appointed receiver therein except by consent of all parties thereto.

Section 892.3 Oath and Bond

Before entering upon their duties, the receiver must be sworn to perform them faithfully, and with one or more sureties, approved by the Court, execute an undertaking to such person and in such sum as the Court shall direct, to the effect that they will faithfully discharge the duties of receiver in the action, and obey the orders of the Court.

Section 892.4 Powers of Receiver

The receiver has, under the control of the Court, power to bring and defend actions in their own name, as receiver; to take and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, to collect debts, to compound for and compromise the same, to make transfers, and generally to do such act respecting the property as the Court may authorize.

Section 892.5 Investment of Funds

Funds in the hands of a receiver may be invested upon interest, by order of the Court; but no such order shall be made, except upon the consent of all the parties to the action, or except by order of the Court when the principal and interest earned thereon are guaranteed by the Federal Government and may be withdrawn within a reasonable time.

Section 892.6 Disposition of Property Litigated

(a) When it is admitted by the pleadings or on oral or written examination of a person, that they have in their possession or under their control any non-exempt money or other thing capable of delivery, which is held by them as trustee for a party, or which belongs or is due to a party, the Court may order the same to be deposited in Court or delivered to such party, with or without security, subject to the further discretion of the Court.

(b) Any person abiding by an order of the Court in such cases and paying or delivering the money or other property subject to said order into Court, shall not thereafter be liable to the party for whom they held as trustee, or to whom the money or property belonged or was due, in any civil action for the collection or return of the property or money delivered or paid into Court.

(c) Such order may be made by ordering the party to procure the deposit or payment into Court of the property, which order may be enforced by contempt, or the Court, upon proper application, may order the person holding said property to be served with summons and brought into the action as a special defendant for the sole purpose of determining the nature and amount of property in their possession subject to payment into Court under this Section, and ordering said person to deliver such non-exempt property into Court. After such payment has been made, the person shall be dismissed from the action.

(d) In cases where judgment has been obtained against the party whose property or money is to be paid into Court, it is not necessary to formally appoint a receiver for the money or property paid into Court under this Section, but the Court Clerk shall act as receiver as an aid to the enforcement of a judgment, and shall pay such money or deliver such property over to the person entitled thereto in conformity with the order of the Court.

Section 892.7 Punishment for Disobedience of Court

Whenever, in the exercise of its authority, the Court shall have ordered the deposit or delivery of money or other thing, and the order is disobeyed, the Court, besides punishing the disobedience as for contempt, may make an order requiring the Chief of the Tribal Police to take the money, or thing, and deposit or deliver it, in conformity with the direction of the Court.

Section 892.8 Vacation of Appointment by Supreme Court

In all cases in the Supreme Court in which a receiver has been appointed, or refused, by any Justice of the Supreme Court, the party aggrieved may, within ten (10) days thereafter, file a motion to vacate the order refusing or appointing such receiver, and hearing on such motion may be had before the Supreme Court, if the same be in session, or before a quorum of the Justices of said Court in vacation, at such time and place as the said Court of the Justices thereof may determine, and pending the final determination of the cause, if the order was one of the appointment of a receiver, the moving party shall have the right to give bond with good and sufficient sureties, and in such amount as may be fixed by order of the Court or a Justice thereof, conditioned for the due prosecution of such case, and the payment of all costs and damages that may accrue to the Tribe, or any officer, or person by reason thereof, and the authority of any such receiver shall be suspended pending a final determination of such cause, and if such receiver shall have taken possession of any property in controversy in said action, the same shall be surrendered to the rightful owner thereof, upon the filing and approval of said bond.

SUBCHAPTER G – EMINENT DOMAIN

Section 893.1. Who May Exercise Authority

The Council, and any officer or Agency of the Tribe specifically authorized to do so by statute, may obtain real or personal property by eminent domain proceedings in conformance with the Tribal Constitution, the Indian Civil Rights Act, and this Subchapter.

Section 893.2. What Property May be Condemned by Eminent Domain

Except property made exempt from eminent domain by the Tribal Constitution and statutes, all property real and personal within the tribal jurisdiction, not owned by the Tribe and its agencies, shall be subject to eminent domain except title to property held in trust by the United States for an Indian or Tribe, or property held by an Indian or Tribe subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States unless the United States has consented to the eminent domain of said property. Any lease or tribally granted assignment, or other non-trust right to use such trust or restricted property conveyed by tribal or Federal law shall be subject to eminent domain in conformance with the Tribal Constitution and statutes and the Indian Civil Rights Act.

Section 893.3. Condemnation of Property

(a) Applicability of other Rules. The Rules of Civil Procedure for the Courts of the Tribe govern the procedure for the condemnation of real and personal property under the power of eminent domain, except as otherwise provided in this Subchapter.

(b) Joinder of Properties. The plaintiff may join the same action one or more separate pieces of property, whether in the same or different ownership and whether or not sought for the same use.

(c) Amount to be Paid. The owner shall be entitled to receive just compensation for all property or rights to property taken from them in eminent domain proceedings.

Section 893.4 Complaint

(a) Caption. The complaint shall contain a caption as provided in Section 110(a), except that the plaintiff shall name as defendants the property, designated generally by kind, quantity, and location, and at least one of the owners of some part of or interest in the property.

(b) Contents. The complaint shall contain a short and plain statement of the authority for the taking, the use for which the property is to be taken, a description of the property sufficient for its identification, the interests to be acquired, and as to each separate piece of property, a designation of the defendants who have been joined as owners thereof or of some interest therein. Upon the commencement of the action, the plaintiff need join as defendant only the persons having or claiming an interest in the property whose names are then known, but prior to any hearing involving the compensation to be paid for a piece of property, the plaintiff shall add as defendants all persons having or claiming an interest in the property whose names are then known, but prior to any hearing involving the compensation to be paid for a piece of property, the plaintiff shall add as defendant all persons having or claiming an interest in that property whose names can be ascertained by a reasonably diligent search of the records, considering the character and value of the property involved and the interest to be acquired, and also those whose names have otherwise been learned. All others may be made defendants under the designation "Unknown Owners." Process shall be served as provided in Section 893.5 of this subchapter upon all defendants, whether named as defendants at the time of the commencement of the action or subsequently added, and a defendant may answer as provided in Section 893.6 of this subchapter. The Court meanwhile may order such distribution of a deposit as the facts warrant.

(c) Filing. In addition to filing the complaint with the Court, the plaintiff shall furnish to the clerk at least one copy thereof for the use of the defendants and additional copies at the request of the clerk or of a defendant.

Section 893.5 Process in Eminent Domain

(a) Notice; Delivery. Upon the filing of the complaint the plaintiff shall forthwith deliver to the Clerk joint or several notices directed to the defendants named or designated in the complaint. Additional notices directed to defendants subsequently added shall be so delivered. The delivery of the notice and its service has the same effect as the delivery and service of the summons.

(b) Same; Form. Each notice shall State the Court, the title of the action, the name of the defendant to whom it is directed, that the action is to condemn property, a description of their property sufficient for its identification, the interest to be taken, the authority for the taking, the uses for which the property is to be taken, that the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff's attorney an answer within twenty (20) days after service of the notice, and that the failure so to serve an answer constitutes a consent to the taking and to the authority of the Court to proceed to hear the action and to fix the compensation. The notice shall conclude with the name of the plaintiff's attorney and an address where they may be served. The notice need not contain a description of any property other than that to be taken from the defendants to whom it is directed.

(c) Service of Notice.

- (1) Personal Service. Personal service of the notice shall be made in accordance with the rules for personal service of summons upon a defendant who resides within the United States or its territories or insular possessions and whose residence is known. A copy of the complaint may, but need not, be served.

- (2) Service by Publication. Upon the filing of a certificate of the plaintiff's attorney stating that they believe a defendant cannot be personally served, because after diligent inquiry their place of residence cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff or, if ascertained, that it is beyond the territorial limits of personal service as provided in this Section, service of the notice shall be made on that defendant by publication in a newspaper published in the Judicial District where the property is located, or if there is no such newspaper, then in a newspaper having a general circulation where the property is located, once a week for not less than three successive weeks. Prior to the last publication, a copy of the notice shall also be mailed to a defendant who cannot be personally served as provided in this Section but whose place of residence is then known. Unknown owners may be served by publication in a like manner by a notice addressed to "Unknown Owners".
- (3) When Publication Service Complete. Service by publication is complete upon the date of the last publication. Proof of publication and mailing shall be made by certificate of the plaintiff's attorney, to which shall be attached a printed copy of the published notice with the name and dates of the newspaper marked thereon.

(d) Return; Amendment. Proof of service of the notice shall be made and amendment of the notice or proof of its service allowed in the manner provided for the return and amendment of the summons.

Section 893.6 Appearance or Answer

If a defendant has no objection or defense to the taking of their property, they may serve a notice of appearance designating the property in which they claim to be interested. Thereafter they shall receive notice of all proceedings affecting it. If a defendant has any objection or defense to the taking of their property, they shall serve their answer within twenty (20) days after the service of notice upon them. The answer shall identify the property in which they claim to have an interest, state the nature and extent of the interest claimed, and state all their objections and defenses to the taking of their property. A defendant waives all defenses and objection not so presented, but at the trial of the issue of just compensation, whether or not they have previously appeared or answered, they may present evidence as to the amount of the compensation to be paid for their property, and they may share in the distribution of the award. No other pleading or motion asserting any additional defense or objection shall be allowed.

Section 893.7 Amendment of Pleadings

Without leave of Court, the plaintiff may amend the complaint at any time before the trial of the issue of compensation and as many times as desired, but no amendment shall be made which will result in a dismissal forbidden by Section 893.9 of this Subchapter. The plaintiff need not serve a copy of an amendment, but shall serve notice of the filing, as provided in Section 231(b) of this Title, upon any party affected thereby who has appeared and, in the manner provided in Section 893.9 of this Subchapter, upon any party affected thereby who has not appeared. The Plaintiff shall furnish to the Clerk of the Court for the use of the defendants at least one copy of each amendment, and they shall furnish additional copies on the request of the clerk or of a defendant within the time allowed by Section 893.6 of this subchapter, a defendant may serve their answer to the amended pleading, in the form and manner and with the same effect as there provided.

Section 893.8. Substitution of Parties

If a defendant dies or becomes incompetent or transfers their interest after their joinder, the Court may order substitution of the proper party upon motion and notice of hearing. If the motion and notice of hearing are to be served upon a person not already a party, service shall be made as provided in Section 893.5(c).

Section 893.9. Dismissal of Action

(a) As of Right. If no hearing has begun to determine the compensation to be paid for a piece of property and the plaintiff has not acquired the title or a lesser interest in the property or take possession thereof, the plaintiff may dismiss the action as to that property, without an order of the Court, by filing a notice of dismissal setting forth a brief description of the property as to which the action is dismissed.

(b) By stipulation. Before the entry of any judgment vesting the plaintiff with title or a lesser interest in or possession of property, the action may be dismissed in whole or in part, without an order of the Court, as to any property by filing a stipulation of dismissal by the plaintiff and the defendant affected thereby; and, if the parties so stipulate, the Court may vacate any judgment that has been entered.

(c) By order of the Court. At any time before compensation for a piece of property has been determined and paid and after motion and hearing, the Court may dismiss the action as to that property, except that it shall not dismiss the action as to any part of the property of which the plaintiff has taken possession or in which the plaintiff has taken title or a lesser interest, without awarding just compensation of the possession, title or lesser interest so taken, or, if the possession, title, or interest in such property is to be returned to the defendant upon dismissal by motion of the plaintiff, the Court may also award reasonable actual damages incurred, not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in excess of fair rental value of the premises during the period in which the plaintiff held possession or title against the plaintiff notwithstanding the doctrine of sovereign immunity. The Court at any time may drop a defendant unnecessarily or improperly joined.

(d) Effect. Except as otherwise provided in the notice, or stipulation of dismissal, or order of the Court, any dismissal is without prejudice.

Section 893.10. Deposit and Its Distribution

The plaintiff shall deposit with the Court any money required by law as a condition to the exercise of the power of eminent domain; and, although not so required, may make a deposit when permitted by statute. In such cases the Court and attorneys shall expedite the proceedings for the distribution of the money so deposited and for the ascertainment and payment of just compensation. If the compensation finally awarded to any defendant exceeds the amount which has been paid to them on distribution of the deposit, the Court shall enter judgment against the plaintiff and in favor of that defendant for the deficiency. If the compensation finally awarded to any defendant is less than the amount which has been paid to them, the Court shall enter judgment against them and in favor of the plaintiff for the overpayment.

Section 893.11. Costs

Costs shall normally be paid by the Plaintiff in condemnation actions unless the Court, in its discretion, determines that a defendant should pay their own costs, which may include a reasonable portion of plaintiff's costs because of inequitable conduct or other statutory reason

JUDGMENT

Section 901. Judgments--Costs

(a) Definition; Form. “Judgment” as used in this Title includes a final determination of the rights of the parties in an action, including those determined by a decree and any order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings, the report of a master, or the record of prior proceedings.

(b) Judgment Upon Multiple Claims or Involving Multiple Parties. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third party claim, or when multiple parties are involved, the Court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination that there are no just reasons for delay and upon an express direction of the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the claims, or rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revisions at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.

(c) Demand for Judgment; Default. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from, or exceed in amount, that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in their pleadings.

(d) Costs. Except when express provisions therefor are made either in a statute of the Tribe or in this Title, costs shall be allowed as of course to the prevailing party unless the Court otherwise directs; but costs, including attorney’s fees and statutory authorization for collection of damages or requirement for bonds or undertakings, against the Tribe, its officers, and agencies shall be imposed only to the extent specifically permitted by tribal law. A general statement in this Title that such are payable by a party or by the plaintiff or defendant is not authority to impose such costs, damages, or requirements upon the Tribe, its officers and agencies. Costs may be taxed by the Clerk on one (1) day’s notice. On motion served within ten (10) days thereafter, the action of the Clerk may be reviewed by the Court.

(e) Applied to Probate Proceedings. A judgment shall be considered a lawful debt in all proceedings held by the Department of the Interior or by the Tribal District Court in the distribution of decedent’s estates.

Section 902. Default

(a) Entry. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by this Title and that fact is made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, the Clerk shall enter their default.

(b) Judgment. Judgment by default may be entered as follows:

- (1) By the Clerk. When the plaintiff's claims against a defendant are for a sum certain or for a sum which can, by computation, be made certain, the Clerk upon request of the plaintiff and upon affidavit of the amount due shall enter judgment for that amount and costs against the defendant, if they have been defaulted for failure to appear and if they are not an infant or incompetent person.
- (2) By the Court. In all other cases the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the Court therefore, but no judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other such representative who has appeared therein. If the party against whom judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, they (or, if appearing by representative, their representative) shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least three (3) days prior to the hearing on such application. If, in order to enable the Court to enter or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to make an accounting or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the Court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper and shall accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when required by any statute of the Tribe.

(c) Setting Aside Default. For good cause shown the Court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with Section 909(b).

(d) Plaintiff, Counterclaimants, Cross-Claimants. The provisions of this Section apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Section 901(c).

(e) Judgment Against the Tribe. No judgment by default may be entered against the Tribe, its officers, or agencies unless sixty (60) days written notice has been served upon the Chief and the Tribal Council. No judgment by default shall be entered against the Tribe, its agencies, or officers in any case unless the claimant established their claim or right to relief, including their authority to bring the suit, and their damages by evidence satisfactory to the Court.

Section 903. Offer of Judgment

At any time more than ten (10) days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against them for the money or property or to the effect specified in their offer, with costs then accrued. If within ten

(10) days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the Clerk shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. When the liability of one party to another has been determined by verdict or order or judgment, but the amount or extent of the liability, or both, remains to be determined by further proceedings, the party adjudged liable may make an offer of judgment, which shall have the same effect as an offer made before trial if it is served within a reasonable time not less than ten (10) days prior to the commencement of hearings to determine the amount or extent of liability.

Section 904. Judgment for Specific Act - Vesting Title

If a judgment directs a party to execute a conveyance of land or to deliver a deed or other documents or to perform any other specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the Court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the Court and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the clerk shall issue a writ of attachment or sequestration against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. The Court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt. If real or personal property is within the tribal jurisdiction, and the interest in said property at issue in the action is not held in trust by the United States as Indian lands, the Court in lieu of directing a conveyance of that interest may enter a judgment divesting the interest from any party and vesting it in others and such judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law. When any order or judgment is for delivery of possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution or assistance upon application.

Section 905. Summary Judgment

(a) For Claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of twenty (20) days from the commencement of the action or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in their favor upon all or any party thereof.

(b) For Defending Party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without support affidavits for a summary judgment in their favor as to all or any part thereof.

(c) Motion and Proceedings Thereon. The motion shall be served at least ten (10) days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admission on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be entered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

(d) Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Motion. If on motion under this Section judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the Court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable, ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

(e) Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony; Defense Required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The Court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this Section, the opposing party must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If they do not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against them.

(f) When Affidavits are Unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that they cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify their opposition, the Court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

(g) Affidavits Made in Bad Faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the Court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this Section are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the Court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused them to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

Section 906. Declaratory Judgments

The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment in action arising in equity, or through contract, or pursuant to any specific Tribal law authorizing a declaratory judgment, shall be in accordance with this Title, and in the manner provided in Sections 703 and 704. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The Court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

Section 907. Entry of Judgment

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 901(b), the Court shall promptly approve the form of the judgment, and the clerk shall thereupon enter it:

- (1) Upon a general verdict of a jury, or upon a decision by the Court that a party shall recover only a sum certain or costs or that all relief shall be denied, the clerk, unless the Court otherwise orders, shall prepare, sign, and enter the judgment without awaiting any direction by the Court.
- (2) Upon a decision by the Court granting other relief, or upon a special verdict or a general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories.

(b) Every judgment shall be set forth on a separate document. A judgment is effective only when so set forth and when entered in the civil docket book. Entry of the judgment shall not be delayed for the taxing of costs. Attorneys shall not submit forms of judgment except upon direction of the Court.

Section 908. New Trials - Amendments of Judgments

(a) Grounds. A new trial is a re-examination in the same Court, of an issue of fact, or of law, or both and may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the following reasons:

- (1) Irregularity in the proceedings of the Court, jury, referee, or prevailing party, or any order of the Court or referee, or abuse of discretion, by which the party was prevented from having a fair trial,
- (2) Misconduct of the jury or prevailing party,
- (3) Accident or surprise, which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against,
- (4) Excessive or inadequate damages,
- (5) Error in the assessment of the amount of recovery, whether too large or too small, where the action is upon a contract, or for the injury or detention of property,
- (6) That the verdict, report, or decision is not sustained by sufficient evidence, or is contrary to law,
- (7) Newly discovered evidence, material for the party applying, which they could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the trial,
- (8) Error of law occurring at the trial, and objected to by the party making the application, or

- (9) When, without fault of the complaining party, it becomes impossible to make a record sufficient for appeal.

On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the Court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions, and direct the entry of a new judgment.

(b) Time for Motion. A motion for a new trial shall be served not later than ten (10) days after the entry of the judgment, except, that a motion based upon newly discovered evidence shall be made within one year from the date of the judgment.

(c) Time for Serving Affidavits. When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has ten (10) days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding twenty (20) days either by the Court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The Court may permit reply affidavits.

(d) On Initiative of Court. Not later than ten (10) days after entry of judgment the Court on its own initiative may order a new trial for any reasons for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the Court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case, the Court shall specify in the order the grounds for the new trial.

(e) Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment. A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be served not later than ten (10) days after entry of the judgment.

Section 909. Relief From Judgment or Order

(a) Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the Court at anytime of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the Court orders. During the pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected before the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with leave of the Supreme Court.

(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud, etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the Court may relieve a party or their legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceedings for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Section 908(b); (3) fraud (whether denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or (6) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) not more than one year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under this Subsection (b) does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This Section does not limit the power of Court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant not actually personally notified of the proceedings, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the Court.

Section 910. Harmless Error

No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the Court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial or for setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the Court inconsistent with substantial justice.

Section 911. Stay of Proceedings to Enforce a Judgment

(a) Automatic Stay; Exceptions-Injunctions, Receiverships, and Patent Accountings. Except as stated in this Title, no execution shall issue upon a judgment nor shall proceedings be taken for its enforcement until the expiration of ten (10) days after its entry. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, an interlocutory or final judgment in an action for an injunction or in a receivership action, or a judgment or order directing an accounting, shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until an appeal is taken or during the pendency of an appeal. The provisions of Subsection (c) of this Section govern the suspending, modifying, restoring, or granting of an injunction during the pendency of an appeal.

(b) Stay on Motion for New Trial or for Judgment. In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the Court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the deposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment made pursuant to Section 908, or of a motion or relief from, a judgment or order made pursuant to Section 909, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to Section 757, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Section 751(b).

(c) Injunction pending Appeal. When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the Court in its discretion may suspend; modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

(d) Stay Upon Appeal. When an appeal is taken the appellant by giving a supersedeas bond may obtain a stay subject to the exceptions contained in Subsection (a) of this Section. The bond may be given at or after the time of filing the notice of appeal or of procuring the order allowing the appeal, as the case may be. The stay is effective when the supersedeas bond is approved by the Court.

(e) Stay in Favor of the Tribe or Agency. When an appeal is taken by the Tribe or tribal officer or agency or by direction of any department of the government of the Tribe, the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no bond, obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.

(f) Power of the Supreme Court Not Limited. The provisions in this section do not limit any power of the Supreme Court or of a Judge or Justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.

(g) Stay of Judgment as to Multiple Claims or Multiple Parties. When the Court has ordered a final judgment under the conditions stated in Section 901(b), the Court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

Section 912. Disability of a Judge

If by reason of death, sickness, or other disability, a Judge before whom an action has been tried is unable to perform the duties to be performed by the Court under this Title after a verdict is returned or findings of fact and conclusions of law are filed, then any other Judge regularly sitting in or assigned to the Court in which the action was tried may perform those duties; but if such other Judge is satisfied that they cannot perform those duties because they did not preside at the trial or for any other reason, they may in their discretion grant a new trial.

Section 914. Judgment Against Minor Child

It shall not be necessary to reserve in a judgment or order the right of a minor child to show cause against it after their attaining full age; but in any case in which such reservation would be proper, the minor child, within two (2) years after arriving at the age of eighteen (18) years, may show cause against such order of judgment.

Section 915. Judgments as Liens.

Judgments of the Tribal Court and the Courts of the United States shall be liens on real estate of the judgment debtor within the tribal jurisdiction from and after the time a certified copy of such judgment has been filed with the Court Clerk. A fee shall be collected for each requested filing. No judgment whether rendered by the Tribal Court or a Court of the United States shall be a lien on the real estate of a judgment debtor until it has been filed in this manner. Execution shall be issued only by the Tribal Court.

Section 916. Discharge of Money Judgment Liens

In the event of an appeal to the Tribal Supreme Court from a money judgment, the lien of such judgment, and any lien by virtue of an attachment issued and levied in the action in which such judgment was rendered, shall cease upon the judgment debtor or debtor's depositing, with the Court Clerk of the Tribal District Court, cash sufficient to cover the whole amount of the judgment, including interest, costs and any attorney fees, together with costs and interest on the appeal, accompanied by a written statement, executed by the judgment debtor or debtors, that such deposit is made to discharge the lien of such judgment and any lien by virtue of an attachment issued and levied in the action, as provided for herein. It shall be the duty of the Court Clerk, upon receipt of such a cash deposit and written statement, immediately to enter the same and the amount of cash received upon the civil appearance docket in the action, upon the judgment docket opposite the entry of such judgment, and upon the land tract records book if the judgment has been filed therein. It shall further be the duty of the Court Clerk to deposit the cash so received in any action in a separate interest bearing official depository account and to hold the same pending final determination of the action, and, upon final determination of the action, to pay, or apply the same upon any judgment that might be rendered against the depositor or depositors, and to refund any balance in excess of any such judgment to the depositor or depositors, or, in the event the action be finally determined in favor of the depositor or depositors, to refund the whole amount thereof to the depositor or depositors.

Section 917. Additional Case Deposits

A judgment creditor may, at any time, upon reasonable notice to the judgment debtor or debtors, move the Court for the deposit of additional cash if it appears that the cash which has been deposited is insufficient to cover the whole amount of the judgment, including interest, costs and any attorney's fees, together with costs and interest on the appeal. If the judgment debtor does not comply with any order issued by the Court pursuant to such motion, the judgment shall be revived and attachment may be issued.

Section 918. Reversal by Supreme Court

In the event of a reversal of the judgment by the Supreme Court, no money deposited to discharge the lien of such judgment shall be refunded by the Court Clerk until final disposition of the action.

Section 919. Interest on Money Judgments

All money judgments of the Tribal District Court shall bear interest at the rate of five percent (5%) simple interest per annum, except authorized judgments against the Tribe, its political subdivisions, and agents in their official capacity which judgments shall not bear interest unless such is specifically provided for, provided that when a rate of interest is specified in a contract, the rate therein shall apply to the judgment debt and be specified in the judgment if the rate does not exceed the lesser of any limitation imposed by Tribal law, or the law of the jurisdiction in which the contract was made, upon the amount of interest which may be charged.

Section 920. Exempt Property

The following property shall be exempt, except as to enforcement of contractual liens or mortgages, from garnishment, attachment, execution and sale, and other process for the payment of principal and interest, costs, and attorney fees upon any judgment of the Tribal District Court:

(a) Three-fourths (3/4) of the net wages earned per week by the person or an amount equivalent to forty (40) times the Federal minimum hourly wages per week, whichever is greater, except as may be specifically provided by law for child support payments,

(b) One automobile of fair market value not exceeding Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00),

(c) Tools, equipment, utensils, or books necessary to the conduct of the person's business but not including stock or inventory,

(d) Actual trust or restricted title to any lands held in trust by the United States, or subject to restrictions against alienation imposed by the United States, or subject to restrictions against alienation imposed by the United States but not including leasehold and other possessory interests in such property,

(e) Any dwelling used as the actual residence of the judgment debtor, including up to five acres of land upon which such dwelling is located whether such dwelling is owned or leased by the judgment debtor,

(f) Household goods, furniture, wearing apparel, personal effects, and no more than one (1) cellular telephone, but not including computers and other electronic devices, televisions, radios, phonographs, firearms, works of art, and other recreational or luxury items,

(g) One horse, one bridle, and one saddle,

(h) All implements of husbandry used upon the homestead, not more than four cows with their immature, offspring, two hogs with their immature offspring, ten chickens, and feed suitable and sufficient to maintain said livestock and fowls for a period of one year,

(i) All ceremonial or religious items.

Section 920.1 Payment of Judgments from Individual Indian Moneys

Whenever the Tribal District Court shall have ordered payment of money damages to an injured party and the debtor refuses or neglects to make such payment within the time set for payment by the Court, or when an execution is returned showing no property found, and when the debtor has sufficient funds to their credit at any Bureau of Indian Affairs Agency Office to pay all or part of such judgment, the Clerk of the Tribal District Court, upon request of the judgment creditor, shall certify the record to the superintendent of the agency, who shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior the record of the case and the amount of the available funds. If the Secretary shall so direct, the disbursing agent shall pay over to the judgment creditor the amount of the judgment, or such lesser amount as may be specified by the Secretary from the account of the judgment debtor.

SUBCHAPTER A - FOREIGN JUDGMENTS

Section 921. Definition

In this Title "foreign judgment" means any judgment, decree, or order of a Court of the United States, any other Indian tribe, or of any other Court which is entitled to comity or full faith and credit in the Tribal Court.

Section 922. Filing and Status of Foreign Judgments

A copy of any foreign judgment authenticated in accordance with the applicable act of Congress or of the statutes of the Tribe may be filed in the office of the Court Clerk. The Clerk shall treat the foreign judgment in the same manner as a judgment of the Tribal District Court. A judgment so filed has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of the Tribal District Court and may be enforced or satisfied in like manner. Provided, however, that no such filed foreign judgment shall be a lien on real estate of the judgment debtor until a certified copy of the judgment so filed is also filed in the office of the Court Clerk.

Section 923. Grounds for Non-Recognition

(a) A foreign judgment is not conclusive if

- (1) The judgment was rendered under a system which does not provide impartial tribunals or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of law,
- (2) The foreign Court did not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant, or
- (3) The foreign Court did not have jurisdiction over the subject matter.

(b) A foreign judgment need not be recognized if:

- (1) The defendant in the proceedings in the foreign Court did not receive notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable them to defend;
- (2) The judgment was obtained by fraud,
- (3) The cause of action on which the judgment is based is repugnant to the public policy of the Tribe,
- (4) The judgment conflicts with another final and conclusive judgment,
- (5) The proceeding in the foreign Court was contrary to an agreement between the parties under which the dispute in question was to be settled in a manner other than by proceedings in that Court, or
- (6) In the case of jurisdiction based only on personal service, the foreign Court was a seriously inconvenient forum for the trial of the action.

Section 924. Notice of Filing

(a) At the time of the filing of the foreign judgment, the judgment creditor or their lawyer shall make and file with the Clerk of the Court an affidavit setting forth the name and last known post office address of the judgment debtor, and of the judgment creditor.

(b) Promptly upon the filing of the foreign judgment and the affidavit, the Clerk shall mail notice of the filing of the foreign judgment to the judgment debtor at the address given and shall make a note of the mailing in the docket. The notice shall include the name and post office address of the judgment creditor and the judgment creditor's lawyer, if any. In addition, the judgment creditor may mail a notice of the filing of the judgment to the judgment debtor and may file proof of mailing with the Clerk. Lack of notice of filing by the Clerk shall not affect the enforcement proceedings if proof of mailing by the judgment creditor has been filed.

(c) No execution or other process for enforcement of a foreign judgment filed hereunder shall issue until twenty (20) days after the date the judgment is filed.

Section 925. Stay of Execution of Foreign Judgment

(a) If the judgment debtor shows the Tribal District Court that an appeal from the foreign judgment is pending or will be taken, or that a stay of execution has been granted, the Court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment until the appeal is concluded, or until the time for appeal expires, or until the stay of execution expires or is vacated, upon proof that the judgment debtor has furnished the security for the satisfaction of the judgment required by the law of the jurisdiction in which it was rendered.

(b) If the judgment debtor shows the Tribal District Court any ground upon which enforcement of a judgment of the Tribal Court would be stayed, the Court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment for an appropriate period, upon requiring the same security for satisfaction of the judgment which is required in the Tribal jurisdiction.

Section 926.

Any person filing a foreign judgment shall pay to the Court Clerk those fees now and hereafter prescribed by the statute or by authorized Court rule for the filing of an action in the Court. Fees for docketing, transcription or other enforcement proceedings shall be the same as provided for judgments of the Tribal District Court.

Section 927. Optional Procedure

The right of a judgment creditor to bring an action to enforce their judgment instead of proceedings under this subchapter remains unimpaired.

SUBCHAPTER B - EXECUTION

Section 931. Executions --Defined

Executions shall be deemed process of the Court, and shall be issued by the Clerk, and directed to the Chief of the Tribal Police.

Section 932. Kinds of Execution

Executions are of three kinds:

(a) Against the property of the judgment debtor,

(b) For the delivery of possession of real or personal property, with damages for withholding the same, and costs, and

(c) Executions in special cases.

Section 933. Property Subject to Levy

Lands, tenements, goods and chattels, not exempt by law shall be subject to the payment of debts, and shall be liable to be taken on execution and sold, as provided here.

Section 934. Property Bound After Seizure

All real estate not bound by the lien of the judgment, as well as goods and chattels of the debtor, shall be bound from the time they shall be seized in execution.

Section 935. Execution Must Be Issued Within Five Years

If execution is not issued and filed as provided by this subchapter within five (5) years after the date of any judgment, or if five (5) years have intervened between the date that the last execution on such judgment shall become unenforceable and of no effect, it shall cease to operate as a lien on the real estate or other property of the judgment debtor. Provided, that this Section shall not apply to judgments in favor of the Tribe, its subdivisions, or agents.

Section 936. Priority Among Property

The writ of execution against the property of the judgment debtor, issuing from the Tribal Court, shall command the officer to whom it is directed, that from the goods and chattels of the debtor, they cause to be made the money specified in the writ; and for want of goods and chattels, they cause the same non-trust interest in lands and tenements of the debtor; and the amount of the debt, damages and costs for which the judgment is entered shall be endorsed on the execution.

Section 937. Priority Among Executions

When two or more writs of execution against the same debtor shall be delivered to the officer prior to the date of sale of this property, no preference shall be given to either of such writs but if a sufficient sum of money be not made to satisfy all such executions, the amount made shall be distributed to the several creditors in proportion to the amount of their respective demands, provided that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to affect any preferable lien which one or more of the judgments, on which execution issued, may have on the property of the judgment debtor.

Section 938. Levy by Priority

The officer to whom a writ of execution is delivered shall proceed immediately to levy the same upon the goods and chattels of the debtor; but if no goods and chattels can be found, the officer shall endorse on the writ of execution, "no goods," and levy the writ of execution upon any interest in the lands and tenements of the debtor, which may be liable to satisfy the judgment; and if any of the interests in such lands and tenements of the debtor which may be liable shall be encumbered by mortgage or any other lien or liens, such lands and tenements may be levied upon and appraised and sold, subject to such lien or liens, which shall be stated in the appraisal.

Section 939. Who Makes Levy

It shall be unlawful for anyone to levy an attachment or execution within the Tribal jurisdiction who is not a bonded Tribal or Federal Police officer.

Section 940. When Levy Void

Any attachment or execution issued to, or levied by, anyone other than a bonded Tribal or Federal police officer shall be void and of no effect and the Court Clerk or other person issuing same, or officer or other person levying same, as the case may be, together with their bondsmen, shall be liable for any damage caused.

Section 941. Penalty for Unlawful Levy

Anyone violating the provisions of Section 939 of this Title shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) or confinement in the Tribal jail not to exceed thirty (30) days or both.

Section 942. Levy on Property Claimed by Third Person

If the officer, by virtue of an execution issued from the Tribal Court, shall levy the same on any goods and chattels claimed by any person other than the defendant, or be requested by the plaintiff to give them an undertaking, with good and sufficient securities to pay all costs and damages that they may sustain by reason of the detention or sale of such property; and until such undertaking shall be given, the officer may refuse to proceed as against such property.

Section 943. Re-Delivery to Defendant

In all cases where The Tribal Police Chief or other officer shall, by virtue of an execution, levy upon any goods and chattels which shall remain upon their hands unsold, for want of bidders, for the want of time to advertise and sell, or any other reasonable cause, the officer may, for their own security, take of the defendant an undertaking, with security, in such sum as they may deem sufficient, to the effect that the said property shall be delivered to the officer holding an execution for the sale of the same, at the time and place appointed by said officer, either by notice, given in writing, to said defendant in execution, or by advertisement published in a legal newspaper, naming therein the day and place of sale. If the defendant shall fail to deliver the goods and chattels at the time and place mentioned in the notice to them, or to pay to the officer holding the execution the full value of said goods and chattels, or the amount of said debt and costs, the undertaking may be proceeded on.

Section 944. Notice of Sale of Chattels

The officer who levies upon goods and chattels, by virtue of an execution issued by the Tribal Court, before they proceed to sell the same, shall cause public notice to be given of the time and place of sale, for at least ten (10) days before the day of sale. The notice shall be given by advertisement, published in some newspaper printed, or, in case no legal newspaper be published, by setting up advertisements in five public places in the Reservation. Two advertisements shall be put up in the township where the sale is to be held. Where goods and chattel levied upon cannot be sold for want of bidders, the officer making such return shall annex to the execution true and perfect inventory of such goods and chattels, and the plaintiff in such execution may thereupon issue out another writ of execution, directing the sale of the property levied upon as aforesaid; but such goods and chattels shall not be sold, unless the time and place of sale be advertised, as hereinbefore provided.

Section 945. Further Levy When Property Taken Insufficient

When any writ shall issue, directing the sale of property previously taken in execution, the officer issuing said writ shall, at the request of the person entitled to the benefit of the writ, their agent, or attorney, add a command to the officer to whom such writ shall be directed, that if the property remaining in their hands not sold, shall, in their opinion, be insufficient to satisfy the judgment, they shall levy the same upon lands and tenements, goods and chattels, or either, as the law shall permit, being the property of the judgment debtor, sufficient to satisfy the debt.

Section 946. Filing and Indexing of Execution

(a) When a general execution is issued and placed in the custody of the Tribal Police Chief for levy, a certified copy of such execution shall be filed in the office of the Court Clerk and shall be indexed the same as judgments.

(b) If a general or special execution is levied upon an interest in lands and tenements, the Tribal Police Chief shall endorse on the face of the writ the legal description and shall have three disinterested persons who have taken an oath to impartially appraise the property so levied on, upon actual view; and such disinterested persons shall return to the officer their signed estimate of the real value of said property.

(c) To extend a judgment lien beyond the initial or any subsequent statutory period, prior to the expiration of such period, a certified copy of a general execution thereon shall be filed and indexed in the same manner as judgments in the office of the Court.

Section 947. Waiver of Appraisement

It is against the public policy of the Tribe to allow enforcement of execution upon realty without appraisal, and if the words "appraisement waived" or other words of similar import, shall be inserted in any deed, mortgages, bonds, notes, bill or written contract, they shall be of no effect whatsoever and an appraisal shall be ordered notwithstanding any contract to the contrary.

Section 948. Return of Appraisalment

The officer receiving such return of appraisalment pursuant to Section 946(b) of this Title shall forthwith deposit a copy thereof with the Clerk of the Court and advertise and sell such property, agreeably to the provisions of this Title.

Section 949. When Lien Restricted

If, upon return, it appears that two thirds of the appraised value of said non-trust interest in lands and tenements, so levied upon, is sufficient to satisfy the execution, with costs, the judgment on which such execution issued shall not operate as a lien on the residue of the debtor's estate, to the prejudice of any other judgment creditor; but no such property shall be sold for less than two-thirds of the value returned in the inquest; and nothing in this Section contained shall extend to affect the sale of lands by the Tribe. All lands shall be sold without valuation for the discharge of such debt or taxes.

Section 950. Notice of Sale of Realty

Any non-trust interest in lands and tenements taken on execution shall not be sold until the officer causes public notice of the time and place of sale to be given by publication for two (2) successive weeks in a legal newspaper and by putting up an advertisement upon the Court website, house door or other public bulletin board within a common area of the Court and in five (5) other public places in the Reservation, two (2) of which shall be in the township where such lands and tenements lie. Such sale shall not be held less than thirty (30) days after the date of the first publication of the notice herein required.

All sales made without such advertisement shall be set aside on motion by the Court to which the execution is returnable.

Section 951. Confirmation of Sale

If the Court, upon the return of any writ of execution, for the satisfaction of which any lands or tenements have been sold, shall, after having carefully examined the proceedings of the officer, be satisfied that the sale has, in all respects, been made in conformity with the provisions of this Title, the Court shall direct the Clerk to make an entry on the journal that the Court is satisfied of the legality of such sale, and an order that the officer make to the purchaser a deed for such interest in lands and tenements; and the officer, on making such sale, shall deposit the purchase money with the Clerk of the Court where same shall remain until the Court shall have examined their proceedings as aforesaid, when the Clerk of the Court shall pay the same of the person entitled thereto, agreeably to the order of the Court.

Section 952. Police Chief's Deed

The Chief of the Tribal Police or other officer who, upon such writ or writs of execution, shall sell the said lands and tenements, or any part thereof, shall make to the purchase as good and sufficient deed of conveyance of the land sold, as the person or persons against whom such writ or writs of execution were issued could have made of the same, at or any time after they became liable to the judgment. The deed shall be sufficient evidence of the legality of such sale, and the proceedings therein, until the contrary be proved, and the deed shall vest in the purchaser as good and as perfect an estate in the premises therein mentioned as was vested in the party at, or after, the time when such lands and tenements became liable to the satisfaction of the judgment; and such deed of conveyance, to be made by the Chief of Tribal Police or other officer, shall recite the execution or executions, or the substance thereof, and the names of the parties, the amount and date of rendition of each judgment, by virtue whereof the said lands and tenements were sold as aforesaid, and shall be executed, acknowledged and recorded as is or may be provided by law, to perfect the conveyance of such interests in real estate in other cases.

Section 953. Advance of Printer's Fees

The officer who levies upon goods and chattels, or lands and tenements, or who is charged with the duty of selling the same by virtue of any writ of execution, may refuse to publish a notice of the sale thereof by advertisement in a newspaper until the party for whose benefit such execution issued, their agent or attorney, shall advance to such officer so much money as will be sufficient to discharge the fees of the printer for publishing such notice.

Section 954. Demand for Printing Fees

Before any officer shall be excused from giving the notification mentioned in Section 952, they shall demand of the party for whose benefit the execution was issued, their agent or attorney, the fees in said Section specified.

Section 955. Place of Sale

All sales of interests in land or tenements under execution shall be held at the Tribal Court unless some other place within the Reservation is designated by the Judge having jurisdiction in the case. No Tribal Policeman or other officer making the sale of property, either personal or real, nor any appraiser of such property, shall either directly or indirectly purchase the same; and every purchase so made shall be considered fraudulent and void.

Section 956. Other Executions of Realty Not Sold

If lands or tenements, levied on as aforesaid, are not sold upon one execution, other executions may be issued to sell the property so levied upon.

Section 957. Levy on Realty Under Several Executions

In all cases where two or more executions shall be put into the hands of the Tribal Police or other officer, and it shall be necessary to levy on real estate to satisfy the same, and either of the judgment creditors, in whose favor one or more of said executions are issued, shall require the Tribal Police or other officer to levy said executions, or so many, thereof as may be required, on separate parcels of the real property of the judgment debtor or debtors, it shall be the duty of the officer, when required, to levy the same on separate parcels of the real property of the judgment debtor or debtors, when, in the opinion of the appraisers, the property of said debtors will not be sufficient, at two-thirds of its appraised value, to satisfy all the executions chargeable thereon, such part of the same shall be levied on, to satisfy each execution, as will bear the same proportion in value to the whole, as the amount due to the execution bears to the amount of all the executions chargeable thereon, as near as may be according to the appraised value of each separate parcel of said real property.

Section 958. Deed by Successor of Officer Making Sale

If the term of service of the Tribal Police Chief or other officer who has made, or shall hereafter make sale of any non-trust interest in lands and tenements, shall expire, or if the Tribal Police Chief or other officer shall be absent, or be rendered unable by death or otherwise, to make a deed of conveyance of the same, any succeeding Tribal Police Chief or other officer or the law enforcement officer acting on their behalf, on receiving a certificate from the Court from which the execution issued for the sale of said non-trust interest in lands and tenements, signed by the clerk, by order of said Court, setting forth that sufficient proof has been made to the Court that said sale was fairly and legally made, and on tender of the purchase money, or if the same or any part thereof be paid then on proof of such payment and tender of the balance, if any, may execute to the said purchase or purchasers, or their or their legal representative, a deed of conveyance of said lands and tenements so sold. Such deed shall be as good and valid in law and have the same effect as if the Tribal Police Chief or other officer who made the sale had executed the same.

Section 959. Payment to Defendant of Overplus After Sale

If, on any sale made as aforesaid, there shall be in the hands of the Tribal Police Chief or other officer more money than is sufficient to satisfy the writ or writs of execution, with interest and costs, the Tribal Police Chief or other officer shall, on demand, pay the balance to the defendant in execution.

Section 960. Reversal of Judgment After Sale of Interest in Land

If any judgment or judgments, in satisfaction of which any non-trust interests, lands, or tenements are sold, shall at any time thereafter be reversed, such reversal shall not defeat or affect the title of the purchaser or purchasers; but in such cases, restitution shall be made, by the judgment creditors, of the money, for which such lands or tenements were sold, with lawful interest from the day of sale.

Section 961. Execution on Judgment in Favor of Tribe

In all civil actions in which the Tribe as plaintiff, has or may recover judgment, and in any such action an execution has or may be issued, the Tribe through the officer or officers on whose relation the action was brought, may bid at such execution sale, and buy said property offered for sale, for any amount not to exceed the amount of the judgment in such action and such additional amount as may be approved by the Tribal Legislative Body said amount to be credited upon the judgment.

When such property offered for the sale at execution is brought by the Tribe, said property may be sold for the Tribe by the officer or officers upon whose relation the Tribe was party plaintiff, and further provided that at such execution sales the attorney or attorneys representing the Tribe may bid for the Tribe, not to exceed the amount of the judgment and such additional amount as may be approved by the Tribal Legislative Body, provided however, that said bid be not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) higher than the next best bid, and if there be no other bidder, then not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00).

And further provided that in disposing of such property so acquired, if it be personal property the officer or successor of the officer upon whose relation the Tribe was plaintiff may sell said property by executing a good and sufficient Bill of Sale, to be attested by the Secretary of the Tribe. And in disposing of any non-trust interest in real property so acquired or any interest or equity therein, the officer or successor in office on whose relation the Tribe was party plaintiff may execute in the name of the Tribe by said officer a good and sufficient deed, to be attested by the Secretary of the Tribe. Provided, however, that in no event shall any sale be valid under this Title for any amount less than the amount for which said property was originally bid in by the Tribe. The funds obtained upon the sale of any such property shall be placed in the fund for which the judgment was obtained, or if none, then in the Tribal land purchases fund for the purchase of further real property to the Tribe.

Section 962. Reappraisal Where Realty Twice Advertised for Sale

In all cases where a non-trust interest in real estate has been or may be taken on execution and appraised and twice advertised and offered for sale, and shall remain unsold for the want of bidders, it shall be the duty of the Court, on motion of the plaintiff, to set aside such appraisal and order a new one to be made, or to set aside such levy and appraisal and order a new execution to issue, as the case may require.

Section 963. Return of Execution

The Chief of the Tribal Police or other officer to whom any writ of execution shall be directed, shall return such writ to the Court to which the same is returnable, within ninety (90) days from the date thereof.

Section 964. Principal and Surety

In all cases where judgment is rendered in the Tribal Court upon any instrument of writing in which two or more persons are jointly and severally bound, and it shall be made to appear to the Court, by parole or other testimony, that one or more of said persons so bound, signed the same as surety or bail, for their or their co-defendant, it shall be the duty of the clerk of said Court, in recording the judgment thereon to certify which of the defendants is principal debtor, and which are sureties or bail. And the clerk of the Court aforesaid shall issue execution on such judgment, commanding the Chief of the Tribal Police or other officer to cause the money to be made of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of the principal debtor, but for want of sufficient property of the principal or debtor to make the same that they cause the same to be made of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of the surety or bail. In all cases, the property both personal and real, of the principal debtor, within the jurisdiction of the Court, shall be exhausted before any of the property of the surety or bail shall be taken in execution.

Section 965. Hearing on Assets

In addition to other discovery procedures, the Court, at any time after judgment upon motion of the judgment creditor, may order the judgment debtor to appear and answer concerning their property subject to execution to satisfy the judgment. The order to appear shall be served on the judgment debtor as a summons is served and may contain an order prohibiting the conveyance of any non-exempt property, and may order the production of any books, records, documents, or paper relating to the judgment creditors property. Such order may be enforced by contempt proceedings.

SUBCHAPTER C - CONTRIBUTION

Section 971. Joint Debtors or Sureties

When property, liable to an execution against several persons, is sold thereon, and more than a due proportion of the judgment is laid upon the property of one of them, or one of them pays, without a sale, more than their proportion, they may regardless of the nature of the demand upon which the judgment was rendered, compel contribution from the others; and when a judgment is against several, and is upon an obligation of one of them, as security for another, and the surety pays the amount, or any party thereof, either by sale of their property or before sale, they may compel repayment from the principal; in such case, the person so paying or contributing, is entitled to the benefit of the judgment, to enforce contribution or repayment, if within ten days after the payment they file with the Clerk of Court notice of the payment and claim to contribution or repayment. Upon a filing of such notice, the Clerk shall make an entry thereof in the docket.

Section 972. Joint Tortfeasors - Contribution Indemnity Exemptions - Release, Covenant Not to Sue, etc.,

(a) When two or more persons become jointly or severally liable in tort for the same injury to person or property for the same wrongful death, there is a right of contribution among them even though judgment has not been recovered against all or any of them except as provided in this Section.

(b) The right of contribution exists only in favor of a tortfeasor who has paid more than their pro rata share of the common liability, and their total recovery is limited to the amount paid by them in excess of their pro rata share. No tortfeasor is compelled to make contribution beyond their own pro rata share of the entire liability.

(c) There is no right of contribution in favor of any tortfeasor who has intentionally caused or contributed to the injury or wrongful death.

(d) A tortfeasor who enters into a settlement with a claimant is not entitled to recover contribution from another tortfeasor whose liability for the wrongful death is not extinguished by the settlement nor in respect to any amount paid in a settlement which is in excess of what was reasonable.

(e) This Title does not impair any right of indemnity under existing law. When one tortfeasor is entitled to indemnity from another, the right of the indemnity obligee is for indemnity and not contribution, and the indemnity obligor is not entitled to contribution from the obligee for any portion of their indemnity obligation.

Section 985. Costs to Successful Party as Matter of Course

Where it is not otherwise provided by this and other statutes, costs shall be allowed of course to the party, upon a judgment in their favor, in actions for the recovery of money only, or for the recovery of specific real or personal property.

Section 986. Costs in other Cases

In other actions, the Court may award and tax costs and apportion the same between the parties on the same or adverse sides, as in its discretion it may think right and equitable.

Section 987. Several Actions on Joint Instrument

Where several actions are brought on one bill of exchange, promissory note or other obligation, or instrument in writing, against several parties who might have been joined as defendants in the same action, no costs shall be recovered by the plaintiff in more than one of such actions, if the parties proceeded against in the other actions were at the commencement of the previous action, openly within the Tribal jurisdiction or otherwise subject to suit and service of process in the Tribal District Court and the whereabouts of such persons were known or could have been ascertained with reasonable diligence.

Section 988. Clerk to Tax Costs

The Clerks of the District Court shall tax the costs in each case, and insert the same in their respective judgments, subject to retaxation by the Court, on motion of any person interested.

Section 989. Cost of Notice or Other Legal Publication

Whenever any notice, or other legal publication is required by law to be made in any action or proceeding pending in the Court, the cost of such publication shall be taxed as other costs in said action or proceeding.

Section 990. Attorney Fees Taxable as Costs

(a) In any civil action to recover on an open account, a statement of account, account stated, note, bill, negotiable instrument, or contract relating to the purchase or sale of goods, wares, or merchandise, or for labor or services, unless otherwise provided by law or the contract which is the subject of the action, the prevailing party shall be allowed reasonable attorney's fees to be set by the Court, to be taxed and collected as costs.

(b) In any civil action to enforce payment of or to collect upon a check, draft or similar bill of exchange drawn on a bank or otherwise, payment upon which said instrument has been refused because of insufficient funds or no account, the party prevailing on such cause of action shall be awarded a reasonable attorney's fee, such fee to be assessed by the Court as costs against the losing party, provided, that said fee shall not be allowed unless the plaintiff offers proof during the trial of said action that prior to the filing of the petition in the action, a demand for payment of the check, draft or similar bill of exchange had been made upon the defendant by registered or certified mail not less than ten (10) days prior to the filing of such suit.

(c) In any civil action or proceeding to recover for the overpayment of any charge for water, sanitary sewer, garbage, electric or natural gas service from any person, firm, or corporation or to determine the right of any person, firm or corporation to receive any such service, the prevailing party shall be allowed a reasonable attorney's fee to be set by the Court, to be taxed and collected as costs.

(d) In any civil action brought to recover damages for breach of an express warranty or to enforce the terms of an express warranty against the seller, retailer, manufacturer, manufacturer's representative or distributor, the prevailing party shall be allowed a reasonable attorney's fee to be set by the Court, which shall be taxed and collected as costs.

(e) In any civil action to recover damages for the negligent or willful injury to property and any other incidental costs related to such action, the prevailing party shall be allowed reasonable attorney's fees, Court costs, and interest to be set by the Court and to be taxed and collected as other costs of the action, except that a plaintiff who is required to pay costs pursuant to Section 903 of this Title may not recover their attorney's fees as provided by this Subsection.

Section 991. Costs Defined

Costs include, in addition to items of expense specifically recoverable as costs pursuant to any statute of the Tribe, fees required to be paid by law for the filing of any paper in an action expense for service of process as provided by law, costs of transcripts, Tribal Police Fees for service of papers and mileage, costs of publication of any notice required to be published, printing of briefs or other documents required by the Court to be printed, and any other items made recoverable as costs by Court rule.

Section 992. Authority of Court to Fix Cost Rates

The Court by rule may set the fees and costs of any service performed by the Court Clerk or Tribal Police Chief on behalf of the parties when such fees and costs are not provided for by Tribal statute. Such fees and costs shall be maintained at the minimum level possible considering the needs of the Court Fund.

CHAPTER TEN

Section 1001. Limitations Applicable

Civil actions can only be commenced within the periods prescribed in this Chapter after the cause of action shall have accrued; but where, in special cases, a different limitation is prescribed by statute, the action shall be governed by such limitation. There shall be no statute of limitations applicable against civil actions brought by the Tribe on its own behalf except to the extent that a statute of limitation is expressly stated to be applicable to the Tribe by this Code or some Tribal statute.

Section 1002. Limitation of Real Actions

Actions for the recovery of real property or for the determination of any adverse right or interest therein, can only be brought within the period hereinafter prescribed, after the claim shall have accrued, and at no other time thereafter.

(a) An action for the recovery of non-trust interest in real property sold on execution, or for the recovery of real estate partitioned by judgment in kind, or sold, or conveyed pursuant to partition proceedings, or other judicial sale, or an action for the recovery of real estate distributed under decree of The Court, in administration or probate proceedings, when brought by or on behalf of the execution debtor or former owner, or their heirs, or any person claiming under them or them by title acquired after the date of the judgment or by any person claiming to be an heir or devisee of the decedent in whose estate such decree was rendered, or claiming under, as successor in interest, any such heir or devisee, within five (5) years after the date of the recording of the deed made in pursuance of the sale or proceeding, or within five (5) years after the date of the entry of the final judgment of partition in kind where no sale is had in the partition proceedings; or within five (5) years after the recording of the decree of distribution rendered by the Court in an administration or probate proceeding; provided, however, that where any such action pertains to real estate distributed under decree of the Court in administration or probate proceedings and would at the passage of this Title be barred by the terms hereof, such action may be brought within five (5) years after the passage of this Title.

(b) An action for the recovery of real property sold by executors, administrators, or guardian, upon an order or judgment of a Court directing such sale, brought by the heirs or devisees of the deceased person, or the ward of their guardian, or any person claiming under any or either of them, by the title acquired after the date of judgment or order, within five (5) years after the date of the recording of the deed made in pursuance of the sale.

(c) An action for the recovery of real property sold for taxes, within five (5) years after the date of the recording of the tax deed.

(d) An action for the recovery of real property not hereinbefore provided for, within twenty (20) years.

(e) An action for the forcible entry and detention or forcible detention only of real property, within three (3) years.

(f) Paragraphs a, b, and c shall be fully operative regardless of whether the deed or judgment or the precedent action or proceeding upon which such deed or judgment is based is void or voidable in whole or in part, for any reason, jurisdictional or otherwise: provided that this paragraph shall not be applied so as to bar causes of action which have heretofore accrued, until the expiration of five (5) years from and after its effective date.

(g) Nothing in this Section should be construed to impose any statute of limitation upon the enforcement of a right to possession of real property held by the United States in trust for any Indian or Indian Tribe under any law of the United States in conformity to the laws of the United States relating to such real property.

Section 1003. Persons Under Disability - In Real Property Actions

Any person entitled to bring an action for the recovery of real property, who may be under any legal disability when the cause of action accrues, may bring their action within two years after the disability is removed.

Section 1004. Limitation of Other Actions

Civil actions other than for the recovery of real property can only be brought within the following periods, after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterwards:

(a) Within seven (7) years: An action upon any contract, agreement or promise in writing.

(b) Within five (5) years: An action upon a contract express or implied not in writing; an action upon a liability created by statute including a forfeiture or penalty except where the statute imposes a different limitation and an action on a foreign judgment.

(c) Within three (3) years: An action for trespass upon real property; an action for taking, detaining, or injuring personal property, including actions for the specific recovery of personal property; an action for injury to the rights of another, not arising on contract except as otherwise provided in building construction tort claims, and not hereinafter enumerated; an action for relief on the ground of fraud - the cause of action in such case shall not be deemed to have accrued until the discovery of the fraud.

(d) Within one (1) year: An action for libel, slander, assault, battery, malicious prosecution, or false imprisonment.

(e) An action upon the official bond or undertaking of an executor, administrator, guardian, Tribal Police Officer, or any other officer, or upon the bond or undertaking given in attachment, injunction arrest or in any case whatever required by the statute, can only be brought within five (5) years after the cause of action shall have accrued.

(f) An action for relief, not hereinbefore provided for, can only be brought within five

(5) years after the cause of action shall have accrued.

Section 1005. Persons Under Disability in Actions Other Than Real Property

If a person entitled to bring an action other than for the recovery of real property be, at the time the cause of action accrued, under any legal disability, every such person shall be entitled to bring such action within one year after such disability shall be removed.

Section 1006. Absence or Flight of Defendant

When a cause of action accrues against a person and that person is out of the Tribal jurisdiction or has concealed themselves, the period limited for the commencement of the action shall not begin to run until they come into the Tribal jurisdiction, or while they are concealed. If, after a cause of action accrues against a person and that person leaves the Tribal jurisdiction or conceals themselves, the time of their absence or concealment shall not be computed as any part of the period within which the action must be brought. Provided, however, that if any statute which extends the exercise of personal jurisdiction of the Court over a person or corporation based upon service outside the tribal jurisdiction State, or nation, or based upon service by publication permits the Court of this Tribe to acquire personal jurisdiction over the person, the period of their absence or concealment shall be computed as part of the period within which the action must be brought.

Section 1007. Limitation of New Action After Failure

If any action is commenced within due time, and a judgment thereon for the plaintiff is reversed, or if the plaintiff fails in such action otherwise than upon the merits, the plaintiff, or, if they should die, and the cause of action survive, their representatives may commence a new action within two years after the reversal or failure although the time limit for commencing the action shall have expired before the new action is filed. An appeal of any judgment or order against the plaintiff other than on the merits as above stated shall toll the two-year period during the pendency of the appeal.

Section 1008. Extension of Limitation

In any case founded on contract, when any part of the principal or interest shall have been paid, or an acknowledgement of an existing liability, debt or claim, or any promise to pay the same shall have been made, an action may be brought in such case within the period prescribed for the same, after such payment, acknowledgment or promise; but such acknowledgment or promise must be in writing, signed by the party to be charged thereby.

Section 1009. Statutory Bar Absolute

When a right of action is barred by the provisions of any applicable statute, it shall be unavailable either as a cause of action or ground of defense, except as otherwise provided with reference to a counterclaim, setoff, or cross-claim.

Section 1010. Law Governing Foreign Claims

The period of limitation applicable to a claim· accruing outside of the Tribal jurisdiction shall be that prescribed either by the law of the place where the claim accrued or by the law of this Tribe whichever last bars the claim.

Section 1011. Limitation of Building Construction Tort Claims

No action in tort to recover damages:

(a) For any deficiency in the design, planning, supervision or observation of construction or construction of an improvement to real property,

(b) For injury to property, real or personal, arising out of any such deficiency, or shall be brought against any person owning, leasing, or in possession of such an improvement or performing or furnishing the design, planning, supervision or observation of construction or construction of such an improvement more than ten (10) years after substantial completion of such an improvement.

(c) For injury to the person or for wrongful death arising out of any such deficiency.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

SMALL CLAIMS PROCEDURE

Section 1101. Small Claims

The following suits may be brought under the small claims procedure:

(a) Actions for the recovery of money based on contract or tort, including subrogation claims, but excluding libel or slander, where the amount sought to be recovered, exclusive of attorney’s fees and other Court costs, does not exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00). Libel or slander actions may not be brought in the small claims Court.

(b) Actions to replevy personal property where the value of personal property sought to be replevied does not exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00); where the claims for possession of personal property and to recover money are pleaded in the alternative, the joinder of claims is permissible if neither the value of the property nor the total amount of money sought to be recovered, exclusive of attorney’s fees and other costs, does not exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00);

No action may be brought under small claims procedure by any collection agency, or any assignee of a claim. In those cases which are uncontested the amount of attorney’s fees allowed shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the judgment.

Section 1102. Small Claims Affidavit

Actions under the small claims procedure shall be initiated by plaintiff or their attorney filing an affidavit in substantially the following form with the Clerk of the Court:

Clerk of the Court (or Judge)

Section 1103. Preparation of Affidavit

The claimant shall prepare such an affidavit as is set forth in Section 1102 of this Chapter or, at their request, the Clerk of said Court shall draft the same for them. Such affidavit may be presented by the claimant in person or sent to the Clerk by mail. Upon receipt of said affidavit, properly sworn to, the Clerk shall file the same and make a true and correct copy thereof, and the Clerk shall fill in the blanks in the order printed on said copy and sign the order.

Section 1104. Service of Affidavit

Unless service by the Tribal Police Chief or other authorized person is requested by the plaintiff, the defendant shall be served by mail. The Clerk shall enclose a copy of the affidavit and the order in an envelope addressed to the defendant at the address stated in said affidavit, prepay the postage, and mail said envelope to said defendant by certified mail and request a return receipt from addressee only. The clerk shall attach to the original affidavit the receipt for the certified letter and the return card thereon or other evidence of service of said affidavit and order. If the envelope is returned undelivered and sufficient time remains for making service, the clerk shall deliver a copy of the affidavit and order to the Tribal Police Chief who shall serve the defendant in the time stated in Section 1105.

Section 1105. Date for Appearance

The date for the appearance of the defendant as provided in the order endorsed on the affidavit shall not be more than thirty (30) days nor less than ten (10) days from the date of said order. The Order shall be served upon the defendant at least seven (7) days prior to the date specified in said order for the appearance of the defendant. If it is not served upon the defendant, the plaintiff must apply to the Clerk for a new alias order setting a new day for the appearance of the defendant, which shall not be more than thirty (30) days nor less than ten (10) days from the date of the issuance of the new order. When the clerk has fixed the date for appearance of the defendant, they shall inform the plaintiff, either in person or by certified mail, of said date and order the plaintiff to appear on said date.

Section 1106. Transfer of Actions

On motion of the defendant the action shall be transferred from the small claims docket to the general civil docket of the Court, provided said motion is filed and notice given to opposing party at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time fixed in the order for defendant to appear or answer and, provided further, that the defendant deposit the cost of filing a complaint in a civil action, and thereafter, the action shall proceed as other civil actions and shall not proceed under the small claims procedure. The clerk shall enclose a copy of the order transferring the action from the small claims docket to the general docket in an envelope addressed to the plaintiff, with postage prepaid. Within twenty (20) days of the date the transfer order is signed, the plaintiff shall file a civil complaint that conforms to the standards of civil pleadings and shall be answered and proceed to trial as in other civil actions. If the plaintiff ultimately prevails in the action so transferred by the defendant, a reasonable attorney's fee shall be allowed to plaintiff's attorney to be taxed as costs in the case.

Section 1107. Counterclaim or Setoff

No formal pleading, other than the claim and notice, shall be necessary, and there is no requirement to assert any counterclaim or cross claim, but if the defendant wishes to state a new matter which constitutes a counterclaim or a setoff, they shall file a verified answer, a copy of which shall be delivered to the plaintiff or their attorney in person, and filed with the Clerk of the Court not later than forty eight (48) hours prior to the hour set for the appearance of said defendant in such action. Such answer shall be made in substantially the following form:

Notary Public (or Clerk Judge)

Section 1108. Actions for Amounts Exceeding Two Thousand Dollars

If a claim, a counterclaim, or a setoff is filed for an amount in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), the action shall be transferred to the general civil docket of the District Court unless both parties agree in writing and file said agreement with the papers in the action that said claim, counterclaim or setoff shall be tried under the small claims procedure. If such an agreement has not been filed, a judgment in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) may not be enforced for the part that exceeds two thousand dollars ($2,000.00).

Section 1109. Attachment or Garnishment, other Matters

No attachment or prejudgment garnishment shall issue in any suit under the small claims procedure. Proceedings to enforce or collect a judgment rendered by the Trial Court in a suit under the small claims procedure shall be in all respects as in other cases.

No depositions shall be taken or interrogatories or other discovery proceeding shall be used under the small claims procedure except in aid of execution. No new parties shall be brought into the action, and no party shall be allowed to intervene in the action.

Section 1110. Trial by Court

Actions under the small claims procedure shall be tried to the Court. Provided, however, if either party wishes a reporter, they must notify the Clerk of the Court in writing at least forty-eight (48) hours before the time set for the defendant's appearance and must deposit with said notice with the Clerk the sum of twenty dollars ($20.00) against the costs or producing the record. The plaintiff and the defendant shall have the right to offer evidence in their behalf by witnesses appearing at such hearing, and the Judge may call such witnesses and order the production of such documents as they may deem appropriate. The hearing and disposition of such actions shall be informal with the sole object of dispensing speedy justice between the parties.

Section 1111. Payment of Judgment

If judgment be rendered against either party for the payment of money, said party shall pay the same forthwith, provided, however, the Judge may make such order as to time of payment or otherwise as may, by them, be deemed to be right and just.

Section 1112. Appeals

Appeals may be taken from the judgment rendered under small claims procedure to the Supreme Court of the Tribe in the same manner as appeals are taken in other civil actions, provided that any party which did not request a reporter as provided in Section 1110 shall not be granted a new trial or other relief on appeal due to lack of a record.

Section 1113. Fees

A fee shall be charged and collected for the filing of the affidavit for the commencement of any action, for the filing of any counterclaim or setoff, for the mailing of the copy of the affidavit as determined by rules of the Court, and, if the affidavit and order are served by the Tribal Police, the Clerk shall collect the usual police service fee, which shall be taxed as costs in the case. After judgment, the Clerk shall issue such process and shall be entitled to collect such fees and charges as are allowed by law for the like services in other actions. All fees collected hereunder shall be deposited with other fees that are collected by the District Court. Provided that any statute provided for an award of attorney's fees shall be applicable to the small claims division if the attorney makes an appearance in the case, whether before or after judgment or on hearing for disclosure of assets.

Section 1114. Costs

The prevailing party in an action is entitled to costs of the action, including the costs of service of the order for the appearance of the defendant and the costs of enforcing any judgment rendered therein.

Section 1115. Judgments Rendered Under Small Claims Procedure

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein, judgments rendered under the Small Claims Procedure shall not be entered upon the judgment docket. Such a judgment shall not become a lien upon real property unless entered upon the judgment docket as provided here.

(b) Any small claims judgment, when satisfied by payment other than through the officer of the Court Clerk or otherwise discharged, may be released by the Court upon written application to the Court by the judgment debtor and upon proof of due notice thereof having been mailed by the Court Clerk to the judgment creditor at their last known address at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing of the application. Payment of all costs necessary to accomplish said release shall be paid by the judgment debtor.

(c) Such judgment shall become a lien on any non-trust interest real property of the judgment debtor within the Tribal jurisdiction only from and after the time a certified copy of the judgment has been filed in the office of the Court Clerk. No judgment, under the Small Claims Procedure Act shall be a lien on the real property of a judgment debtor until it has been filed in this manner. When a judgment is entered upon the judgment docket, the Court Clerk shall instruct the prevailing party of the manner in which to proceed to file such judgment for the purpose of obtaining a lien against the real property of the judgment debtor and the Court Clerk shall provide the proper certified copy of the judgment necessary to file.

Section 1116. Fee for Docketing Judgments

The Court Clerk shall, upon payment by the prevailing party of a fee established by Court rule, cause the judgment to be entered upon the judgment docket. Fees collected pursuant to this Section shall become part of the cost of the action.

Section 1117. Other Actions in Small Claims Court

By leave of the Court, and with the consent of all parties, other actions not provided by herein, or exceeding the maximum amount allowed to be claimed by Sections 1101 and 1108, except actions for libel and slander, may be tried under the small claims procedure. The motion for leave to file in such cases shall contain the consent of the defendant endorsed thereon, or such consent shall be promptly filed upon the submittal for filing of the small claims affidavit.
